Pilgrimage to Vallombrosa John Elder, 2012-10-05 Set aside your Bella Tuscany's and Year in Provence for a different kind of travel book Pilgrimage to Vallombrosa puts a walking stick in your hand and Marsh's Man and Nature in your knapsack exploring how Italians have managed their natural and cultural heritage in ways that sustain both John Elder's poetic meditations on land and life demonstrate that only by searching beyond our familiar boundaries can we discover better ways of living back at home Marcus Hall author of Earth Repair A Transatlantic History of Environmental Restoration This collaboration between George Perkins Marsh and John Elder between Vermont and Italy between maple and olive is one of the smartest soundest deepest books about the relationship between people and nature that I've ever read It will be a classic Bill McKibben author of The End of Nature Elder's impassioned pilgrimage shows us how to delight in messy wilderness to secure a curative habitation of the world and with Marsh to lend ecological nous to our gravest task knowing ourselves and respecting one another Let the maple seeds and olive stones of Elder's visionary harvest restore to us a reflective and redemptory future from the foreword by David Lowenthal The pivotal figure in Pilgrimage to Vallombrosa is the nineteenth century diplomat and writer George Perkins Marsh generally regarded as America's first environmentalist Like Elder Marsh was a Vermonter and his diplomatic career took him for some years to Italy where witnessing the ecological devastation wrought upon the landscape by runaway deforestation and the plundering of other natural resources he was moved to produce his famous manifesto Man and Nature Marsh drew parallels between the despoiled Italian environment and his home landscape of Vermont warning that the latter was vulnerable to ecological woes of a similar magnitude if not carefully maintained and protected In short his was a prescient voice for stewardship Elder follows in Marsh's footsteps along a trajectory running from Vermont to Italy and at length fetches up at the managed forest of Vallombrosa Punctuated throughout with learned and genial considerations of the poetry of Wordsworth Basho Dante and Frost Elder's narrative takes up issues of sustainability as practiced locally reports on family doings and returns finally as did Marsh's to Vermont where he measures traditional stewardship values against more aggressive conservation oriented measures such as the expansion of wilderness areas John Elder Professor of English and Environmental Studies at Middlebury College is the author of Reading the Mountains of Home and The Frog Run Under the Sign of Nature Explorations in Ecocriticism
