Summer Snow Reflections From A Black Daughter Of The South:

Summer Snow Trudier Harris, 2003-04-15 Trudier Harris will tell you that African Americans who consider themselves Southern are about as rare as summer snow But Harris has always embraced the South and in Summer Snow she explores her experience as a black Southerner and how it has shaped her into the writer and intellectual she has become From the Trade Paperback edition The Crisis, 2003-05 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens

Emancipation's Daughters Riché Richardson, 2020-11-23 Rich Richardson examines how five iconic black women Mary McLeod Bethune Rosa Parks Condoleezza Rice Michelle Obama and Beyoncé defy racial stereotypes and construct new national narratives of black womanhood in the United States Constructing the Self Carmen Rueda-Ramos, Susana Jiménez Placer, 2018-06-15 This volume aims to show how southerners have faced their past and constructed a self The essays in this volume explore the different personal narratives and strategies southern authors have employed to channel the autobiographical impulse and give artistic expression to their anxieties traumas and revelations as well as their relationship with the region With the discussion of different types of memoirs this volume reflects not only the transformation that this sub genre has undergone since the 1990s boom but also its flexibility as a popular form of life writing A History of African American Autobiography Joycelyn Moody, 2021-07-22 This History explores innovations in African American autobiography since its inception examining the literary and cultural history of Black self representation amid life writing studies By analyzing the different forms of autobiography including pictorial and personal essays editorials oral histories testimonials diaries personal and open letters and even poetry performance media of autobiographies this book extends the definition of African American autobiography revealing how people of African descent have created and defined the Black self in diverse print cultures and literary genres since their arrival in the Americas It illustrates ways African Americans use life writing and autobiography to address personal and collective Black experiences of identity family memory fulfillment racism and white supremacy Individual chapters examine scrapbooks as a source of self documentation African American autobiography for children readings of African American persona poems mixed race life writing after the Civil Rights Movement and autobiographies by African American LGBTQ writers Shaping Memories Joanne V. Gabbin, 2009 This anthology offers short chapters by notable black women writers on pivotal moments that strongly influenced their careers It provides a thorough overview of the formal concerns and thematic issues facing contemporary black women writers and includes an introduction that places these writers in the context of American literature in general and African American literature in particular      Fearless Confessions Sue William Silverman, 2010-01-25 Everyone has a story to tell Fearless Confessions is a guidebook for people who want to take possession of their lives by putting their experiences down on paper or in a Web site or e book Enhanced with illustrative examples from many different writers as well as writing exercises this guide helps writers navigate a range of issues from craft to ethics to marketing and will be useful to both beginners and more accomplished writers The rise of interest in memoir recognizes the power of the genre to move and affect not just individual readers but society at large Sue William Silverman covers traditional writing topics such as metaphor theme plot and voice and also includes chapters on trusting memory and cultivating the courage to tell one's truth in the face of forces from family members to the media who would prefer that people with inconvenient pasts and views remain silent Silverman an award winning memoirist draws upon her own personal and professional experience to provide an essential resource for transforming life into words that matter Fearless Confessions is an atlas that contains maps to the remarkable places in each person's life that have yet to be explored      The Cambridge Companion to Autobiography Maria DiBattista, Emily O. Wittman, 2014-05-22 The Cambridge Companion to Autobiography offers a historical overview of the genre from the foundational works of Augustine Montaigne and Rousseau through the great autobiographies of the Romantic Victorian and modern eras Sixteen essays from distinguished scholars and critics explore the diverse forms audiences styles and motives of life writings traditionally classified under the rubric of autobiography Chapters are arranged in chronological order and are grouped to reflect changing views of the psychological status representative character and moral authority of the autobiographical text The volume closes with a group portrait of late modernist and contemporary autobiographies that by blurring the dividing line between fiction and non fiction expand our understanding of the genre Accessibly written and comprehensive in scope the volume will appeal especially to students and teachers of non fiction narrative creative writing and literature more broadly      Representing Segregation Brian Norman, Piper Kendrix Williams, 2012-02-01 As a touchstone issue in American history segregation has had an immeasurable impact on the lives of most ethnic groups in the United States Primarily associated with the Jim Crow South and the court cases Plessy v Ferguson 1896 and Brown v Board of Education 1954 segregation comprises a diverse set of cultural practices ethnic experiences historical conditions political ideologies municipal planning schemes and de facto social systems Representing Segregation traces the effects of these practices on the literary imagination and proposes a distinct literary tradition of representing segregation Contributors engage a cross section of writers literary movements segregation practices and related experiences of racial division in order to demonstrate the richness and scope of responses to segregation in the late nineteenth and twentieth centuries By taking up the cultural expression of the Jim Crow period and its legacies this collection reorients literary analysis of an important body of African American literature in productive new directions      After the Pain Fiona Mills, Keith B. Mitchell, 2006 As a poet playwright novelist short story writer and critic Gayl Jones has always resisted labels in her quest to find a liberating voice for black women and herself With a poet's lyricism and a musician's ear for rhythm she continually seeks new ways to confront the barriers traumas insecurities and prejudices oppressing black women and by extension all women After the Pain Critical Essays on Gayl Jones is the first comprehensive collection of essays dedicated solely to the exploration of Jones's work Ranging from analyses of her use of language and music to reevaluations of her representation of sexuality and gender roles to examinations of the oft overlooked connections between Latin America and African Americans each of these essays investigates Jones's desire to continually complicate the process of identity formation African American Literature in Transition, 1980-1990: Volume 15 D. Quentin Miller, Rich Blint, 2023-02-09 African American Literature in Transition 1980 1990 tracks Black expressive culture in the 1980s as novelists poets dramatists filmmakers and performers grappled with the contradictory legacies of the civil rights era and the start of culture wars and policy machinations that would come to characterize the 1990s The volume is necessarily interdisciplinary and critically promiscuous in its methodologies and objects of study as it reconsiders conventional temporal spatial and moral understandings of how African American letters emerged immediately after the movement James Baldwin describes as the latest slave rebellion As such the question of the state of America's democratic project as refracted through the literature of the shaping presence of African Americans is one of the guiding concerns of this volume preoccupied with a moment in American literary history still burdened by the legacies of the 1960s while imagining the contours of an African Americanist future in the new millennium Women and Others C. Daileader, R. Johnson, A. Shabazz, Philip Beidler, Gary Taylor, 2007-09-17 Discussing intersecting discourses of race gender and empire in literature history and contemporary culture the book begins with the metaphor of the other woman as a repository for the otherness of all women in a masculinist racist society and shows how discourses of race and sexuality thwart the realization of true inter racial sisterhood Toni Morrison's The Bluest Eye Harold Bloom, 2010 Discusses the writing of The Bluest Eye by Toni Morrison Includes critical essays on the work and a brief biography of the author The Greenwood Encyclopedia of African American Literature: D-H Hans A. Ostrom, J. David Macey, 2005 Designed to meet the needs of high school students undergraduates and general readers this encyclopedia is the most comprehensive reference available on African American literature from its origins to the present Other works include many brief entries or offer extended biographical sketches of a limited selection of writers This encyclopedia surpasses existing references by offering full and current coverage of a vast range of authors and topics While most of the entries are on individual authors the encyclopedia gathers together information about the genres and geographical and cultural environments in which these writers have worked and the social political and aesthetic movements in which they have participated Thus the encyclopedia gives special attention to the historical and cultural forces that have shaped African American writing Publisher The Power of Experience Jeremy Janes, 2007 What is the value of a life deeply lived Can fragments from the past help you navigate the future What good is wisdom in a world bewitched by ephemera Some of our best writers over 50 tackle these and other questions in this honest hard hitting collection about the search for meaning in the second half of life In moving works of self discovery they illuminate the fine art of growing up and the power of experience to transform your life Publisher website May 2008

The Maid Narratives Katherine Van Wormer, David W. Jackson III, Charletta Sudduth, 2012-09-17 The Maid Narratives shares the memories of black domestic workers and the white families they served uncovering the often intimate relationships between maid and mistress Based on interviews with over fifty people both white and black these stories deliver a personal and powerful message about resilience and resistance in the face of oppression in the Jim Crow South The housekeepers caretakers sharecroppers and cooks who share their experiences in The Maid Narratives ultimately moved away during the Great Migration Their perspectives as servants who left for better opportunities outside of the South offer an original telling of physical and psychological survival in a racially oppressive caste system Vinella Byrd for instance from Pine Bluff Arkansas recalls how a farmer she worked for would not allow her to clean her hands in the family's wash pan These narratives are complemented by the voices of white women such as Flora Templeton Stuart from New Orleans who remembers her maid fondly but realizes that she knew little about her life Like Stuart many of the white narrators remain troubled by the racial norms of the time Viewed as a whole the book presents varied rich and detailed accounts often tragic and sometimes humorous The Maid Narratives reveals across racial lines
