Society Government Enlightenment:

The Making of Bourgeois Europe Colin Mooers, 1991-03-17 A defense of the concept of bourgeois revolution in European history
Enlightened Absolutism H.M. Scott, 1990-03-05 Each book in this series is designed to make available to students important new work on key historical problems and periods that they encounter Each volume devoted to a central topic or theme contains specially commissioned essays from scholars in the relevant field These provide an assessment of a particular aspect pointing out areas of development and controversy and indicating where conclusions can be drawn or where further work is necessary while an editorial introduction reviews the problem or period as a whole In this text the contributors assess reform and reformers in late 18th century Europe covering such topics as Catherine the Great the Danish reformers the Habsburg Monarchy and events in Spain and Italy

Institution Building and State Formation in Nineteenth-century Latin America Blake D. Pattridge, 2004 The major issues addressed include the relationships between institution building and state formation between the university and the development of a national and regional identity and between modernism and Catholicism still a central tension in the region's culture including the discursive process of constructing an ideology that fused elements from the Enlightenment and the tradition of scholasticism
To the Threshold of Power, 1922/33 MacGregor Knox, 2007-09-10 To the Threshold of Power is the first volume of a two part work that seeks to explain the origins and dynamics of the Fascist and National Socialist dictatorships It lays a foundation for understanding the Nazi and Fascist regimes through parallel investigations of Italian and German society institutions and national myths the supreme test of the First World War and the post 1918 struggles from which the Fascist and National Socialist movements emerged It emphasizes two principal sources of movement the nationalist mythology of the intellectuals and the institutional culture and agendas of the two armies especially the Imperial German Army and its Reichswehr successor The book's climax is the cataclysm of 1914-18 and the rise and triumph of militarily organized radical nationalist movements Mussolini's Fasci di combattimento and Hitler's National Socialist German Workers Party dedicated to the perpetuation of the war and the overthrow of the post 1918 world order

Society, government and the enlightenment C. B. A. Behrens, 1985-11-01

Pietism and the Making of Eighteenth-Century Prussia Richard L. Gawthrop, 2006-11-02 This work describes the relationship between Pietism and the rise of the Prussian state
The State and Social Investigation in Britain and the United States Michael J. Lacey, Mary O. Furner, 1993-06-25 The State and Social Investigation in Britain and the United States addresses the historical development of the knowledge base upon which the public policies of the democratic state depend This comparative study stretches from the Enlightenment origins of the impulse to base legislation on scientific knowledge to the twentieth century development of specialised institutions and professions engaged in social investigation and public policy making It probes investigators' biases and omissions as well as their strengths as factors shaping social learning It illuminates the vital link between social empiricism and the late nineteenth century emergence of the New

Liberalism in both Britain and the United States And it ponders the impact on social investigation and social policy today of relativism antistatism devolution and privatisation as these currents have developed in both societies since the 1970s
