Suicide And Its Aftermath Understanding And Counseling The Survivors:

Suicide and Its Aftermath Edward J. Dunne, John L. McIntosh, Karen Dunne-Maxim, 1987-01-01 Offers guidance to counselors on how to help the families and friends of suicides to overcome their feelings of grief and guilt Handbook of Death and Dying Clifton D. Bryant, 2003-10 Dying is a social as well as physiological phenomenon Each society characterizes and consequently treats death and dying in its own individual ways ways that differ markedly These particular patterns of death and dying engender modal cultural responses and such institutionalized behavior has familiar economical educational religious and political implications The Handbook of Death and Dying takes stock of the vast literature in the field of thanatology arranging and synthesizing what has been an unwieldy body of knowledge into a concise yet comprehensive reference work This two volume handbook will provide direction and momentum to the study of death related behavior for many years to come Key Features More than 100 contributors representing authoritative expertise in a diverse array of disciplines Anthropology Family Studies History Law Medicine Mortuary Science Philosophy Psychology Social work Sociology Theology A distinguished editorial board of leading scholars and researchers in the field More than 100 definitive essays covering almost every dimension of death related behavior Comprehensive and inclusive exploring concepts and social patterns within the larger topical concern Journal article length essays that address topics with appropriate detail Multidisciplinary and cross cultural coverage A Special Scar Alison Wertheimer, 2001 Designed to appeal to a wide general as well as a professional readership this work looks at the stigma surrounding suicide and offers practical help for survivors relatives and friends of people who have taken their own life Therapeutic and Legal Issues for Therapists Who Have Survived a Client Suicide Kayla Weiner, 2014-06-03 The death of a patient is every therapist s worst nightmare Even more frightening is the debilitating silence that surrounds a therapist after the death of a client What do you do How do you proceed with your personal and professional life Until now advice on surviving a patient s suicide has been scarce This book examines this much overlooked topic to help you continue to live and practice confidently The authors of this courageous book mix first person narratives with professional strategies to help therapists deal with the emotional and legal consequences that follow the loss of a client Therapeutic and Legal Issues for Therapists Who Have Survived a Client Suicide provides you with models of coping strategies for clinicians after a client completes a suicide an examination of factors that compound the trauma for the therapist survivor examples for dealing with a client s family suggestions for developing curricula for training institutions recommendations for supervisory guidelines explanations of and means of mitigating legal liability This practical book describes various ways of dealing with clinician and supervisory responsibilities after a client s self inflicted death It will show you how to minimize the legal risks of working with suicidal clients and help you regain your sense of professional competence if a suicide occurs New methods of screening and treatment assistance are offered With about 30 000 suicides occurring the the United States annually and many of those people in treatment at or near the time they commit suicide thousands of clinicians face this trauma yearly The clear specific therapeutic and legal guidelines you ll find in the book as well as the philosophical discussions make it a vital read for therapists counselors social workers nurses supervisors and educators in mental health training institutions Counselling for Grief and Bereavement Geraldine M Humphrey,David G Zimpfer,2007-12-18 The authors have done their homework in reading and consulting with the prominent literature especially regarding children All this effort gives the book a solid background foundation and makes it readable and well usable for both lay counsellors and professional providers and for all of us who are engaged in the delicate and rewarding endeavor of Grief Therapy Naji Abi Hashem Clinical Cultural Psychologist Berkeley California Praise for the First Edition The book provides an absorbing and challenging journey through the possible process involved in bereavement work and encourages one to think broadly about how one can approach a bereaved person this was a book I enjoyed reading very much and which I found both theoretically sound and practically helpful Bereavement Care Cruse Counselling for Grief and Bereavement Second Edition is a bestselling introductory guide for professionals who work with people experiencing bereavement through death and other forms of loss Focusing on practical assessment and intervention strategies Geraldine Humphrey and David Zimpfer guide readers through the essential theory and skills needed to work with clients in a way which sensitively facilitates the process of grief initiates healing and promotes a sense of growth Setting out the broad principles for practice the authors go on to show how these can be applied in working with individuals families and groups and in relation to specific issues including chronic and life threatening illnesses palliative care and complicated grief Carefully chosen case examples illustrate the counselling process while specific attention is paid throughout to ethical considerations and the possible need for referral This fully revised and updated Second Edition features a new chapter on working with children and adolescents both from the perspective of young people who are grieving losses and those who are receiving palliative care as patients While focusing on the practical the book provides a firm theoretical base by explaining key concepts such as attachment grief and resilience Geraldine M Humphrey is Counsellor in the Department of Psychology at the North Canton Medical Foundation specializing in death illnesses and non death and grief David G Zimpfer is former Director of the Cancer Center of Ohio No Time to Say Goodbye Carla Fine,2011-05-11 Suicide would appear to be the last taboo Even incest is now discussed freely in popular media but the suicide of a loved one is still an act most people are unable to talk about or even admit to their closest family or friends This is just one of the many painful and paralyzing truths author Carla Fine discovered when her husband a successful young physician took his own life in December 1989 And being unable to speak openly and honestly about the cause of her pain made it all the more difficult for her to survive With No Time to Say Goodbye she brings suicide survival from the darkness into light speaking frankly about the overwhelming feelings of confusion guilt shame anger and loneliness that are shared by all survivors Fine draws on her own experience and on conversations with many other survivors as well as on the knowledge of counselors and mental health professionals She offers a strong helping hand and invaluable guidance to the vast numbers of family and friends who are left behind by the more than thirty thousand people who commit suicide each year struggling to make sense of an act that seems to them senseless and to pick up the pieces of their own shattered lives And perhaps most important for the first time in any book she allows survivors to see that they are not alone in their feelings of grief and despair Living, Dying, Grieving Dixie Dennis,2009 Taking a life education approach this resource offers helpful tips and techniques for mastering a fear of death suggests helpful ideas for taking care of the business of dying and encourages students to live longer by adding excitement into their lives Program Perspectives on Suicide Prevention ,1991 Death, Dying, and Bereavement Judith M. Stillion,Thomas Attig, PhD,2014-11-07 Print CourseSmart Comprehensive Textbook of Suicidology Alan Lee Berman,Morton M. Silverman,Bruce Michael Bongar,2000-08-10 Multidisciplinary and comprehensive in scope this volume serves as an authoritative overview of scientific knowledge about suicide and its prevention providing a foundation in theory research and clinical applications Issues relevant to clinical case management are highlighted and various treatment modalities are discussed in light of the latest research findings Personal Care in an Impersonal World John Morgan,2020-11-25 The purpose of this volume is to ask and propose a positive answer to the question Can we attend to the personhood of individuals within systems and cultures which are mass oriented One of the most interesting changes in contemporary thinking has been the emphasis on the unique person While the distinction between a person a unique rational being and individual one of several similar things has long existed it is in the twentieth century that we seem to have become fully conscious of this distinction There is good reason for such as emphasis today Repeatedly in this century the case of the person was deemed less important than some policy Innocent persons slaughtered in the name of some ism political bombings and kidnappings and mass unemployment to name but a few The cause of our dehumanization seems to be the reduction of the individual person to a part of the political economic or religious system Counseling Addicted Families Gerald A. Juhnke,W. Bryce Hagedorn,2013-08-16 In Counseling Addicted Families Gerald A Juhnke and William Bryce Hagedorn recognize that even those treatment providers who understand the importance of the familial context of addiction are often stymied by the variety of family treatment theories and their often imperfect fit for cases of addiction In this book Juhnke and Hagedorn provide a truly integrated model for assessment and treatment Based upon the authors combined twenty three years of experience in clinical and treatment supervision the Integrated Family Addictions Model consists of six progressive treatment tiers which organize the relevant family treatment theories into a graduated and coherent sequence beginning with the briefest and least costly forms of therapy Reducing the Toll of Suicide Diego De Leo,Vita Poštuvan,2019-10-15 The carefully selected chapters in this volume provide food for thought to practitioners researchers students and all those who come into contact with the tragedy of suicide with the hope of stimulating new ideas and interventions in the difficult fight against suicidal behaviours This is the second book based on the Intuition Imagination and

Innovation TRIPLE i in Suicidology international conferences which are organised annually by the Slovene Center for Suicide Research in memory of the late Prof Andrej Maru ic with the aim of promoting intuition imagination and innovation in the research and prevention of suicide and suicidal behaviour In five parts the internationally renowned team of authors summarises the research looking at Understanding individuals assessing risk in older adults and psychotherapy with suicidal patients Understanding the groups at risk of suicide including youth people in prison men and people with mood disorders Understanding the role of community including the Papageno effect technology based and collaborative approaches to prevention as well as bereavement Models of understanding suicide including the integrated motivational volitional model of suicidal behaviour and the hot air balloon model of risk factors for suicide and Understanding the unique ethical and methodological issues associated with research in this field

Treating Traumatized Children Beverly James,1989
Listening to a small child describe a parent s murder can tax the most seasoned professional Cases of physical and sexual abuse where trauma was deliberately inflicted can particularly challenge a practitioner s defenses Treating Traumatized Children is the first handbook to provide specific guidance and tools for treating children who have been traumatized by physical and sexual abuse disaster divorce or witnessing violent events This book will provide helping professionals with a clear blueprint for assessing the impact of trauma and developing specific treatment plans Beverly James a specialist in evaluating and treating traumatized children outlines creative exercises and techniques that will enable clinicians to join with children in slowly and carefully reviewing their experiences and helping them understand and accept their feelings related to the trauma Art play and drama techniques among others are presented in a sophisticated yet straightforward style useful to clinicians with specialized training in such techniques or those using them for the first time

Suicide Science Thomas Joiner,M. David Rudd,2007-05-08 Suicide kills and maims victims traumatizes loved ones preoccupies clinicians and costs health care and emergency agencies fortunes It should therefore demand a wealth of theoretical scientific and fiduciary attention But in many ways it has Why Although the answer to this question is multi faceted this volume not supposes that one answer to the question is a lack of elaborated and penetrating theoretical approaches The authors of this volume were challenged to apply their considerable theoretical wherewithal to this state of affairs They have risen to this challenge admirably in that several ambitious ideas are presented and developed If ever a phenomenon should inspire humility it is suicide and the volume s authors realize this Although several far reaching views are proposed they are pitched as first approximations with the primary goal of stimulating still more conceptual and empirical work A pressing issue in suicide science is the topic of clinical interventions and clinical approaches more generally Here too this volume contributes covering such topics as therapeutics and prevention comorbidity special populations and clinical risk factors
