Socialist Remembers:

Navigating Socialist Encounters Eric Burton, Anne Dietrich, Immanuel Harisch, Marcia Schenck, 2021-06-08 This edited volume firmly places African history into global history by highlighting connections between African and East German actors and institutions during the Cold War With a special focus on negotiations and African influences on East Germany and vice versa the volume sheds light on personal and institutional agency cultural cross fertilization migration development and solidarity

German Post-Socialist Memory Culture Amieke Bouma, 2025-10-01 After German unification former officers of the GDR state security service united with GDR professors and cultural managers to establish the East German Committee of Associations OKV On the basis of encompassing oral history into this complex web of interest organizations and memory clubs Bouma argues that these activists are driven by an epistemic nostalgia a longing for the time when their political understanding of the world was seemingly unchallenged Far from constituting a second life of the Stasi the main goal of OKV associations has been to validate the personal biographies of their activists against the now prevalent view that the GDR was a state of injustice While the OKV quickly adapted to the new legal procedures in post socialist Germany their staunch defence of the GDR heritage complicates their relation to SED successor party Die Linke and other radical left parties and associations even when they share practical goals Breaking new ground in the study of post socialist memory culture this book explains why former GDR cadres replicate GDR memory culture against their stigmatized status in unified Germany

Local Memories in a Nationalizing and Globalizing World M. Beyen, B. Deseure, 2015-03-10 In historical studies collective memory is most often viewed as the product of nationalizing strategies carried out by political elites in the hope to create homogeneous nation states In contrast this book asserts that collective memories develop out of a never ending triangular negotiation between local national and transnational actors

Screen Media and the Construction of Nostalgia in Post-Socialist China Zhun Gu, 2023-01-31 This book traces the cultural transformation of nostalgia on the Chinese screen over the past three decades It explores how filmmakers from different generations have engaged politically with China's rapidly changing post socialist society as it has been formed through three mutually constitutive frameworks political discourse popular culture and state led media commercialisation The book offers a new critical model for understanding relationships between filmmakers industry and the State

Remembering Utopia Breda Luthar, Maruša Pušnik, 2010-01-30 Essays and photos that reveal and reflect on everyday life in socialist Yugoslavia from tourism to television Research about socialism and communism tends to focus on official aspects of power and dissent and on state politics and presuppose a powerful state and a party with its official ideology on one side and repressed manipulated or collaborating citizens on the other side This collection of essays instead helps uncover various aspects of everyday life during the time of socialism in Yugoslavia such as leisure popular culture consumption sociability and power from 1945 until 1980 when Tito died A highly original project which will cover a much neglected area helping those who either did not make it to Yugoslavia in Tito's time or were born too late to understand what life then and there was all about Sabrina P Ramet Professor of Political Science at The Norwegian University of Science and Technology in Trondheim Norway This collection represents an original and highly useful work that helps fill a gap in the existing literature on socialist Yugoslavia and East Central Europe in the Cold War It also makes an important contribution to cultural history of the region in the second half of the twentieth century Dejan Djokic Lecturer in Serbian and Croatian Studies The University of Nottingham This book focuses on a cultural and social history of socialist Yugoslavia from the perspective of ordinary people and by reconstructing their memories The contributors many of them belonging to a new generation of scholars from the former Yugoslavia employ new approaches in order to make sense of the complicated past of this country Ulf Brunnbauer Department of History Freie Universität Berlin

Baltic Socialism Remembered Ene Kõresaar, 2018-10-16 What does it mean to tell a life story How is one's memory of communism shaped by family profession generation and religion Do post communist Baltic states embrace similar memories The Baltic states represent not only a geographical but also a mnemonic region The mental maps of people who live on this territory are shaped by memories of Soviet socialism Baltic Socialism Remembered captures the workings of the memory of diverse groups of people who inhabit the region teachers officials young people women believers It comes as no surprise that their memories do not overlap but often contradict to other groups and to official narratives Baltic Socialism Remembered is a rare attempt to engage with the mnemonic worlds of social groups and individuals rather than with memory politics and monumental history The contributors try to chart unpredictable ways in which public and national memory affect individual memory and vice versa Understanding complexity and diversity of memory workings in such compact region as the Baltic states will enable a more nuanced policy making This book was originally published as a special issue of Journal of Baltic Studies

Research Methods for Memory Studies Emily Keightley, 2013-05-31 The first textbook on research methods and methodological questions in the field of memory studies This guide provides students and researchers with a clear set of outlines and discussions of particular methods of research in memory studies It offers not only expert appraisals of a range of techniques approaches and perspectives in memory studies but also focuses on key questions of methodology in order to help bring unity and coherence to this new field of study

Memory, Place and Identity Danielle Drozdowski, Sarah De Nardi, Emma Waterton, 2016-05-20 This book bridges theoretical gaps that exist between the meta concepts of memory place and identity by positioning its lens on the emplaced practices of commemoration and the remembrance of war and conflict This book examines how diverse publics relate to their wartime histories through engagements with everyday collective memories in differing places Specifically addressing questions of place making displacement and identity contributions shed new light on the processes of commemoration of war in everyday urban spaces and within generations of families and national communities Contributions seek to clarify how we connect with memories and places of war and conflict The spatial and narrative manifestations of attempts to contextualise wartime memories of loss trauma conflict victory and suffering are refracted through the roles played by emotion and identity construction in the shaping of post war remembrances This book offers a multidisciplinary perspective with insights from history memory studies social psychology cultural and urban geography to contextualise memories of war and their use by national governments perpetrators victims and in family histories Postsocialist Memory in Contemporary German Culture Michel Mallet, Maria Mayr, Kristin Rebien, 2024-08-06

Scholarship on Eastern Europe after 1989 often focuses narrowly on the socialist past as authoritarian dictatorial or totalitarian This collection by contrast illuminates an additional dimension of post socialist memory it traces the survival of hopes and dreams born under socialism and the legacy of the unrealized alternative futures embedded within the socialist past Looking at contemporary German language literature film theater and art the volume analyzes reflections on everyday socialist realities as well as narratives of opposition and dissent The texts discussed here not only revisit the past but also challenge the present and help us imagine alternative futures Rather than framing the unrealized futures envisioned in the pre 1989 era as failures this collection probes post socialist memory for its future oriented potential to rethink issues of community equity and equality and late stage capitalism Foregrounding the complexities of Eastern European legacies also helps us reimagine the relationship between East and West both in Germany and in Europe as a whole Cultures and Globalization Helmut K Anheier, 2011-04-19

Bringing together a truly global range of scholars this volume explores heritage memory and identity through a diverse set of subjects including heritage sites practices of memorialization museums sites of contestation and human rights Crafting Chinese Memories Katherine Swancutt, 2021-10-15 Through an interdisciplinary conversation with contributors from social anthropology religious studies film studies literary studies cultural studies and history Crafting Chinese Memories is a novel book which addresses how works of art shape memories and offers new ways of conceptualising storytelling memory making art and materiality It explores the memories of artists filmmakers novelists storytellers and persons who come to terms with their own histories even as they reveal the social memories of watershed events in modern China Navigating Landscapes of Mediated Memory, 2020-04-14 This volume was first published by Inter Disciplinary Press in 2011 Heritage under Socialism Eszter Gantner, Corinne Geering, Paul Vickers, 2021-10-15

How was heritage understood and implemented in European socialist states after World War II By exploring national and regional specificities within the broader context of internationalization this volume enriches the conceptual methodological and empirical scope of heritage studies through a series of fascinating case studies Its transnational approach highlights the socialist world's diverse interpretations of heritage and the ways in which they have shaped the trajectories of present day preservation practices Remembering National Socialism in Austrian Post-war Film (1945-1955) Jakub Gortat, 2025-07-31

Entrenched in the myth of being victim of the Nazi aggression Austrian elites pursued a politics of memory that symbolically shook off any responsibility for the emergence development and consequences of National Socialism Authors of the vast majority of films produced early after 1945 were not interested in dealing with the recent Nazi past of their country There were however exceptions Through detailed analysis of the narratives stylistic patterns and reception of films that were set during or immediately after World War II this book explains how cinema corroborated Austrian national self stereotypes at the same time offering a critique of the Nazi regime Memory in Hungarian Fascism Zoltán Kékesi,2023-06-09 Memory in Hungarian Fascism A Cultural History argues that fascist memory had a key role in the historical formation and later return of fascism Tracing the trajectory of a perennial figure of fascist memory the cult of Eszter S lymosi from interwar Hungary through the Cold War West to contemporary Hungary the book covers a century of fascism and offers a unique combination of fascism studies and memory studies How did fascists challenge liberal memory after the First World War How did the memory culture they created come to frame and feed the Second World War and the genocide In what ways did fascist memory transform as they navigated the challenges of exile in a profoundly changed political landscape and tried to counter the postwar order And what role did their legacy carefully crafted for a post Communist future play as later neo fascists rejected democratic transformation Eventually as fascist memory traveled across time and space the book argues it contributed to the political challenges that we face today Based on a variety of unpublished sources the book offers new insights for students of memory Holocaust fascism and antisemitism studies Jewish studies Central and Eastern European history and Hungarian studies Memory and Modern British Politics Matthew Roberts,2023-12-14 This edited collection explores absence presence and remembrance in British political culture and memory studies Comprehensive in its scope it covers the entire modern period bringing together the 19th and 20th centuries as well as Britain Ireland and the Atlantic World As the first comparative and in depth study to explore the central and contested place of memory and the invention of tradition in modern British politics chapters include memorialisation statue mania anniversaries and on the wider impact and invoking of dead generations In doing so this book provides a new exciting and accessible way of engaging with the history of British political culture Remains of Socialism Maya Nadkarni,2020-07-15 In Remains of Socialism Maya Nadkarni investigates the changing fates of the socialist past in postsocialist Hungary She introduces the concept of remains both physical objects and cultural remainders to analyze all that Hungarians sought to leave behind after the end of state socialism Spanning more than two decades of postsocialist transformation Remains of Socialism follows Hungary from the optimism of the early years of transition to its recent right wing turn toward illiberal democracy Nadkarni analyzes remains that range from exiled statues of Lenin to the socialist era Bambi soda and from discredited official histories to the scandalous secrets of the communist regime s informers She deftly demonstrates that these remains were far more than simply the leftovers of an unwanted past Ultimately the struggles to define remains of socialism and settle their fates would represent attempts to determine the future and to mourn futures that never materialized Gendered Memories Xian Wang,2025-02-04 Gendered Memories An Imaginary Museum for Ding Ling and Chinese Female Revolutionary Martyrs takes readers on a journey through the lives and legacies of Chinese female revolutionary martyrs revealing how their sacrifices have been remembered commemorated and manipulated throughout history This innovative book blends historical narratives with personal narratives creating an imaginary museum where the stories of these women are brought to life Author Xian Wang employs this imaginary museum to create a conceptual space mirroring an actual museum that juxtaposes historical narratives with counter memories of Chinese female revolutionaries such as the prominent writer Ding Ling Exploring Ding s experiences with martyrdom and the commemoration of female revolutionary martyrs associated with her the book provides a compelling argument that female revolutionary martyrdom reinforces rather than rejects the traditional concept of female chastity martyrdom Narratives that challenge established gender norms particularly those surrounding female chastity have often been silenced or overlooked in the collective memory of these female revolutionary martyrs By delving into these counter memories Wang provides fresh insights into gendered violence memories and politics in modern Chinese literature and culture Challenge Accepted Gary

Kaunonen, 2010-02-19 The copper mines of Michigan s Copper Country in the Upper Peninsula were active for 150 years from 1845 until 1995 Many of the mine workers attempted to unionize in order to obtain better working conditions wages and hours The Michigan miners were unsuccessful in their struggles with mine owners which came to a climax in the 1913 14 Copper Country Strike This nine month battle between workers represented by the Western Federation of Miners WFM and the three major mining companies in the region took a particularly nasty turn on Christmas Eve 1913 at a party for strikers and their families organized by the WFM As many as 500 people were in the Italian Benevolent Society hall in Calumet Michigan when someone reportedly shouted fire There was no fire but it is estimated that 73 79 people more than 60 of them children died in the stampede for the exit Against this dramatic backdrop Gary Kaunonen tells the story of Finnish immigrants to Copper Country By examining the written record and material culture of Finnish immigrant proletarians analyzing buildings cultural institutions and publications of the socialist unionist media Kaunonen adds a new depth to our understanding of the time and place the events and a people Freedom , 1899
