Pale and Other Postmodern Bulgarian Stories Zdravka Evtimova,2010-03-15 Pale and Other Postmodern Bulgarian Stories is profoundly moving revealing with fine touches the sentiments and impressions which are a priori little palpable the flow of time and its influence on strong and rough characters sex lies loss of illusions the transmission of essential values from generation to generation disloyalty both to one s country and to one s family love of mother for son sacrifice betrayal as opposed to unity and love in the family and community loyalty to a cause forcing man to live on and survive despite vicissitudes of life the supreme mystery of death and the strength to go on living being human in spite of evil Above all the book is all pervasive showing the power of music A bitter sweet book terribly funny at places and deeply sad at others Two of the shorts stories have attracted the attention of the film makers in Bulgaria Blood of a Mole and Vassil and another story The Twins has been transformed into a successful theatrical piece
