Sugar Mother:

Confessions of a Sugar Mummy Emma Tennant, 2012-09-28 What do older women want And older than what anyway Love flattery an end to baby sitting a night out without falling asleep Or the very last chance of gratifying desire of finding a soul mate even if it means paying over the odds Confessions of a Sugar Mummy provides the hilarious answer to the most pressing questions for women who have reached a certain age am I past it Why is the pursuit of happiness an acceptable goal for all members of the human race except Old Bags Money as so often turns out to be the solution And when a sixty something with frankly limited prospects finds her flat is worth a fortune she jumps at the chance of entering the world of property with the glamorous younger Frenchman Alain Until to her horror she realises she can't turn back until the final question is answered can money buy me love My Mother's Sabbath Days Chaim Grade, 1997 This tender and moving memoir by the great Yiddish writer Chaim Grade takes us to the very source of his widely praised novels and poems the city of Vilna the Jerusalem of Lithuania during the years before World War II Centered on the figure of Grade's mother Vella simple pious hard working this is a richly detailed account of the ghetto of his youth of the lives of the rabbis the wives the tradesmen the peddlers and the scholars We see Vella desperate after losing her husband become a fruit peddler struggling to survive poverty and to remain true to her faith in the face of human pettiness and cruelty We follow Grade as he walks in the footsteps of his scholar father a champion of enlightenment we see him entering marriage and his mother finding some peace of mind in a marriage of her own all of this in a world recalled with extraordinary physical and emotional intensity Then World War II The partition of Poland between the Soviet Union and Germany is followed by the new German invasion of June 1941 Grade believing as do so many others that the Nazis pose a danger chiefly to able bodied men like himself flees into Russia In his travels on foot and by train he meets a fascinating kaleidoscopic array of characters the disillusioned Communist Lev Kogan the durachok or simpleton a young prisoner who mistaken for a German spy is shot when he jumps from a train the once prosperous lawyer Orenstein who virtually becomes a beggar dies and is buried by strangers in a remote Central Asian village With the war's end Grade returns to Vilna to find the ghetto in ruins to learn that his wife and his mother have gone to their deaths and he is left with nothing but memories But it is here amid the devastation of a people that he finds the compulsion and the passion to commit to paper the world that has been lost Early Candlelight Stories Stella C. Shetter, 1922 A Little Preserving Book for a Little Girl Mrs. Amy Harlow Waterman, 2019-11-29 In A Little Preserving Book for a Little Girl Mrs Amy Harlow Waterman presents a charming introduction to the art of preserving fruits and vegetables weaving together practical guidelines with delightful anecdotes The literary style is characterized by its accessible language and engaging tone making it suitable for young readers while retaining educational depth Set against the backdrop of early 20th century domesticity the book reflects the era's growing interest in self sufficiency and the nurturing of family traditions through food preservation capturing the essence of a time when culinary skills were intertwined with both survival and pleasure Mrs Amy Harlow Waterman a prominent figure in early American literature and a pioneer in informal educational literature for children creates this book inspired by her own experiences in preserving the harvest Her background in domestic sciences and her passion for fostering creativity in the kitchen inform her loving narrative approach as she invites young girls to engage with a traditional craft that holds familial and cultural significance This enchanting book is a timeless treasure that not only instructs but also inspires a new generation of admirers of culinary arts Recommended for parents educators and young readers alike A Little Preserving Book for a Little Girl is an invitation to discover the joy and satisfaction of turning the bounty of the earth into lasting delights

A Key to Knowledge, Or, Things in Common Use Maria Elizabeth Budden, 1824 Diabetes Literature Index , 1972 Ice Trilogy Vladimir Sorokin, 2011-04-20 A New York Review Books Original In 1908 deep in Siberia it fell to earth THEIR ICE A young man on a scientific expedition found it It spoke to his heart and his heart named him Bro Bro felt the Ice Bro knew its purpose To bring together the 23 000 blond blue eyed Brothers and Sisters of the Light who were scattered on earth To wake their sleeping hearts To return to the Light To destroy this world And secretly throughout the twentieth century and up to our own day the Children of the Light have pursued their beloved goal Pulp fiction science fiction New Ageism pornography video game mayhem old time Communist propaganda and rampant commercial hype all collide splinter and splatter in Vladimir Sorokin s virtuosic Ice Trilogy a crazed joyride through modern times with the promise of a truly spectacular crash at the end And the reader as eager for the redemptive fix of a good story as the Children are for the Primordial Light has no choice except to go along caught up in a brilliant illusion from which only illusion escapes intact

Knowing Women Serena Owusua Dankwa, 2021-01-21 Knowing Women is a study of same sex desire in West Africa which explores the lives and friendships of working class women in southern Ghana who are intimately involved with each other Based on in depth research of the life histories of women in the region Serena O Dankwa highlights the vibrancy of everyday same sex intimacies that have not been captured in a globally pervasive language of sexual identity Paying close attention to the women s practices of self reference Dankwa refers to them as knowing women in a way that both distinguishes them from and relates them to categories such as lesbian or supi a Ghanaian term for female friend In doing so this study is not only a significant contribution to the field of global queer studies in which both women and Africa have been underrepresented but a starting point to further theorize the relation between gender kinship and sexuality that is key to queer feminist and postcolonial theories This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core

Voices of the Great Depression--The 1930'S Cinda Anderson, 2001-12-18 This is a non fiction book regarding peoples experiences during the 1930s The stories are taken from across the nation compiled from interviews and peoples letters about their daily lives regarding a period of great uncertainty These are factual accounts of this period to be used as reference about individuals triumphs and tragedies during an unstable economic period and how they coped giving future generations a guidebook about spirit ingenuity and strength should such a

Homoeopathic Nursery Manual Benson,2003 Rewriting God Elaine Lindsay,2000 Women are rarely if ever mentioned in commentaries upon Australian Christianity and spirituality Only exceptional women are recognized as authorities on religious matters Why is this so Does it matter Don t people from the same religious tradition share similar experiences of the divine regardless of their gender Rewriting God asks whether women have been writing about the divine and whether their insights are different from those contained in malestream accounts of Australian Christianity and spirituality An analysis of the writings of popular theologians and religious commentators over the last twenty years suggests that the most popular form of spirituality among Australian theologians is Desert Spirituality An analysis of women s autobiographical writings however suggests that the desert is irrelevant to many women's spiritual experiences This book through a close investigation of the fictions of Thea Astley Elizabeth Jolley and Barbara Hanrahan attempts to posit alternative forms of women's spirituality and to signal ways in which this spirituality is already being expressed From the evidence gathered here it becomes obvious that traditional expressions of Australian Christianity and spirituality are gender specific and that they have functioned to deny women's religious experiences and to silence their claims to equality in the sight and service of the divine It becomes obvious too that women have been developing their own forms of religious expression and that these may be expected to supplant gradually withering images of Desert Spirituality Whether this new imagery will strengthen Australian Christianity or whether it merely marks a decline in the authority of Christianity remains a moot point
