British Book News British Council,1992 Includes no 53a British wartime books for young people Radical Elegies Eleanor Perry,2022-04-21 Scholarship has traditionally characterized elegy as a Eurocentric tradition a genealogy spanning from ancient Greek pastoral poems via the English elegy to English and Anglo American Modernist contemporary poets Perry examines how these genealogical constructions operate as a means of framing which guides interpretation This book argues that they reflect a necropoetics a system of principles precepts and techniques which serve to establish and maintain ideas about whose lives are worthy of being mourned publicly and whose losses matter Examining elegies that challenge questions of whose deaths may be grieved elegies which articulate the various ways in which certain lives are made precarious and disposable and elegies which interrogate colonial violence structures of white power militarized forms of policing prison industrial and military industrial complexes Perry explores possibilities for radical new ways of understanding elegy beyond established genealogical frames This study retheorizes some basic terms of analysis of contemporary US poetry and poetics critical race and ethnic studies racial capitalism and contemporary theories of comparative and relational racialization

Artistic Visions and the Promise of Beauty Kathleen M. Higgins,Shakti Maira,Sonia Sikka,2017-03-06 This volume examines the motives behind rejections of beauty often found within contemporary art practice where much critically acclaimed art is deliberately ugly and alienating It reflects on the nature and value of beauty asking whether beauty still has a future in art and what role it can play in our lives generally The volume discusses the possible end of art what art is and the relation between art and beauty beyond their historically Western horizons to include perspectives from Asia The individual chapters address a number of interrelated issues including art beauty and the sacred beauty as a source of joy and consolation beauty as a bridge between the natural and the human beauty and the human form the role of curatorial practice in defining art order and creativity and the distinction between art and craft The volume offers a valuable addition to cross cultural dialogue and in particular to the sparse literature on art and beauty in comparative context It demonstrates the relevance of the rich tradition of Asian aesthetics and the vibrant practices of contemporary art in Asia to Western discussions about the future of art and the role of beauty Poems to Jesus Christ Kassi Ydris,2012-02-29 walk amongst
