Summerhill School A. S. Neill, 1995-09-15 Originally published in 1960 Summerhill became an instant bestseller and a classic volume of education for an entire generation. Now this thoroughly expanded and revised version of the original Summerhill reinstates the revolutionary free school traditions begun by Summerhill's founder A. S. Neill. As American education lags behind the rest of the world, this new edition is more timely than ever. The children of today face struggles far greater than any previous generation and we as parents and teachers must teach them now to make choices for themselves and to learn from the outcome of their decisions. This classic work yet again invites a new view of childhood and presents an essential treatise that challenges us to rethink our approach to education.

Searching for the Ideal School around the World Alys Mendus, 2021-12-13 Through this book, the author shares the nomadology of Alys as she searches for the Ideal School. Fed up with the System, traditional mainstream education directed by neoliberalism and high stakes testing, Alys travelled to over 180 places of learning, schools in 23 countries that were educating differently. Through performative autoethnography, we the author shares these embodied experiences in poems, vignettes, journaling and ethnodrama. Alys realised that the Ideal School is an oxymoron and she argues that schools and schooling, even within innovative education, are not the future for learning. By developing the edge of education and sharing stories from the gems that currently exist in places of learning, schools, there is the potentiality and hope for a paradigm shift. The book encourages everyone to become School Tourists themselves. Performing School Tourism is a mediation between creativity, arts, learning and teaching, leading to change as it helps shape the identity of those performing School Tourism and allows them to add these new experiences and understandings of the possibilities for education to the Earth, we the collective consciousness of the world. Read this book to follow Alys' journey as they share stories and trouble different innovative pedagogies, including Steiner, Waldorf, Progressive, Democratic and Montessori. The reader can choose their own adventure following the rhizomatic, multiple voices of Alys.

Reclaiming Freedom in Education Max A. Hope, 2018-11-02 Reclaiming Freedom in Education examines the notion of freedom within educational settings Following an investigation of the new Free Schools in the UK it argues that this name is a misnomer and instead explores the original free schools of the 1960s and 1970s using these models as a lens through which to explore contemporary examples of radical schooling notably those which describe themselves as democratic and or progressive By arguing that in radical educational contexts both positive freedom and negative freedom are apparent and that the notion that responsible freedom is more pertinent than that of absolute freedom this book posits that freedom can be seen to operate in a number of ways including freedom to be freedom to think freedom to choose and freedom to self govern The book Describes how freedom can be used to inform educational structures policies pedagogies and practices across a range of settings Features illustrative case studies of radical free schools and alternative education spaces which have been underpinned by a commitment to freedom and to advancing social justice Critiques the current policy agenda to use freedom to make education more competitive through claims that it correlates with higher test scores and academic success Considers some of the challenges for teachers educators and students of offering and experiencing freedom in education and argues that despite these the case for advancing freedom is both urgent and compelling Creating discussions about the new meaning and role that freedom can have in improving education Reclaiming Freedom in Education is a practical contribution to educational activism which will be a key point of reference for teachers parents researchers and students on undergraduate and postgraduate courses in Education Studies Early Childhood Studies and doctorates
