Summer Songs Michael T. Krieger, 2001-11-20 During a reckless summer Barry Tate makes a life altering decision Afraid of commitment and seduced by a woman out of his fantasies Barry runs away from college and away from his one true love for the fast life of the New Jersey Shore Not until several years later when Barry has become a victim of the lifestyle he once pursued does he realize that he has possibly lost his dreams for good Then one day he hears a song on the radio It is a summer song an innocent reminder of a better time and the inspiring key to re discovering the one woman he can never stop loving During one summer quarter at The Ohio State University Barry Tate unexpectedly meets Karen Lucas a sensitive artistic woman Together they share the kind of love that touches souls It is the kind of love that others envy and the kind that can survive hardship and can endure the test of time However it is also the kind of love that young people question and all too often toss aside without really giving it a chance Karen and Barry are a perfect match until Barry struggles to discover his identity He leaves school on a soul searching journey to the Jersey Shore Barry wants to become an East Coast disc jockey and he is lured to the Shore by its mesmerizing surf and by its constant party atmosphere Making the transition from college student to the real world isn't easy for Barry as he soon falls into a reckless lifestyle highlighted by his involvement with the seductive and temperamental Eva Fiorelli a self centered woman with the endless ability for manipulation Eva controls Barry physically and emotionally until she becomes more of an addiction than a lover Her family has suspicious connections and Eva's father introduces Barry to Sal Berdoni an imposing wealthy man who owns several businesses including a couple radio stations And all is well once Barry is hired at WTRX one of Berdoni's stations as a disc jockey For Barry he is living his dream that he has had since childhood This is not so for Eva Greedy and unconcerned about Barry's feelings Eva is not impressed by a disc jockey's low salary so she convinces Barry to make some extra money somehow Barry is then hired by Berdoni to be a courier for one of his other businesses His job is to deliver special packages to exclusive and secretive clients During one such delivery however Barry discovers the packages contain cocaine When he tells Eva about the drugs she is enthralled instead of frightened as Barry is She convinces Barry that he needs to try cocaine before he fears it So Barry steals some coke from his next delivery Unfortunately Berdoni realizes Barry's theft and sends some tough men out to make an example of him These men negotiate better with their fists than their mouths and they give Barry a mild beating to deliver the point that he shouldn't steal from Mr Berdoni But they then toss him a small package of cocaine before they leave as a token from Mr Berdoni Barry gets back into his truck and pulls away His nose is bleeding from being smacked around and his mind is reeling with thoughts about the cocaine Mr Berdoni and Eva He doesn't realize that he has just run a stop sign right in front of a police car The officer pulls Barry over for the routine traffic violation but becomes aware of Barry's suspicious behavior and accidentally discovers the cocaine in Barry's truck Now Barry who has run away from everything good in his life finds he can no longer run He goes to jail and he loses Eva his friends and the support of his family Once Barry is finally released he is still without friends without dreams and still searching for his identity until a trusted old man Mr Zeppo gives Barry a second chance Mr Zeppo owns a quaint but popular little pizza joint on the boardwalk and he hires Barry to manage it Flipping pizzas to pay the rent is not the lifestyle Barry was once used

The Handbook of Research on Assessment Practices and Pedagogical Models for Immigrant Students is a critical research publication that focuses on research-based pedagogical practices for teaching immigrant students.
