Extreme Virtue Crispin Sartwell, 2012-02-01 Extreme Virtue presents a new and radical approach to the problems of leadership and virtue in public life Originating in the author's newspaper writing about the Clinton Lewinsky scandal the book grapples with what has gone wrong in the American political system and describes what we should look for in our leaders Sartwell argues that the real problem is a pervasive lack of truth in political leaders and that more can be accomplished by straight talk than by polling and focus groups The book consists of biographical portraits of five great Americans anarchists Emma Goldman and Voltairine de Cleyre conservative senator Barry Goldwater Lakota spiritual leader John Fire Lame Deer and black nationalist Malcolm X The author argues that what makes these figures distinctively American is that each shares a suspicion of power and a vision of individual liberation Despite their distinctive and unique approaches each person is a model of truth in public life

The Bookman, 1915 Path of Pieces Russell Hunter, 2008-03 In this poem book you will see the pieces of my life I like to call it the puzzle I remember on that cold wintry day when I dazed at myself in the mirror I seen the cracks and the lines that all came together to create who I am and who I've become One by one I started to put the pieces back together by filling the gaps that have left me feeling lost I want for you and me for us all to see that it is never too late to believe No matter what we have endured we can overcome any obstacle and continue to smile in the face of adversity Although many pieces of my life are broken beyond repair I still care enough to write what I feel From all the devastations to all the beautiful creations you will find a life filled with dream catchers and twisted trees all these emotions that make up me Open the cover and you will see you can find you
