Six Screenplays:

Six Screenplays Robert Riskin, 1997 Screenwriter Robert Riskin 1897 1955 was a towering figure even among the giants of Hollywood's Golden Age Known for his unique blend of humor and romance wisecracking and idealism Riskin teamed with director Frank Capra to produce some of his most memorable films Pat McGilligan has collected six of the best Riskin scripts Platinum Blonde 1931 American Madness 1932 It Happened One Night 1934 Mr Deeds Goes to Town 1936 Lost Horizon 1937 and Meet John Doe 1941 All of them were directed by Capra and although Capra's work has been amply chronicled and celebrated Riskin's share in the collaboration has been overlooked since his death McGilligan provides the backstory for the forgotten half of the team indispensable counterpoint to the director's self-mythologizing autobiography and incidentally the missing link in any study of Capra's career Riskin's own career although interrupted by patriotic duty and cut short by personal tragedy produced as consistent entertaining thoughtful and enduring a body of work as any Hollywood writer's Those who know and love these vintage films will treasure these scripts McGilligan's introduction offers new information and insights for fans scholars and general readers

The Six Scripts, 1954 The Six Scripts, 1954 Six Screenplays Robert Riskin, 2003 The six scripts T'ung Tai, 1881 The Six Scripts Tong Dai, 1881 The Modernist Screenplay Alexandra Ksenofontova, 2020-10-02 The Modernist Screenplay explores the film screenplay as a genre of modernist literature It connects the history of screenwriting for silent film to the history of literary modernism in France Germany and Russia At the same time the book considers how the screenplay responded to the modernist crisis of reason confronted mimetic representation and sought to overcome the modernist mistrust of language with the help of rhythm From the silent film projects of Bertolt Brecht to the screenwriting of Sergei Eisenstein and the poetic scripts of the surrealists The Modernist Screenplay offers a new angle on the relationship between film and literature Based on the example of modernist screenwriting the book proposes a pluralistic approach to screenplays an approach that sees film scripts both as texts embedded in film production and as literary works in their own right As a result the sheer variety of different and experimental ways to tell stories in screenplays comes to light The Modernist Screenplay explores how the earliest kind of experimental screenplays the modernist screenplays challenged normative ideas about the nature of filmmaking the nature of literary writing and the borders between the two

The Screenwriter in British Cinema Jill Nelmes, 2019-07-25 Though screenwriting is an essential part of the film production process in Britain it is yet to be fully recognised as a form in itself In this original study Jill Nelmes brings the art of screenwriting into sharp focus foregrounding the role of the screenwriter in British cinema from the 1930s to the present day Drawing on otherwise unseen drafts of screenplays correspondence and related material held in the Special Collections of the BFI National Archive Nelmes's close textual analysis of the screenplay in its many forms illuminates both the writing and the production process With case studies of a diverse range of key writers from individuals such as Muriel Box Robert Bolt and Paul Laverty to teams such as the Carry On writers Nelmes exposes the

Threatened Masculinity from British Fiction to Cold War German Cinema Joseph Willis,2019-05-30 The impact of the Cold War on German male identities can be seen in the nation's cinematic search for a masculine paradigm that rejected the fate centered value system of its National Socialist past while also recognizing that German males once again had become victims of fate and fatalism but now within the value system of the Soviet and American hegemonies that determined the fate of Cold War Germany and Central Europe This monograph is the first to demonstrate that this Cold War cinematic search sought out a meaningful masculine paradigm through film adaptations of late Victorian and Edwardian male writers who likewise sought a means of self determination within a hegemonic structure that often left few opportunities for personal agency In contrast to the scholarly practice of exploring categories of modern masculinity such as Victorian imperialist manliness or German Cold War male identity as distinct from each other this monograph offers an important comparative corrective that brings forward an extremely influential century long trajectory of threatened masculinity For German Cold War masculinity lessons were to be learned from history namely from late Victorian and Edwardian models of manliness Cold War Germans like the Victorians before them had to confront the unknowns of a new world without fear or hesitation In a Cold War mentality where nuclear technology and geographic distance had trumped face to face confrontation between East and West Cold War German masculinity sought alternatives to the insanity of mutual nuclear destruction by choosing not just to confront threats but to resolve threats directly through personal agency and self determination

INDEPENDENT Frank Capra's Eastern Horizons Elizabeth Rawitsch,2014-10-16 Frank Capra has long had a reputation as being the quintessential American director the man who perfectly captured the identity and core values of the United States with a string of classic films in the 1930s and 40s including It Happened One Night Mr Smith Goes to Washington and It s a Wonderful Life However as Elizabeth Rawitsch argues Capra s construction of national identity did not occur within an exclusively national context She points out that many of his films are actually set in or include sequences set in China Latin America the Philippines and the South Seas Featuring in depth textual analysis supported by original archival research Frank Capra s Eastern Horizons explains that Capra s view of what constituted America changed over time extending its boundaries to embrace countries often far from the United States Complicating Edward Said s theory of Orientalism as a strict binary in which the West constructs the East as an inferior other it demonstrates that East and West often intermingle in films such as The Bitter Tea of General Yen and in Capra s orientation documentaries for World War II American servicemen Capra imagined a kind of global community albeit one with heavy undertones of British and American imperialism Investigating shifts in what Capra s America has meant over time both to Capra and to those who have watched and studied his films this innovative book offers a startlingly fresh perspective on one of the most iconic figures in American film history

In Capra's Shadow Ian Scott,2014-10-17 Because screenwriter Robert Riskin spent most of his career collaborating with legendary Hollywood director Frank Capra Riskin s own unique contributions to film have been largely overshadowed With five Academy Award nominations to his credit for the monumental films Lady for a Day Mr Deeds Goes to Town You Can t

Take It with You Here Comes the Groom and It Happened One Night for which he won the Oscar Riskin is often imitated but rarely equaled In Capra s Shadow The Life and Career of Screenwriter Robert Riskin is the first detailed critical examination of the Hollywood pioneer s life and work In addition to being one of the great screenwriters of the classic Hollywood era Riskin was also a producer and director founding his own film company and playing a crucial role in the foundation of the Screen Writers Guild During World War II Riskin was one of the major forces behind propaganda filmmaking He worked in the Office of War Information and oversaw the distribution and later production of films and documentaries in foreign theaters He was interested in showing the rest of the world more than just an idealized version of America he looked for films that emphasized the spiritual and cultural vibrancy within the U S making charity faith and generosity of spirit his propaganda tools His efforts also laid the groundwork for a system of distribution channels that would result in the dominance of American cinema in Europe in the postwar years Riskin s postwar work included his production of the 1947 film Magic Town the tale of a marketing executive who discovers the perfect American small town and uses it for polling What Riskin created onscreen is not simply a community stuck in an antiquarian past rather the town of Grandview observes its own traditions while at the same time confronting the possibilities of the modern world and the challenges of postwar America Author Ian Scott provides a unique perspective on Riskin and the ways in which his brilliant pithy style was realized in Capra s enduring films Riskin s impact on cinema extended far beyond these films as he helped spread Hollywood cinema abroad and articulated his vision of a changing America
