Fiction, 1888-1988 , Translation as Criticism Anna Gadd Colombi, 2018-07-27 Themes places characters and voices of Elizabeth Jolley's Mr Scobie's Riddle are explored in detail in this monograph which provides different narratological and translational analyses of the novel as well as an academic translation into Italian Considering the challenges and issues posited by a literary work's translation helps to shed light on the original work itself In this manner the translation is to be seen as a further analytical instrument to gain insight into the original novel The purpose of this work is to obtain a deeper understanding of the complicated microcosm created by Jolley in the nursing home of St Christopher and St Jude the typically Australian themes of migration isolation place and displacement the Australian culture specific elements the ensemble of curious characters and their entertaining voices This book strives to preserve the above elements in translation as the expression of something Other a different culture and to take Italian readers on a journey to the Australia depicted in Mr Scobie's Riddle so that Jolley's characters voices can echo in the Italian language Canon Constitution and Canon Change in Children's Literature Bettina Kümmerling-Meibauer, Anja Müller, 2016-12-01 This volume focuses on the de canonization processes in children's literature considering the construction and cultural historical changes of canons in different children's literatures Chapters by international experts in the field explore a wide range of different children's literatures from Great Britain Germany Scandinavia the Low Countries Eastern and Central Europe as well as from Non European countries such as Australia Israel and the United States Situating the inquiry within larger literary and cultural studies conversations about canonicity the contributors assess representative authors and works that have encountered changing fates in the course of canon history Particular emphasis is given to sociological canon theories which have so far been under represented in canon research in children's literature The volume therefore relates historical changes in the canon of children's literature not only to historical changes in concepts of childhood but to more encompassing political social economic cultural and ideological shifts This volume's comparative approach takes cognizance of the fact that if canon formation is an important cultural factor in nation building processes a comparative study is essential to assessing transnational processes in canon formation This book thus renders evident the structural similarities between patterns and strategies of canon formation emerging in different children's literatures Patrick White's Fiction Carolyn Bliss, 1986-08-18 This study examines all eleven novels of Patrick White the great Australian writer and Nobel Prize winner It begins from the observation that major characters in his novels undergo a necessary redemptive or facilitating failure This failure paradoxically enables their success within the context of what White has called the overreaching grandeur which circumscribes human existence Evolution of this theme is traced through forty years of White's fiction from his first novel Happy Valley 1939 to his most recent work The Twyborn Affair 1979 Comprehensive in its scope this book is informed by a thorough knowledge of White's poetry plays short stories and autobiography as well as his novels It is also unique in stressing that White's world view derives from a distinctly Australian experience It thus links him to a country in which he is deeply rooted and to a heritage he continued to affirm Heritage, Labour and the Working Classes Laurajane Smith, Paul Shackel, Gary Campbell, 2012-05-23 Heritage Labour and the Working Classes is both a celebration and commemoration of working class culture It contains sometimes inspiring accounts of working class communities and people telling their own stories and weaves together examples of tangible and intangible heritage place history memory music and literature Rather than being framed in a social inclusion framework which sees working class culture as a deficit this book addresses the question What is labour and working class heritage how does it differ or stand in opposition to dominant ways of understanding heritage and history and in what ways is it used as a contemporary resource It also explores how heritage is used in working class communities and by labour organizations and considers what meanings and significance this heritage may have while also identifying how and why communities and their heritage have been excluded Drawing on new scholarship in heritage studies social memory the public history of labour and new working class studies this volume highlights the heritage of working people communities and organizations Contributions are drawn from a number of Western countries including the USA UK Spain Sweden Australia and New Zealand and from a range of disciplines including heritage and museum studies history sociology politics archaeology and anthropology Heritage Labour and the Working Classes represents an innovative and useful resource for heritage and museum practitioners students and academics concerned with understanding community heritage and the debate on social inclusion exclusion It offers new ways of understanding heritage its values and consequences and presents a challenge to dominant and traditional frameworks for understanding and identifying heritage and heritage making Social Pattern in Australian Literature Tom Inglis Moore, 1971 'A world-proof life' Marivic Wyndham, 2007-01-01 Eleanor Dark 1901 1985 is one of Australia's most celebrated writers of the inter war years Born with the twentieth century a Federation baby she published ten novels amongst them one of the best loved Australian stories of all time The Timeless Land Her life spanned successive global crises two world wars the economic depression of the 1930s the Cold War each issuing its own challenges to the artist and the people's writer she thought herself to be By far the most privileged writer of her generation her ultimate challenge was a personal one to unlock the gates of her world proof life to a society and a world in crisis The first cross cultural biography of this famous Australian writer Marivic Wyndham's rich and controversial portrait of Eleanor Dark is based on extensive research of the author's public and private lives A Reference Guide for English Studies Michael J. Marcuse, 1990-01-01 This ambitious undertaking is designed to acquaint students teachers and researchers with reference sources in any branch of English studies which Marcuse defines as all those subjects and lines of critical and scholarly inquiry presently pursued by members of university departments of English language and literature Within each of 24 major sections Marcuse lists and annotates bibliographies guides reviews of research encyclopedias dictionaries journals and reference histories The annotations and various indexes are models of clarity and usefulness and cross references are liberally supplied where appropriate Although cost conscious librarians will probably consider the several other excellent literary bibliographies in print such as James L Harner s Literary Research Guide Modern Language Assn of America 1989 larger academic libraries will want Marcuse s volume Jack Bales Mary Washington Coll Lib Fredericksburg Va Library Journal John Shaw Neilson Hewson, Helen,1997-02-11 The selection begins in 1906 when A G Stephens started up The Bookfellow From this crucial point and throughout the ensuing thirty five years we follow Neilson the man farming and working in the bush maintaining caring relationships with his scattered family and finally moving in 1928 to Melbourne and a job as an interdepartmental messenger with the Country Roads Board in Carlton Helen Hewson has chosen and edited her material from more than a thousand existing letters most of which have not been published previously They cover family social and publishing correspondence in addition to the detailed letters about writing poetry which passed between Neilson and his three very different editorial advisers A G Stephens Robert H Croll and James Devaney his first biographer Other writers of the period who corresponded with Neilson included Robert Bridges Mary Gilmore Christopher Brennan Vance and Nettie Palmer Hubert Church Percival Serle and Frank Wilmot The letters are full of revealing details about his association with many institutions and personalities the Australian Literature Association the Bread and Cheese Club Coles Book Arcade the Hill of Content the Hawthorn Press Blamire Young Vance and Nettie Palmer Mary Gilmore Bernard O Dowd Frank Wilmot Victor Kennedy and others John Shaw Neilson A Life in Letters establishes a social background and a literary context which ends any suggestion that Neilson is merely a bush poet or a simple singer This complex poet participated in an intricate network of literary relationships and literary production and it is only through reading the letters that one realises the degree to which he reflected on his own and other people s poetry and writing

The International Reception of Emily Dickinson Domhnall Mitchell,Maria Stuart,2009-07-09 The first truly international collection of essays on Dickinson covering her reception in Europe South America Israel and Japan Douglas Stewart Susan P. Ballyn Jenney,1996 APAIS, Australian Public Affairs Information Service ,1993 Fritz Hart Peter Tregear,Anne-Marie Forbes,2024-12-05 Fritz Bennicke Hart 1874 1949 stands as one of the more astonishing figures of the so called English Musical Renaissance This long overdue biographical study explores and assesses the substantial and lasting contributions he made to the musical life of England Australia and Hawai i As Tregear and Forbes have richly documented Hart was a charismatic and extraordinarily productive composer conductor educator and institutional leader whose life journey in music throws new light on the aesthetic concerns of early twentieth century imperial Britain and how they were received and refracted at that empire s farthest extent Area Handbook for Australia Donald P. Whitaker,1974 The Cambridge History of the Australian Novel David Carter,2023-07-27 The Cambridge History of the Australian Novel is an authoritative volume on the Australian novel by more than forty experts in the field of Australian literary studies drawn from within Australia and abroad Essays cover a wide range of types of novel writing and publishing from the earliest colonial period through to the present day The international dimensions of publishing Australian fiction are also considered as are the changing contours of criticism of the novel in Australia Chapters examine colonial fiction women s writing Indigenous novels popular genre fiction historical fiction political novels and challenging novels on identity and belonging from recent decades not least the major rise of Indigenous novel writing Essays focus on specific periods of major change in Australian history or range broadly across themes and issues that have influenced fiction across many years and in many parts of the country
