Resources in Education ,2001 Emancipatory Human Rights and the University Felisa Tibbitts,André Keet,2023-08-25 This volume explores the application of human rights to higher education through a critical lens Combining theoretical and applied perspectives it asks what a human rights framework grounded in liberation and justice can offer to ways of working and teaching practices in higher education Human rights in this edited compilation call for continuous critical engagements around the higher education transformation project The book recognizes human rights simultaneously as law values and emancipatory vision It showcases global north and global south perspectives and encourages a dialogue between the human rights approach and other approaches to higher education transformation such as decolonialization anti racism diversity and inclusion and intersectionality Individual chapters featuring a range of case studies written from global south and north perspectives critically examine higher education practices linked with human rights ranging from curricular practices to student activism and community partnerships The critical space of the university and its role in the transformation of society is therefore viewed in multi dimensional ways Underlining the value of applying human rights as a framework in understanding and designing higher education transformation the book will be of great interest to scholars researchers and post graduate students in the fields of the sociology of education human rights education higher education and social justice education Invisible Women Caroline Criado Perez,2019-03-12 The landmark prize winning international bestselling examination of how a gender gap in data perpetuates bias and disadvantages women 1 International Bestseller Winner of the Financial Times and McKinsey Business Book of the Year Award Winner of the Royal Society Science Book Prize Data is fundamental to the modern world From economic development to health care to education and public policy we rely on numbers to allocate resources and make crucial decisions But because so much data fails to take into account gender because it treats men as the default and women as atypical bias and discrimination are baked into our systems And women pay tremendous costs for this insidious bias in time in money and often with their lives Celebrated feminist advocate Caroline Criado Perez investigates this shocking root cause of gender inequality in Invisible Women Examining the home the workplace the public square the doctor s office and more Criado Perez unearths a dangerous pattern in data and its consequences on women s lives Product designers use a one size fits all approach to everything from pianos to cell phones to voice recognition software when in fact this approach is designed to fit men Cities prioritize men s needs when designing public transportation roads and even snow removal neglecting to consider women s safety or unique responsibilities and travel patterns And in medical research women have largely been excluded from studies and textbooks leaving them chronically misunderstood mistreated and misdiagnosed Built on hundreds of studies in the United States in the United Kingdom and around the world and written with energy wit and sparkling intelligence this is a groundbreaking highly readable expos that will change the way you look at the world Centering Humanism in STEM Education Bryan Dewsbury, Susannah McGowan, Sheila S. Jaswal , Desiree Forsythe, 2024-09-24 Research demonstrates that STEM disciplines perpetuate a history of exclusion particularly for students with marginalized identities This poses problems particularly when science permeates every aspect of contemporary American life Institutions repeated failures to disrupt systemic oppression in STEM has led to a mostly white cisgender and male scientific workforce replete with implicit and or explicit biases Education holds one pathway to disrupt systemic linkages of STEM oppression from society to the classroom Maintaining views on science as inherently objective isolates it from the world in which it is performed STEM education must move beyond the transactional approaches to transformative environments manifesting respect for students social and educational capital We must create a STEM environment in which students with marginalized identities feel respected listened to and valued We must assist students in understanding how their positionality privilege and power both historically and currently impacts their meaning making and understanding of STEM
