Multiple Lenses, Multiple Images Hillel Goelman, Sally Ross, Sheila Marshall, 2004-01-01 Drawing from a wide range of disciplines and perspectives the essays in Multiple Lenses Multiple Images are oriented around the idea that images of childhood can be understood within three dimensions time space and discipline Time refers to both the chronological ages of the children under consideration and the historical timeframe in which that particular essay is suited Space is a dimension that includes familial community institutional and cultural spaces within which children live The third dimension discipline names the specific and distinct areas of scholarship and research that define the ontology epistemology and methodology within which the contributors write Multiple Lenses Multiple Images is intended to deepen and expand the collaborative interdisciplinary discourse on children and childhood through reflections not just on what is known about children but on how it has been learned

Holocaust Film Terri Ginsberg, 2009-03-26 This timely new monograph takes as its starting point the provocative contention that Holocaust film scholarship has been marginalized academically despite the crucial role Holocaust film has played in fostering international awareness of the Nazi genocide and scholarly understandings of cinematic power The book suggests political and economic motivations for this seeming paradox the ideological parameters of which are evident in debates and controversies over Holocaust films themselves and around Holocaust culture in general Lending particular attention to four exemplary Holocaust art films Korczak Poland 1990 The Quarrel Canada 1990 Entre Nous France 1983 and Balagan Germany 1994 this book breaks disciplinary ground by drawing critical connections between public and scholarly debates over Holocaust representation and the often sophisticated cinematic structures lending aesthetic shape to them in today's global arena Historical Dictionary of Holocaust Cinema Robert C. Reimer, Carol J. Reimer, 2024-12-19 Some 80 years after the end of World War two and Nazi Germany's attempt to annihilate European Jews and the Jewish culture the story of the Holocaust continues to be told in novels paintings music sculpture and film Over the past eight decades close to a thousand documentaries narrative shorts and features television miniseries and filmed statements from survivors have confronted the horrors of the past creating a recognizable iconography of persecution suffering and genocide While arguably movies and television have a tendency to overly simply if not trivialize historical events popular culture artists also keep the past from being forgotten Historical Dictionary of Holocaust Cinema Second Edition contains a chronology an introduction and an extensive bibliography The dictionary section has more than 175 cross referenced entries on films directors and historical figures Foreign language experimental and canonical films are included This book is an excellent resource for students researchers and anyone wanting to know more about holocaust cinema

Holocaust Cinema Complete Rich Brownstein, 2021-10-01 Holocaust movies have become an important segment of world cinema and the de facto Holocaust education for many One quarter of all American produced Holocaust related feature films have won or been nominated for at least one Oscar In fact from 1945 through 1991 half of all American Holocaust features were nominated Yet most Holocaust movies have fallen through the cracks and few have been commercially successful This book explores these trends and many others with a comprehensive guide to hundreds of films and made for television movies From Anne Frank to Schindler's List to Jojo Rabbit more than 400 films are examined from a range of perspectives historical chronological thematic sociological geographical and individual The filmmakers are contextualized including Charlie Chaplin Sidney Lumet Steven Spielberg Quentin Tarantino and Roman Polanski Recommendations and reviews of the 50 best Holocaust films are included along with an educational guide a detailed listing of all films covered and a four part index glossary Israeli Cinema Miri Talmon, Yaron Peleg, 2011-07-01 With top billing at many film forums around the world as well as a string of prestigious prizes including consecutive nominations for the Best Foreign Film Oscar Israeli films have become one of the most visible and promising cinemas in the first decade of the twenty first century an intriguing and vibrant site for the representation of Israeli realities Yet two decades have passed since the last wide ranging scholarly overview of Israeli cinema creating a need for a new state of the art analysis of this exciting cinematic oeuvre The first anthology of its kind in English Israeli Cinema Identities in Motion presents a collection of specially commissioned articles in which leading

Israeli film scholars examine Israeli cinema as a prism that refracts collective Israeli identities through the medium and art of motion pictures The contributors address several broad themes the nation imagined on film war conflict and trauma gender sexuality and ethnicity religion and Judaism discourses of place in the age of globalism filming the Palestinian Other and new cinematic discourses The authors illuminating readings of Israeli films reveal that Israeli cinema offers rare visual and narrative insights into the complex national social and multicultural Israeli universe transcending the partial and superficial images of this culture in world media
