Social Psychology Identities And Relationships:

Social Psychology Kopano Ratele, Norman Duncan, 2003 Using current socio political thought and research this book examines topics such as violence social and political transition race and racism and sexualities Theoretical and empirical research are related to topical problems highlighting the complex relations of individuals to their societies and to one another The histories and complexities of problems and their interconnectedness are examined and possible solutions are suggested Special attention is paid to class sexuality gender and race making psychology in general and social psychology in particular relevant and exciting Social Psychology, 2017 Social Psychology - Identities and Relationships K. Ratele, N. Duncan, 2004-05-01 Community Psychology Anthony Naidoo, Jace Pillay, Brett Bowman, 2007 Book CD Community Psychology contains a rich diversity of insights and critical debates on the key theoretical analytic teaching learning and action approaches in community psychology The book offers an incisive examination of a range of contextual factors that influence the practice of community psychology in South Africa Social Psychology Stainton Rogers, Wendy, 2011-06-01 This is an introductory social psychology textbook that acknowledges two very different approaches being taken to social psychology experimental and critical These conflicting approaches are brought together in a single coherent text Handbook of International Feminisms Alexandra Rutherford, Rose Capdevila, Vindhya Undurti, Ingrid Palmay, 2011-08-23 The goal of Handbook of International Perspectives on Feminism is to present the histories status and contours of feminist research and practice in their respective regional and or national contexts The editors have invited researchers who are doing this work to present their perspectives on women culture and rights with the objective to illuminate the diverse forms that feminist psychological work takes around the world and connect these forms with the unique positions and concerns of women in these regions What does feminist psychology look like in Japan In South Africa In Sri Lanka In Canada In Brazil How did it come to look this way How do psychologists in these countries or regions each with unique political economic and cultural histories engage in feminist work in the societies in which they live How do they employ the tools of psychology broadly defined to do this work and what tensions and challenges have they faced Self, Community and Psychology Norman Duncan, 2004 A reader for students at the University of South Africa studying community psychology It addresses ideologies of race gender and sexuality that together create particular South African post colonial realities which legitimise oppression and cultural dispossession The Dynamics and Complexities of Interracial Gay Families in South Africa: A New Frontier Oluwafemi Adeagbo, 2018-12-12 This book provides an in depth account of a qualitative study on the familial arrangements and domestic settings shaping interracial gay partnerships in the South African context and it offers both empirical and theoretical insights on the topic While heterosexual intimate relationships particularly mixed race couples have attracted societal and scholarly attention in South Africa due to the country's past history of racial segregation it is however striking how little emphasis is placed on understanding same sex unions in a transforming South Africa This book is timely and important because it explores the vignettes complexities and dynamics of interracial gay intimate relationships an area that hardly gets the scholarly attention it deserves The book addresses the intersectionality and the question of how sexuality gender racial identity and personal resources influence the relationship as well as the way resilience strategies are drawn upon to sustain the partnership

Inter-group Relations Kopano Ratele, 2006 Following the undoing of the racist apartheid government this study critically examines the social and psychological issues that continue to trouble South Africans Topical concerns include language barriers homelessness stereotyping and racism HIV AIDS social influence and dominance as well as different ways of understanding intergroup conflict and cooperation

Hook, 2013-09-27 Race Memory and the Apartheid Archive Towards a Transformative Psychosocial Praxis draws on a psychosocial approach that is uniquely suited to the socio historical and psychical analysis of racism The book relies mainly on the memories stories and narratives of ordinary people living in apartheid South Africa

Fanon, Psychoanalysis, and Critical Decolonial Psychology Derek Hook, 2025-04-08 This groundbreaking book examines the psychological dimension of decolonial thought in reference to foundational texts Previously published as A Critical Psychology of the Postcolonial this new edition foregrounds the central role of Fanon's psychology Highlighting the contributions of anti colonial authors to the theorization of racism and oppression the book demonstrates the pertinence of postcolonial and decolonial thought for critical social psychology and psychoanalysis via an investigation of a series of key topics It explores the psychology of embodiment and racialization resistance strategies to oppression extra discursive facets of racism the phobogenic and sexual dimensions of anti Blackness and the roles of desire fantasy and unconscious in ideologies of racism The book makes a distinctive contribution through discussing the work of authors drawn from anti apartheid psychoanalytic and critical social theory traditions including Steve Biko J M Coetzee Frantz Fanon Julia Kristeva Chabani Manganyi and Slavoj Žižek This second edition continues to showcase a crucial set of critical resources for an anti racist decolonial agenda and is fully updated with new discussion references and images with a new chapter on desire fantasy and apartheid ideology to strengthen the book's engagement with apartheid racism This is an invaluable text not only for students of critical social psychology psychoanalysis and sociology but for students enrolled in courses on race racism or decolonial studies It will also appeal to postgraduates academics and anyone interested in psychoanalysis in relation to societal and political issues Community Psychology and the Socio-economics of Mental Distress Carl Walker, Katherine Johnson, Liz Cunningham, 2017-09-16 Providing unique global perspectives on community psychology this is exciting and important reading for students and researchers alike written by leading experts in the field Drawing on a wealth of experience and examples it offers an essential guide to the political global context of this fast developing area of psychology The Routledge International Handbook of Interracial and Intercultural Relationships and Mental Health Shivon Raghunandan, Roy Moodley, Kelley Kenney, 2025-07-08 The Routledge International Handbook of Interracial and Intercultural Relationships and Mental Health presents critical theoretical empirical and psychological accounts of intercultural intimacies It challenges pervasive Eurocentric discourse and ideas and offers current scholarly practical equitable global and intercultural responsive philosophies theories clinical frameworks and practices The chapters in this text offer critical perspectives on the mental health and well being of intercultural couples inclusive of multi cultural multi ethnic multi faith multi sexual multi racial multi gendered multi abled couples and their intersections A diverse range of international contributors present an intersectional analysis of traditional and contemporary cultural ideas and relationship philosophies and explore multiple global and cultural psychologies that shape the health and well being of intercultural couples and their families This handbook is essential for students educators mental health clinicians and researchers in counselling psychotherapy clinical psychology psychiatry and social work programmes The Gender of Psychology Tamara Shefer, Floretta Boonzaier, Peace Kiguwa, 2006 Psychology as a discipline has been criticised for perpetuating sexism reproducing gender inequality and neglecting marginalised perspectives Individual and Society Elizabeth A. Crawford, Katherine B. Novak, 2024-05-14 Unlike other texts for undergraduate sociological social psychology courses Individual and Society covers each of the three research traditions in sociological social psychology symbolic interactionism social structure and personality and group processes and structures With this approach the authors make clear the link between sociological social psychology theory and methodology Students will gain a better understanding of how and why social psychologists trained in sociology ask particular kinds of questions the types of research they are involved in and how their findings have been or can be applied to contemporary societal patterns and problems This new third edition makes the emphasis on social inequality within sociological social psychology a key theme in earlier versions of the book more salient throughout the text by including new or expanded discussions of intersectionality positionality the experiences of gender and sexual minorities racial microaggression contemporary social movements and the complexities of allyship Other additions to the text address the ubiquity of the Internet and social media where the authors consider how these phenomena have shaped the experiences of Generation Z the first digital natives and altered individuals self concepts and social relationships

Engaging exercises and group activities are also embedded within each chapter to enhance students readiness to reflect and think critically about the social world around them and to improve their understanding of the different dimensions of sociological social psychology and how they relate to everyday life

The Evolving Psyche of Law in Europe Magdalena Smieszek, 2021-06-04 The book applies an interdisciplinary analytical framework based on social psychology theories of inclusion and exclusion to a discussion of legal discourse and the development of legal frameworks in Europe concerning migrants asylum seekers refugees and European citizens It adopts a psycho historical perspective to discuss the evolution of international and European law with regard to the rights of citizens and asylum seeking non citizens from the law s inception following the Second World War up to present day laws and policies The book reveals the embracing of a European identity based on human rights as the common feature in European treaties and institutions one that is focused on European citizens and has inclusionary objectives However a cognitive dissonance can also be found as this common identity making runs counter to national proclivities as well as securitized threat perception oriented perspectives that can produce exclusionary manifestations concerning persons seeking asylum In particular a view of inclusion and exclusion via legal categorizations of status as well as distributions of social and economic rights draws attention to the links between social psychology and international law What emerges in the analysis a process of creating value is present both at its psychological roots and the expressions of value in the law Fundamentally speaking the emergence of laws and policies that center on human beings and human dignity when understood from a psychological and emotion based perspective has the potential to transcend the dissonances identified
