sixties about a boy's emotional and fantastical journey through alien worlds and family pain. Against the backdrop of the troubled 1960s, this coming of age novel weaves together a compelling psychological drama and vivid outer space fantasy. Danny Shapiro is an isolated teenager living with a dying mother and a hostile father and without friends. To cope with these circumstances, Danny forges a reality of his own which includes the sinister Three Men in Black, mysterious lake creatures with insectlike carapaces, a beautiful young seductress and thief with whom Danny falls in love, and an alien human love child who, if only Danny can keep her alive, will redeem the planet. Danny's fictional world blends so seamlessly with his day to day life that profound questions about what is real and what is not, what is possible and what is imagined, begin to arise. As the hero in his alien landscape, he finds the strength to deal with his own life and to stand up to demons both real and imagined. Told with heart and intellect, Journal of a UFO Investigator will remind readers of the works of Michael Chabon and Jonathan Lethem.

Just Imagine James Carter, 2013-08-21. First published in 2002, Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis, an informal company.

Talking Books James Carter, 2013-01-11. Talking Books sets out to show how some of the leading children's authors of the day respond to these and other similar questions. The authors featured are Neil Ardley, Ian Beck, Helen Cresswell, Gillian Cross, Terry Deary, Berlie Doherty, Alan Durant, Brian Moses, Philip Pullman, Celia Rees, Norman Silver, Jacqueline Wilson, and Benjamin Zephaniah. They discuss with great enthusiasm their childhood reading habits, how they came to be published, how they write on a daily basis, how a particular book came together, a type of writing that they are especially known for. Through in-depth interviews, they each reveal their approach to their craft. Much is known and spoken of the product, that is the children's book, but it is rare that writers are given the opportunity to talk at length about the process of writing for children. Talking Books redresses the balance by presenting a wide selection of authors of fiction, non-fiction, and poetry reflecting upon the joys and challenges of the craft, creativity, and process of writing for children.
