Framed as an anthropologist's report on the Kesh survivors of ecological catastrophe living in a future Napa Valley, Always Coming Home (1985) is an utterly original tapestry of history and myth, fable and poetry, story telling and song. Prepared in close consultation with the author, this expanded edition features new material added just before her death, including for the first time two missing chapters of the Kesh novel Dangerous People. The volume concludes with a selection of Le Guin's essays about the novel's genesis and larger aims, a note on its editorial and publication history, and an updated chronology of Le Guin's life and career.

Inter- and Transcultural Learning in the Context of Canadian Young Adult Fiction Grit Alter, 2015

Within the past few years, transcultural learning has become one of the key terms in TEFL theory. Central concerns in current research include differentiating between inter- and transcultural learning, navigating processes of understanding otherness, and assessing cultural competences. Using these aspects, this study investigates texts recommended for cultural learning and key components of implementing literature in ELT. The results call for a more holistic perception of alterity and argue in favour of transcultural literature as a basis for transcultural learning. All of this dissertation is in English.
