Suicide and the Elderly ,1986-10-21 Product information not available      National Library of Medicine Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),      Current Catalog National Library of Medicine (U.S.),1982 First multi year cumulation covers six years 1965 70      Anthropology of Aging Marjorie M. Schweitzer,1991-06-19 During the 1970s Comparative Cultural Gerontology or the Anthropology of Aging with its focus on aging from a cross cultural perspective attained the status of a new speciality in the field of anthropology It was only in the late 1960s to the mid 70s that elderly people and the process of aging became recognized as a bona fide research topic for anthropology Majorie M Schweitzer s Anthropology of Aging looks at aging from this cross cultural perspective and updates the Association for Anthropology and Gerontology s previously published Topical Bibliography and the Supplement to the Topical Bibliography on the Anthropology of Aging Schweitzer focuses on citations that represent anthropological perspectives and or cross cultural data with data from other disciplines included when warranted Besides a greatly expanded number of bibliographical references Schweitzer s work includes annotations for particularly important citations including those that address special issues such as method and theory as they relate to aging and those that provide the clearest treatment of a particular topic The topical outline of the 1982 volume has been retained with only minor additions and changes making the Bibliography both easy to use and a rich resource for researchers Over 40 international scholars in the field of aging have updated the various sections of the original bibliography Organized according to two kinds of topics subject topics such as Modernization and regional cultural group topics such as Great Britain American Indian the reference contains 14 chapters that investigate research on the subject from Africa to the Pacific Rim USSR USA Europe Israel and more Beginning with a chapter that zeroes in on general theoretical and comparative works the volume proceeds with chapters that examine demography biology and longevity medical aspects of aging non industrialized societies national cultures modernization and ethnic rural segments of the United States The last six chapters examine social structure community organization and age homogeneous residences urban aged social networks support systems women death and dying and methods The final chapter contains a list of additional bibliographies A must for most research libraries this comprehensive bibliography will be widely used by teachers students researchers social workers service providers and administrators from many different disciplines      Pastoral Responses to Older Adults and Their Families Vivienne S. Pierce,1992 This comprehensive bibliography lists more than 700 books journal articles and dissertations on religion and aging The bulk of the material is from the Jewish and Christian traditions However the bibliography also treats writings from other faiths      Families and Aging ,1991-12-11 Coyle has selected and annotated nearly 800 books articles films dissertations and government documents concerning families and aging most of which were published in the last ten years The entries include such topics as widowhood intergenerational relationships family caregiving and the ethnic elderly      Federal Public Policy on Aging Since 1960 ,1987-09-18 This bibliography on federal policy on aging deals not only with official actions taken by government but also with the issues that cause such actions to be taken or at least proposed Dealing with a period beginning with 1960 when public support of national action on social insurance and other aging related matters was mounting this bibliography's entries cover the years through early 1986 taking due note of the contemporary wave of analyses protesting perceived inequities in social security and medicare provisions The 162 entries in Part One annotate book length or other evaluations declaring the failure partial success or considerable achievement of federal action that intended to make life better for older Americans In addition to global appraisals Part One offers entries dealing with key principles in the making of federal policy on aging The 589 entries that comprise Part Two provide a comprehensive sampling of the policies programs and issues of importance in the study of aging and older Americans Among the issues related to federal public policy on aging that are covered are income and retirement policy health and long term care housing services consumer issues discrimination education empowerment family policy intergenerational concerns minorities research rural programs training and women An appendix dealing with sources of additional information and author and subject indexes complete this volume This important new bibliography adds to our knowledge of sources for the study of federal policy making and the elderly Bibliographic Index, 2001 Women and Aging, 1989-03-10 Coyle has compiled an impressive bibliography of more than 600 books articles government documents films and dissertations on women and the aging process Concise annotations highlight the significance of each item While some of the material is scholarly and theoretical most is from books and journals that are very readable and easily accessible A notable part of the bibliography is the extensive listing of films that would be useful for groups interested in doing programs on elderly women RQ This bibliography provides ample evidence of the increasing research interest in issues affecting women as they age Over 600 annotated citations for materials published from 1980 through early 1988 are included Although the primary focus is on older women references dealing with middle aged women are also included Both pragmatic and theoretical issues are covered in the resources cited All of the materials identified are accessible through basic library systems While research results are reported in some annotations the primary objective of the work is to provide the reader with extensive references to useful and appropriate materials on women and aging The major subject areas covered include roles and relationships economics employment retirement health sexuality religion housing racial and ethnic groups policy issues international concerns and middle age An extensive selection of general items covers materials that do not fit into specific categories but which address important areas of concern and interest This comprehensive bibliography will be welcomed by those involved in gerontological research and women's studies Psychology Pam M. Baxter, 1993 This reference and referral guide will help librarians students and beginning researchers to navigate information sources concerning the field of psychology It covers resource guides comprehensive retrospective bibliographies indexing tools and online databases handbooks dictionaries encyclopaedias journals biographical sources and organisations on topics ranging
