Fear Itself Christopher D. Bader, Joseph O. Baker, L. Edward Day, Ann Gordon, 2020-03-03 An antidote to the culture of fear that dominates modern life From moral panics about immigration and gun control to anxiety about terrorism and natural disasters Americans live in a culture of fear While fear is typically discussed in emotional or poetic terms as the opposite of courage or as an obstacle to be overcome it nevertheless has very real consequences in everyday life Persistent fear negatively affects individuals decision making abilities and causes anxiety depression and poor physical health Further fear harms communities and society by corroding social trust and civic engagement Yet politicians often effectively leverage fears to garner votes and companies routinely

Globalizing Collateral Language Somdeep Sen, John Collins, 2021-09-01 Language is never just a means of communication It terrorizes And especially in times of war it has the ability to target civilians and generate fear as a means of producing specific political outcomes most notably the passive and active acceptance of state violence itself For this reason the critical examination of language must be a central part of any effort to fight imperialism militarism demagoguery racism sexism and other structures of injustice Globalizing Collateral Language examines the discourse surrounding 9/11 and its entrenchment in global politics and culture To interrogate this wartime lexicon of collateral language editors John Collins and Somdeep Sen have assembled a volume of critical essays that explores the long shadow of America's War on Terror discourse They illuminate how this language has now found resonance across the globe and in political projects that have little to do with the War on Terror Two decades after the attacks of September 11 2001 this book calls on us to resist the tyranny of collateral language at a time when the need for such interventions in the public sphere is more urgent than ever

The Stairway to Consciousness Dr. Thomas Stark, Come and discover the extraordinary story of how consciousness is born from the unconscious This is the story of existence This is the story of the meaning of life the universe and everything Everything conscious has the unconscious for a mother To exist is to live to have a mind and to think As we see in our dreams thinking can produce outer worlds which we imagine are external to us but are just our own constructs We are all part of a living cosmic organism seeking to optimize itself to perfect itself The Cosmic Mind produces a Cosmic World in which Mind can contend with its own construct and come to consciousness via all the problems and struggles it encounters there We are alienated from the world because we fail to understand that we unconsciously created it Only consciousness can reveal the truth that everything is made by us that we have total control over it if we put our mind to it Minds and their thoughts are all that exist There is nothing else
