Samuels,2013-05-29 From the ancients to the moderns questions of economic theory and policy have been an important part of intellectual and public debate engaging the attention of some of history's greatest minds. This book brings together readings from more than two thousand years of writings on economic subjects. Through these selections the reader can see first hand how the great minds of past grappled with some of the central social and economic issues of their times and in the process enhanced our understanding of how economic systems function. This collection of readings covers the major themes that have preoccupied economic thinkers throughout the ages including price determination and the underpinnings of the market system, monetary theory and policy, international trade and finance, income distribution and the appropriate role for government within the economic system. These ideas unfold, develop and change course over time at the hands of scholars such as Aristotle, St Thomas Aquinas, John Locke, François Quesnay, David Hume, Adam Smith, Thomas Robert Malthus, David Ricardo, John Stuart Mill, Karl Marx, William Stanley Jevons, Alfred Marshall, Irving Fisher, Thorstein Veblen, John Maynard Keynes, Milton Friedman and Paul Samuelson. Each reading has been selected with a view to both enlightening the reader as to the major contributions of the author in question and to giving the reader a broad view of the development of economic thought and analysis over time. This book will be useful for students, scholars and lay people with an interest in the history of economic thought and the history of ideas generally.

Federal Register, 1945-08 An Introduction to the Making of Latin John Clarke, 1764 Religion Without God and God Without Religion William Arthur, 1885 The Tiger and the Children Roberto Luque Escalona, 1992-01-01. This may well be the most significant piece of writing to come out of Cuba in 33 years or the life of the Cuban Revolution of 1959. Since Fidel Castro has always made the claim that History Shall Absolve Me, the author of this book, journalist, writer and human rights activist Roberto Luque Escalona subjects this self-inflicted judgment to the facts of real history and finds that history shall condemn rather than absolve the long-standing dictator of Cuba. The Castro regime is besieged by internal and external pressures. The worsening economic crisis in Cuba is the result of changes taking place in the Soviet Union and Eastern Europe where nations that have begun liberating themselves from the yoke of totalitarian regimes have made it evident that the Castro government is simply ill-prepared to respond to new winds of doctrine or to accept a situation in which Castro no longer is sovereign ruler. How Castro got the way he is is at the heart and soul of this extraordinary memoir filled with a level of intimate details unrivaled in any other analysis. Roberto Luque Escalona is not a persecuted figure or a world famous dissident or at least he was not until the publication of The Tiger and the Children. Nor is this a prison memoir. He belongs to the immense anonymous majority that suffers in silence the consequences of a disastrous dictatorship. The author has defied Fidel from his position as a free man, free at least in spirit, conscious of the consequences of such a bold statement. This is a consummate work of social history, political analysis and moral judgment. It will be read by everyone from Latin Americanists to those interested in the real character of comparative politics.
