The Chapbook, 1920 Chapbook, 1919 My Life with Noel Coward Graham Payn, 1996-10-31 Other men made fabulous careers out of the opportunities Noel Coward declined But Coward's inner compass charted him on his own course to greatness And when he couldn't find the destination on his maps he invented Samolao his own South Sea island complete with its own indigenous rituals and customs And of course we revisit Coward's worlds constantly in revivals of his classic plays Hay Fever Private Lives Tonight at 8.30 Design for Living and Blithe Spirit This is the definitive memoir of the private Noel Coward by the only man with the compassionate insight and first hand experience to write it Graham Payn star of many of Coward's shows shared the Master's professional and private life for thirty years When Coward kept the rest of the world at bay Payn remained at his side as confidant and friend No one else was as privy to Coward's doubts and dreams

Calendar Christian Lacdael, 2025-07-12 A Year in Verse Celebrating the Western Spirit Step into a lyrical journey through the Western calendar with this rich collection of metered rhyming poetry A Year in Verse brings to life the spirit of the seasons marking the dates and events that have shaped Western culture with wit warmth and poetic precision From the icy glow of Christmas to the budding promise of May Day from the sun drenched magic of Mid Summer's Day to the eerie shadows of Halloween the year is punctuated by four sweeping narrative poems each one a vivid tribute to the festivals that divide and define our time Interwoven between these cornerstones are finely crafted poems that reflect on historical milestones cultural traditions and the quiet often overlooked beauty of the calendar's rhythm Years in the making this collection is the result of long dedication recently reignited by fresh inspiration It is a heartfelt homage to the myth memory and meaning that shape the Western world This is poetry for those who feel the turning of the year in their bones and celebrate it in their hearts The Railway Engineer, 1907 Renaissance Drama Arthur F. Opened Windows J.R. Gonzalez, 2017-06-14 How far would you go for the one you love Opened Windows is about betrayal love devotion and sacrifice Two people meet and fall in love She betrays him in a way meant to make him go away forever because his devotion to her scares her After a lifetime of hurt she can't take the chance Then he finds out the truth about it why she did it and what she went through but in the meantime people all around her are dying in a horrible manner that the police can only describe as spontaneous combustion because they have no clue until it happens again and he thinks she might be next and decides to save her How far would you go for the one you love Restoring the Soul of the World David Fideler, 2014-11-20 Humanity's creative role within the living pattern of nature Explores important scientific discoveries that reveal the self-organizing intelligence at the heart of nature Examines the idea of a living cosmos from its roots in the earliest cultures to its eclipse during the Scientific Revolution to its return today Reveals ways to reengage our creative partnership with nature and collaborate with nature's intelligence For millennia the world was seen as a creative interconnected web of life constantly growing developing and restoring itself But with the arrival of the Scientific Revolution in the 16th and 17th centuries the world was viewed as a lifeless clock-like mechanism bound by the laws of classical physics Intelligence was a trait ascribed solely to human beings and thus humanity was viewed as superior to and separate from nature Today new scientific discoveries are reviving the ancient philosophy of a living interconnected cosmos and humanity is learning from and collaborating with nature's intelligence in new life enhancing ways from ecological design to biomimicry Drawing upon the most important scientific discoveries of recent times David Fideler explores the self organizing intelligence at the heart of nature and humanity's place in the cosmic pattern He examines the ancient vision of the living cosmos from its roots in the world soul of the Greeks and the alchemical tradition to its eclipse during the Scientific Revolution to its return today He explains how the mechanistic worldview led to humanity's profound sense of alienation for if the universe only functioned as a machine there was no longer any room for genuine creativity or spontaneity He shows how this isn't the case and how even at the molecular level natural systems engage in self organization self preservation and creative problem solving mirroring the ancient idea of a creative intelligence that exists deep within the heart of nature Revealing new connections between science religion and culture Fideler explores how to reengage our creative partnership with nature and new ways to collaborate with nature's intelligence Treasure Hunters: Quest for the City of Gold James
