Sundays Ending Too Soon New American Poetry Series:

Sunday's Ending Too Soon Charley George, 1993 New & Selected Poems Charles North, 1999 Poetry James Schuyler wrote of Charles North's poetry His joy in words and the things words adumbrate is infectious we catch a contagion of enlightenment To me he is the most stimulating poet of his generation Over the years since North's first published work LINEUPS 1972 fellow poets and critics have concurred that North's poetry is one of beautiful availability that is interested in as the poet puts it Playing off expectations in both small and large ways This book includes work from all of North's major publications LINEUPS ELIZABETHAN NOVA SCOTIAN MUSIC SIX BUILDINGS LEAP YEAR POEMS 1968 1978 and THE YEAR OF THE OLIVE OIL as well as new poetry The New Anthology of American Poetry Steven Gould Axelrod, Camille Roman, Thomas Travisano, 2012-04-15 Steven Gould Axelrod Camille Roman and Thomas Travisano continue the standard of excellence set in Volumes I and II of this extraordinary anthology Volume III provides the most compelling and wide ranging selection available of American poetry from 1950 to the present Its contents are just as diverse and multifaceted as America itself and invite readers to explore the world of poetry in the larger historical context of American culture Nearly three hundred poems allow readers to explore canonical works by such poets as Elizabeth Bishop Robert Lowell and Sylvia Plath as well as song lyrics from such popular musicians as Bob Dylan and Queen Latifah Because contemporary American culture transcends the borders of the continental United States the anthology also includes numerous transnational poets from Julia de Burgos to Derek Walcott Whether they are the works of oblique avant gardists like John Ashbery or direct populist poets like Allen Ginsberg all of the selections are accompanied by extensive introductions and footnotes making the great poetry of the period fully accessible to readers for the first time Made to Seem Rae Armantrout, 1995 Polyverse Lee Ann Brown, 1999 Polyverse is just that a verse of many forms and possibilities Taking its cue from a wide range of modern and postmodern poetics Gertrude Stein's multiple formal innovations Emily Dickinson's condensations the improvisation of Whitman and the Beat poets the New York School's intertwining poles of the everyday and the wild peripatetic leaps and innovation of Language writing Brown's work enacts an exciting and suggestive poetry of possibility Credence Dennis Phillips, 1996 Written in the form of an annotated prose poem Credence quietly challenges the very possibility of true belief by submitting even the shards of narrative coherence in the poetry to further fracturing until meaning itself becomes a blur of criss crossing associations Instead of leaving the reader with a sense of emptiness however Phillips brilliant poem demonstrates how the very recognition of linguistic rupture can enrich meaning can allow for a whole new range of possibilities of significance Ultimately credence is reestablished not for a belief in a univocal world but in a social construct of many voices and tongues An American Voyage Joe Ross, 1993 What makes for the connection that unites a collection of people to form a nation a civilization What shapes their consciousness into considerations beyond the self and into the humanity of the whole These are some of the concerns that inform Joe Ross's An American Voyage a lyrical investigation into the roots make up and hopes of America and the American individual In the tradition of other American attempts at answering such questions Whitman s Song of Myself comes to mind Ross s work attempts to define a nation too young to know but old enough to consider the consequences of not knowing Divided into three major sections the first of which addresses our beginnings the second of which explores the stalemate of the adolescence in which the author sees contemporary America and the third of which sings to the heart of the people Ross s ambitious song cries out for a true American language a voice of the soul The Book of who are was Benjamin Hollander,1997 Poetry San Francisco poet Benjamin Hollander explores through a negotiation with poets of the past and present such as Paul Celan Edmond Jabes and Anne Marie Albiach how to project memory on stage Recognizing poetry as a theatrical field a performance so to speak THE BOOK OF WHO ARE WAS contemplates the process of poetic creation in which it is actually the reader s or spectator s memory that is projected upon the stage or text Opening his book with an imaginary dialogue with Celan Hollander develops a poetics of translation in which letters and words appear or disappear while remembering and crossing over each other The result is a startlingly original poetry a series of mysterious transformative encounters among figures occasions and voices of the past of the poet of the reader creating and re creating the conversation of a book in which poetry becomes a gift a thing to refuse you Repeatedly given At a moment s notice Yes clarity in the sense of silence Nova Standard Schaefer,2001 Drawing upon such disciplines as physics psychoanalysis and neurobiology Standard Schaefer has ingeniously invented in his tetrology Nova an enigmatic and witty ironic yet powerfully lyric poetic science of the imagination New York poet Nick Piombino chose this book to be the winner of the 1999 National Poetry Series competition State of Mind Martha Clare Ronk,1995 The poems in State of mind are in transit from one state of mind to another as geographies especially Californian slide into states of mind statements of fact into memory or metaphor Just as one necessarily defines oneself against the surrounding world of objects so in Ronk s poetry landscape do words find meaning as they work against and in conjunction with each other The poems of this journey through the poet s state of mind build by accretion just as the jumble of Los Angeles s famed Pico Boulevard on any afternoon defines the city s essence so does this collection in its linguistic construction attempt to define its author and her world Tales of Murasaki and Other Poems Martine Bellen,1999 Poetry Martine Bellen s TALES OF MURASAKI uses the pillow book of Lady Murasaki as a starting point for a lyrical and narrative series of poems that explore language as they unearth the core of story Rosmarie Waldrop who selected this collection for the 1997 National Poetry Series awards writes of Bellen s poetry A multivalent multidirectional logic dances across categories to a space where we cannot tell if a lover is parting or a part of mist and memory the path is endless It takes our breath away as it leaps across continents and centuries from Precolumbian Mexico to Japan from myth to biology Publishers Weekly observes Bellen is a sensualist with a taste for vernacular as refined as C D Wright s and a historian as steeped in the montage of character and setting as Susan Howe or Guy Davenport Bellen s giddy insouciant renderings of our thickly mythic polish seem fresh Martine Bellen lives in New York where she works in the publishing industry The Little Door Slides Back Jeff Clark, 1997 Winner of the 1997 National Poetry Series As this past year's judge for the National Poetry Series Ray DiPalma wrote the poems collected here represent far more than a finely articulated gathering of poems The wide ranging and imaginatively animated expressions of self revelation at work in these texts establish an original and confident presence that takes it step by step in part from the visionary writing of such poets as Trakl Desnos and Michaux This is a book that asks some valuable new questions the very nature of whose answers offers the perplexing consolations that bring us to the poem in the first place A rare achievement Atmosphere Conditions Ed Roberson, 2000 A winner of the 1998 National Poetry Series competition selected by Nathaniel Mackey Sentences Charles O. Hartman, Hugh Kenner, 1995 The child of the playfully perverse marriage of a 19th century grammar school book and a contemporary computer technology Sentences is a surprising lyrical romp The noted literary scholar and poet Charles O Hartman discovered a book titled Sentences for Analysis and Parsing which was used at the Thayer Street Grammar School in Providence RI Hartman took this somewhat didactic text and ran it through the TRAVESTY computer program developed by Hugh Kenner and Joseph O Rourke Working with Kenner Hartman then ran the result through his own DIASTEXT program based on the diastic writings of poet Jackson Mac Low The result is a wonderfully eccentric poetry that resembles something between Gertrude Stein and Surrealist automatic writing An inspired collaboration between technology and human literacy Sentences is an innovative delight from beginning to end Dura Myung Mi Kim, 1998 Conceived as one poem Myung Mi Kim's Dura is a whirling experimental symphony of images forms and rhythms assembled and juxtaposed to translate the experience and gestures of the Korean immigrant woman surviving in America at the end of the twentieth century Its language negotiates a past How was it to be the first arrivals in rows and columns as well as a present A perceiver without a state and has already gained Kim recognition as among the most moving and important translators in contemporary poetry Lotion Bullwhip Giraffe Tan Lin, 1996 In these highly original poems the young American Chinese poet Tan Lin sets tooth on the treetops as language twists and tumbles over itself like a Chickory Lickery Bock In this marvelous celebration of language Tan Lin explores a meditation backwards inventing new poetic structures and forms as he creates a dialogue between himself and the significant other Reader Anthem Jean Donnelly, 2002 The winner of the 2000 National Poetry Series competition selected by Charles Bernstein Noon Cole Swensen, 1997 A reprinting of the successful title by Sun Moon Press winner of the 2000 Gertrude Stein Award Forthcoming Books Rose Army, 1994-02 The Gertrude Stein Awards in Innovative American Poetry, 1993-1994 Douglas Messerli, 1995
