Social Services For The Elderly:

Housing and Social Services for the Elderly Elizabeth D. Huttman, Ilse J. Volinn, 1977     Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging Barbara Berkman, 2006-02-09 The Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging is the first reference to combine the fields of health care aging and social work in a single authoritative volume These areas are too often treated as discrete entities while the reality is that all social workers deal with issues in health and aging on a daily basis regardless of practice specialization As the baby boomers age the impact on practice in health and aging will be dramatic and social workers need more specialized knowledge about aging health care and the resources available to best serve older adults and their families The volume s 102 original chapters and 13 overviews written by the most experienced and prominent gerontological health care scholars in the United States and across the world provide social work practitioners and educators with up to date knowledge of evidence based practice guidelines for effectively assessing and treating older adults and their families new models for intervention in both community based practice and institutional care and knowledge of significant policy and research issues in health and aging A truly monumental resource this handbook represents the best research on health and aging available to social workers today     Social Work with the Aging Carol H. Meyer, 1975     Journal of Human Services Abstracts, 1984     The Social Services Block Grant and Its Impact on Services to the Elderly United States. Congress. House. Select Committee on Aging. Subcommittee on Human Services, 1982     Abuses in the Sale of Long-term Care Insurance to the Elderly, 1991     The Oxford Handbook of Social Work in Health and Aging Daniel B. Kaplan, Barbara Berkman, 2016 This Second Edition of the Handbook addresses the evolving interdisciplinary health care context and the broader social work practice environment as well as advances in the knowledge base which guides social work service delivery in health and aging This includes recent enhancements in the theories of gerontology innovations in clinical interventions and major developments in the social policies that structure and finance health care and senior services In addition the policy reforms of the 2010 Patient Protection and Affordable Care Act set in motion a host of changes in the United States healthcare system with potentially profound implications for the programs and services which provide care to older adults and their families In this volume the most experienced and prominent gerontological health care scholars address a variety of populations that social workers serve and the arenas in which they practice followed by detailed recommendations of best practices for an array of physical and mental health conditions The volume s unprecedented attention to diversity health care trends and implications for practice research policy make the publication a major event in the field of gerontological social work This is a Must Read for all social work social work educators practitioners and students interested in older adults and their families     Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies Appropriations for 2007 United States. Congress. House. Committee on Appropriations. Subcommittee on the Departments of Labor, Health and Human Services, Education, and Related Agencies, 2006     Social Work with the Aging

Louis Lowy,1979      Social Work and Health Care in an Aging Society Barbara Berkman,Linda Harootyan,2003-06-01

This book places significant issues related to the health mental health and well being of older adults and their caregivers within the context of social work service delivery By presenting the research of social work scholars all experts in specific research areas the editors clarify the value that social work brings to the larger realm of health care for older adults and their families Special consideration is given to such issues as case management urban African American elders grandmothers raising grandchildren aging persons with developmental disabilities home health care and more For Further Information on Dr Berkman Please Click Here      Advancing Gerontological Social Work Education Joanna Mellor,Joann

Ivry,2013-10-23 s your gerontological social work program as comprehensiveand as well attendedas it could be Advancing Gerontological Social Work Education will help you develop courses that effectively prepare social work students and practitioners to work with the ever increasing older population It clearly presents the rationale for geriatric gerontological preparation and defines the current status of geriatric gerontological education With fascinating case studies detailed curricula and a review of the skills and knowledge competencies necessary for effective geriatric social work practice this book also describes a variety of courses and teaching programs in detailnoting the problems that other educators have encountered and offering practical suggestions to help in replicating the programs in other institutions This book is especially useful because it not only examines the issues surroundingand need forincreased gerontological education for social workers but because it follows this with specific concrete descriptions of educational approaches and curricula It provides you with both the framework and the specifics to develop your own gerontological social work education program at the graduate or undergraduate level Helpful charts and tables make the information easy to access and understand Advancing Gerontological Social Work Education is divided into three sections each of which will increase your knowledge and understanding of this vital area of social work education The first section examines the historical development of gerontological social work education the CSWE SAGE SW Competencies Project the importance of interdisciplinary teamworkand the educational basis for interdisciplinary team training highlighting organizational context team structure team process and team outcomes ways to increase students interest in this vital area of social work In the second section of this well referenced book you will examine school based initiatives focusing on the development and implementation of the John A Hartford Foundation Geriatric Social Work Initiative the recruitment of students into geriatric social workwith an examination of a fellowship program the relationship between the aging population of the United States and the growing demand for geriatric social workers and how that need can be met through graduate level social work training developing a field training rotation model a doctoral fellowship program and its dissertation support mentorship and leadership development The third section of Advancing Gerontological Social Work Education features an empirical study exploring the potential for a limited curriculum module to enhance MSW and BSW students gerontological practice related knowledge attitudes and interest an overview of the history and rationale of service learning in elder care a description of the varied service learning in elder care programs an experiential exercise that was used successfully to assist graduate students in integrating and applying their knowledge about geriatric assessment the results of interviews with MSW students about the appropriateness of their preparation for medical social work with an aged population conducted at the beginning midpoint and end of their field placements a report on incorporating intergenerational service learning into an undergraduate introductory gerontology course the use of the family study which exposes teams of students for 20 weeks to a family that includes an older adult

The Handbook of Social Work and Social Development in Africa Mel Gray, 2016-10-26 All recent books on international social work mention Africa only briefly and few engage with the broader field of development studies This book focuses solely on the unique African context engaging with issues relating to social work and development more broadly thus enabling a deeper examination and more complex and nuanced picture to emerge Unlike most academic works this book highlights multiple practitioner voices with authors or co authors that have recently been or are currently practising social workers As an edited book it draws from both academic research as well as lived practice experience supported by strong theoretical positioning and guidance in introductory chapters drawing on African literature wherever possible Looking at case studies from Lesotho Botswana Kenya Zimbabwe Ethiopia Namibia Uganda Nigeria Kenya South Africa Rwanda Zambia and Tanzania and covering established areas of practice such as child protection working with older people working with people with disabilities mental health and mainstream services targeting women as well as emerging areas of developmental social work practice such as humanitarian assistance in post conflict situations work with immigrants and refugees and the training of community based workers this book takes a future oriented perspective that aims to move beyond well worn critiques to envision constructive and sustainable futures for social work and social development in Africa from a critical perspective

Older People And Community Care Hughes, Beverly, 1995-09-01 Older People and Community Care sets social and health care practice with older people firmly in the context of the new community care arrangements and the consequent organizational trends towards a market culture However it also questions the relative lack of attention given by professionals to issues of structural inequality in old age compared for example to race and gender Thus the book tackles a double agenda How can community care practice be suffused with anti ageist values and principles Addressing this question the book sets out the foundation knowledge and values which must underpin the development of anti discriminatory community care practice and examines the implications for practitioners in terms of the essential skills and inherent dilemmas which arise Older People and Community Care is essential reading for all those working with and managing services to older people and who aspire to make empowerment for older people a reality

Handbook of Social Work Practice with Vulnerable and Resilient Populations Alex Gitterman, 2014-05-06 When community and family support systems are weak or unavailable and when internal resources fail populations that struggle with chronic persistent acute and or unexpected problems become vulnerable to physical cognitive emotional and social deterioration Yet despite numerous risk factors a large number of vulnerable people do live happy and productive lives This best selling handbook examines not only risk and vulnerability factors in disadvantaged populations but also resilience and protective strategies for managing and overcoming adversity This third edition reflects new demographic data research findings and theoretical developments and accounts for changing economic and political realities including immigration and health care policy reforms Contributors have expanded their essays to include practice with individuals families and groups and new chapters consider working with military members and their families victims and survivors of terrorism and torture bullied children and young men of color
