Teaching Theatre Today Pedagogical Views Of Theatre In Higher Education:

Teaching Theatre Today: Pedagogical Views of Theatre in Higher Education A. Flitsos, 2009-09-28 Through thirteen essays Teaching Theatre Today addresses the changing nature of educational theory curricula and teaching methods in theatre programs of colleges and universities of the United States and Great Britain Teaching Theatre Today Anne Flitsos, Gail Medford, 2004-07-23 Teaching Theatre Today addresses the changing nature of educational theory curricula and teaching methods in theatre programs of colleges and universities of the United States and to a lesser extent Great Britain Thirteen essays are arranged to lead the reader from an overview of changing theories of theater education through the teaching of specific types of courses to the study of the African American experience in theatre education to issues of changing pedagogical goals in the United Kingdom and finally to the current state of training for future teachers of theatre This book offers both historical and theoretical insights that drove pedagogy in American theatre education in colleges and universities during the twentieth century and into the twenty first New Directions in Teaching Theatre Arts Anne Flitsos, Gail S. Medford, 2018-07-20 This book reflects the changes in technology and educational trends cross disciplinary learning entrepreneurship first year learning programs critical writing requirements course assessment among others that have pushed theatre educators to innovate question and experiment with new teaching strategies The text focuses upon a firm practice based approach that also reflects research in the field offering innovative and proven methods that theatre educators may use to actively engage students and encourage student success The sixteen essays in this volume are divided into five sections Teaching with Digital Technology Teaching in Response to Educational Trends Teaching New Directions in Performance Teaching Beyond the Traditional and Teaching Collaboratively or Across Disciplines Study of this book will provoke readers to question both teaching methods and curricula as they consider the ever shifting arts landscape and the potential careers for theatre graduates Developing Theatre in the Global South Nic Leonhardt, Christopher B. Balme, 2024-04-09 Drawing on new research from the ERC project Developing Theatre this collection presents innovative institutional approaches to the theatre historiography of the Global South since 1945 Covering perspectives from Africa Asia the Middle East and Latin America as well as Eastern Europe the chapters explore how US philanthropy international organisations and pan African festivals all contributed to the globalisation and institutionalisation of the performing arts in the Global South During the Cultural Cold War the Global North intervened in and promoted forms of cultural infrastructure that were deemed adaptable to any environment This form of technopolitics impacted the construction of national theatres the introduction of new pedagogical tools and the invention of the workshop as a format The networks of experts responsible for this foreground seminal figures both celebrated Augusto Boal Efraim Sutherland but also lesser known Albert Botbol Severino Montano Metin And who contributed to the worldwide theatrical epistemic community of the postwar years Developing Theatre in the Global South investigates the institutional factors that led to the emergence of professional theatre in the postwar period throughout the decolonising world The book's institutional and transnational approach enables theatre studies to overcome its still strong national and local focus on plays and productions and connect it to current discourses in transnational and global history

Interpreting the Play Script Anne Fliotsos, 2011-08-17 One type of analysis cannot fit every play nor does one method of interpretation suit every theatre artist or collaborative team This is the first text to combine traditional and non traditional models giving students a range of tools with which to approach different kinds of performance

Fearless Femininity by Women in American Theatre, 1910s to 2010s Lynne Greeley, 2015-08-06 In this unprecedented fascinating book which covers women in theatre from the 1910s to the 2010s author Lynne Greeley notes that for the purposes of this study feminism is defined as the political impulse toward economic and social empowerment for females or the female identified a position perceived by many feminists as oppositional to ideas of femininity that they see as personally and politically constraining and that femininity comprises social behaviors and practices that mean as many different things as there are women some of which are empowering and others of which are not This book illuminates how throughout the twentieth century and into the twenty first playwrights and artists in American theatre both embodied and disrupted the feminine of their times Through approaches as wide ranging as performing their own recipes energizing silences raging against war and rape and inviting the public to inscribe their naked bodies theatre artists have used performance as a site to insert themselves between the physicality of their female presence and the liminality of their disrupting the role of the feminine Capturing that place of liminality a neither here nor there place that is often unsafe where the established order is overturned by acts as banal as raising a plant women have written and performed and disrupted their way through one hundred years of theatre history even within the constraints of a variably rigid and usually unsympathetic social order Creating a feminist femininity they have reinscribed their place in the culture and provided models for their audiences to do the same This comprehensive tome part of the Cambria Contemporary Global Performing Arts headed by John Clum Duke University is an essential addition for theater studies and women's studies

International Handbook of Research in Arts Education Liora Bresler, 2007-01-26 Providing a distillation of knowledge in the various disciplines of arts education dance drama music literature and poetry and visual arts this essential handbook synthesizes existing research literature reflects on the past and contributes to shaping the future of the respective and integrated disciplines of arts education While research can at times seem distant from practice the Handbook aims to maintain connection with the live practice of art and of education capturing the vibrancy and best thinking in the field of theory and practice The Handbook is organized into 13 sections each focusing on a major area or issue in arts education research

The Contemporary Ensemble Duška Radosavljević, 2013-08-21 Dr Radosavljević has an excellent and extensive grasp of her subject and deep understanding of not only the history of these groups but how they function and how each contributes to the field of ensemble theatre David Crespy University of Missouri USA Questions of ensemble what it is how it works are both inherent to a variety of Western theatre traditions and re emerging and evolving in striking new ways in the twenty first century The Contemporary Ensemble draws together an unprecedented range of original interviews with world renowned theatre makers in order to directly address both the former and latter concerns Reflecting on the ensemble way of working within this major new resource are figures including Michael Boyd Hermann W ndrich Yuri Butusov Max Stafford Clark Elizabeth LeCompte Lyn Gardner Adriano Shaplin Phelim McDermott and Emma Rice representing companies including The RSC The Berliner Ensemble The Satirikon Theatre Out of Joint The Wooster Group Kneehigh Theatre Song of the Goat The Riot Group The Neo Futurists Shadow Casters and Ontroerend Goed All 22 interviews were conducted especially for the collection and draw upon the author s rich background working as scholar educator and dramaturg with a variety of ensembles The resulting compendium radically re situates the ensemble in the context of globalisation higher education and simplistic understandings of text based and devised theatre practice and traces a compelling new line through the contemporary theatre landscape The
