Social Strategies Building the City Marielly Casanova ,2019 Social housing is a complex system integrated by social economic political and city making processes Social practices in the called social production of the habitat provide clues to understand an alternative way to approach housing solutions in which several dimensions coexist Through the rationalization of social self management economic social economy and urban principles it was possible the construction of typologies to document and evaluate 3 case studies in Latin America This book provides a foundation for future research and conception of social housing policies and programs Handbook of Research on Effective Advertising Strategies in the Social Media Age

Ta?k?ran, Nurdan Öncel,2015-02-28 Social media pervades people s awareness and everyday lives while also influencing societal and cultural patterns In response to the social media age advertising agents are creating new strategies that best suit changing consumer relationships The Handbook of Research on Effective Advertising Strategies in the Social Media Age focuses on the radically evolving field of advertising within the new media environment Covering new strategies structural transformation of media and changing advertising ethics this book is a timely publication for policymakers government officials academicians researchers and school practitioners interested in furthering their research exposure and analyzing the rapidly evolving advertising sector and its reflection on social media

Social Strategy & Corporate Structure Neil W. Chamberlain,2007-09-10 This new work by Neil W Chamberlain will be of great importance to the business community and to all those charged with defining the role large corporations play in the affairs of society Social Strategy and Corporate Structure is an objective indepth examination of the organizational requirements of a social role for large scale business The role Neil Chamberlain presents is one of heroic dimensions the political choice of goals the strategic allocation of resources and the tactical operations of the mechanisms of production While there has been much discussion of corporate social responsibility few have investigated the ways its structure will have to change if the corporation is to pursue a strategy that is both economic and social This timely book integrates a large number of issues involving corporate activities and governance that go directly to the heart of this problem In step by step detail Chamberlain analyzes the organizational imperatives of this new age of social responsibility the composition and functions of boards of directors and the relation of their duties to a broad system of national planning the internal social audit changes in the characteristics of corporate social planning and proposals for restructuring ultimate corporate authority either through public or outside directors In addition he examines the potential relevance of federal chartering of corporations and the effects of international economic interdependence on the development of a new corporate social strategy This book is not a detailed blueprint for change Rather it presents a thorough systematic study of available courses of action for improvement based on the principle that conventional notions of corporate independence will have to be modified for any social strategy to work And while not everyone will agree with Neil Chamberlain few can afford to ignore his provocative insights into what corporations must do to function effectively in a changed social environment

Corporate Social Responsibility in India. Trends, Issues and Strategies Sateesh Gouda M,A.G. Khan,S.L. Hiremath,2017-02 Corporate Social Responsibility CSR the commitment of organizations to balance financial performance with contributions to the quality of life of their employees the local community and society at large is gaining worldwide value as a business tool and social effort The review of literature suggests that many studies have been undertaken globally to understand CSR as a subject of management but there have been very few studies undertaken to understand the other dimension of CSR which is beneficiary community aspect of CSR especially in India Here the authors make an attempt to understand the CSR concept from both the dimensions of CSR i e management and beneficiaries of CSR community The authors try to understand the issues covered by the management and their implementing strategies in order to meet community needs Also the authors try to study the requirements and satisfaction of the community in the area where the corporates implement CSR This type of attempt is the first one in India to study the community awareness and ist knowledge about CSR as well as the organisations working in the community The present study also tries to measure the impact of CSR activities undertaken by the organizations in a way to have the sustainable development at village level In this context the present study plays a significant role in the field of Research Methodology the field of management as well as social science especially from the social work perspective To meet the study objectives both primary and secondary data were used The primary data was collected in Karnataka India by selecting nine organisations three of each from Govt Private and Multinational companies those were recognised as leaders in implementing CSR activities To understand the impact of CSR on community 450 community respondents were also interviewed with the help of structured questionnaire Secondary data for the study was obtained from Karmayog CSR Ratings of the 500 largest Indian companies and other similar studies other available articles books companies annual reports and related publications were reviewed in the study
