

Le pluriel

Quand un nom désigne une seule chose, un seul animal ou une seule personne, on dit qu'il est au singulier.
L'article, qui précède le nom, au singulier peut-être : le, la, un, une, l', mon, ma, son, ton...

Quand un nom désigne plusieurs choses, plusieurs animaux ou plusieurs personnes, on dit qu'il est au pluriel.
Les articles, qui précèdent le nom, au pluriel peuvent-être : les, des, mes, tes, ses...

Pour écrire un nom au pluriel, on ajoute le plus souvent un S à la fin, mais il y a des exceptions !

Attention certains mots se transforment complètement au pluriel

un oeil → des yeux
un ciel → des cieux
un monsieur → des messieurs ...

Endangerment Ndimele, Ozo-mekuri, 2016-02-22 This commemorative volume is the 12th edition in the Nigerian Linguists Festschrift Series devoted to Professor Mrs Appolonia Uzoaku Okwudishu. The majority of the papers were presented at the 27th Annual Conference of the Linguistic Association of Nigerian CLAN which was held at the Benue State University Makurdi, Nigeria, and the 26th CLAN which was held at the University of Ibadan, Nigeria. The title derives from the theme of the 27th CLAN Language Endangerment Globalisation and the Fate of Minority Languages in Nigeria. A large number of the papers address the major theme of the conference while the balance address various aspects of Nigerian linguistics: languages, communication and literature. Fifty-one papers are included ranging from sociolinguistics through applied linguistics to formal areas of linguistics which include phonology, morphology and syntax of Nigerian languages. Papers on language endangerment and language revitalisation strategies for safeguarding the vanishing indigenous tongues of Nigeria are the major focus and the book serves as important reference material in various aspects of language and linguistic studies in Nigeria. Le Maître de la Langue Allemande; ou, nouvelle grammaire Allemande, méthodique et raisonnée, composée sur le modèle des meilleurs auteurs, et principalement sur celui de Gottsched. Nouvelle édition, corrigée, 1814 Celtic Linguistics, 1700-1850: Reserches sur les langues celtiques William Frédéric Edwards, 2000 From Béarn to Southern Africa or The Amazing Destiny of Eugène Casalis Marie-Claude Mosimann-Barbier, 2014-06-02 The end of the 20th century was a time of post colonial repentance in the Western world. On 23rd February 2005 a law was passed in France stressing the positive role of the French presence overseas, triggering considerable controversy. However the fascinating history of the French missionary Eugène Casalis illustrates that there are some cases where the French presence overseas is still perceived positively as shown by the commemorative stamps issued by the Kingdom of Lesotho in 1983 celebrating the 150th anniversary of the arrival of the first French missionaries in the country. Of course the context was unique since France had no economic or political stakes in that part of the world and therefore the French missionary presence was totally apostolic and disinterested. Eugène Casalis was born in Béarn at the foot of the Pyrénées in 1812 and remained deeply attached to his native land throughout his life. In 1832 he was sent to Southern Africa by the Paris Evangelical Missionary Society. Unexpected circumstances led him to Basutoland (present day Lesotho) where he struck up an unfailing friendship based on mutual trust and esteem with the Sotho King Moshoeshoe. In addition to his missionary task Casalis transcribed the language and contributed largely to the economic development of the country while concurrently supporting the King in his efforts to convince the British to help him fight Boer expansionism. He gave invaluable diplomatic aid and advice to the King during the 23 years he spent in the country. Back in France in 1855 he became the director of the House of Missions where he trained a number of young men to become missionaries. His eldest son became a missionary to Lesotho and his eldest daughter married a missionary with whom she returned to Lesotho where she brought up a large family All this has contributed to making the name of Casalis well known in the Kingdom to this day To a certain extent Lesotho's accession to independence in 1966 can be perceived as a distant result of Casalis's work The present King Letsie 111 is a direct descendant of King Moshoeshoe

In 2 Cor 10 13 as in the entire Pauline corpus the use of the first person plural is surprising Paul oscillates between singular I and plural We sometimes within the same sentence While this literary feature has never been seriously explored this study undertakes in the first part an investigation of the meanings of we in ancient Greek texts through several literary genres from Homer to the Hellenistic period The second part devoted to 2 Cor 10 13 shows the neat architecture of these chapters and the way the key theological message about weakness and power is delivered Also the occurrences of We and I throughout the text reveal a further underlying theology of authority En 2 Co 10 13 mais aussi dans l'ensemble du corpus paulinien l'utilisation de la première personne du pluriel est surprenante Paul passe souvent du je au nous et inversement parfois dans la même phrase Ce trait littéraire n'ayant pas encore été examiné de manière approfondie la présente étude commence par une enquête sur les sens du nous dans plusieurs genres littéraires dont le genre pistolaire d'Homére jusqu'à l'époque hellénistique La seconde partie consacrée à 2 Co 10 13 montre l'architecture soignée de ces chapitres ainsi que la manière dont Paul communique le message théologique sur la faiblesse et la force L'alternance des nous et des je exprime en outre une véritable théologie de l'autorité apostolique
