Leenaars,2004-05-14 Almost a million people die by suicide every year WHO estimate The sheer numbers have made suicide prevention a major health target but effective prevention is not straightforward Suicide is a complex event more complex than most of us imagine calling for an equally complex response Psychotherapy with Suicidal People provides a multi component approach with rich clinical data including many case histories to guide the reader Based on decades of research from across the globe Antoon A Leenaars takes the reader into the mind of the suicidal person from the young to the elderly from the anonymous to the famous There is no better way to know and thus to treat a person A plethora of special features

makes this volume an international classic and includes Reflections of many suicidologists such as Heraclitus Plato Sigmund Freud Emile Durkheim and Edwin Shneidman A unique window on the clinical mind of the author Empirically supported definition with applications across age gender historical time as well as culture The report of the International Working Group on Ethical and Legal Issues in Suicidology Psychotherapy with Suicidal People A Person centred Approach is essential reading for clinical psychologists psychiatrists and their trainees and all clinicians who work with suicidal people

Suicide Prevention D. de Leo, Armin Schmidtke, René F.W. Diekstra, 2007-05-08 Suicide Prevention A Holistic Approach contains the selected and edited papers that were presented during the congress Suicide Disease Disadvantage A Holistic Approach organized by the International Association for Suicide Prevention which was held in June 1995 in Venice Suicide prevention is still sadly neglected by governments and public health authorities despite the fact that in several Western countries suicide has become the primary cause of death among younger age groups The selected papers express the need for a holistic viewpoint in suicide management The subjects range from parasuicide to the role of the media from the special type of psychotherapeutic approach required to the most recent guidelines in pharmacological treatment from a homage to the memory of Erwin Ringel to the presentation of specific national prevention schemes The book will be of interest to public health workers doctors psychologists and social workers as well as voluntary staff and their organizations and to all those who make suicide prevention one of their primary interests

Injury Prevention for Children and Adolescents Karen DeSafey Liller, 2006

The Cambridge Handbook of Violent Behavior and Aggression Daniel J. Flannery, Alexander T. Vazsonyi, Irwin D. Waldman, 2007-09-03 From a team of leading experts comes a comprehensive multidisciplinary examination of the most current research including the complex issue of violence and violent behavior The handbook examines a range of theoretical policy and research issues and provides a comprehensive overview of aggressive and violent behavior The breadth of coverage is impressive ranging from research on biological factors related to violence and behavior genetics to research on terrorism and the impact of violence in different cultures The authors examine violence from international cross cultural perspectives with chapters that examine both quantitative and qualitative research They also look at violence at multiple levels individual family neighborhood cultural and across multiple perspectives and systems including treatment justice education and public health

Crisis Intervention James Earnest Hendricks, Jerome B. McKean, Cindy Gillespie Hendricks, 2010 Criminal justice professionals are confronted with crisis situations on a daily basis in an era when crime ranks in the forefront of domestic social issues and the administration of criminal justice is a major concern of public officials and the public This expanded new edition delves into the historical perspective of crisis intervention and examines the advancements that have been made in order to reflect the latest developments in the field It is intended for pre service and in service criminal justice and social service crisis interveners who come into contact with victims of domestic spouse abuse child abuse and neglect rape and sexual assault loss of a loved one or any other type of crisis This book deals extensively with the special considerations involved in intervening in nonsecure field settings and provides an updated strategy for teaching crisis intervention in the criminal justice curriculum Step by step procedures and numerous examples and role plays teach readers how to intervene in crises The intervener is also provided information on self assessment in a field setting and coping with the stresses of frontline work A statement of objectives a summary and learning activities are included in each chapter The appendices include useful World Wide Web sites guidelines and scenarios for role plays and course outlines for instructors This unique book is designed for firefighters police officers community service officers correctional workers emergency medical workers ministers probation and parole officers protective service workers social workers and victim assistance workers
