skiing history Published by the International Skiing History Association its contents support ISHA's mission to preserve skiing history and to increase awareness of the sport's heritage The Medicine of Memory Alejandro Murguía, 2010-01-01

An American Book Award winner's creative memoir traces his own family's history as well as the long story of Hispanics in America Spirited writing Library Journal People who live in California deny the past asserts Alejandro Murguía In a state where what matters is keeping up with the current trends fads or latest computer gizmo no one has the time energy or desire to reflect on what happened last week much less what happened ten years ago or a hundred From this oblivion of memory he continues comes a false sense of history a deluded belief that the way things are now is the way they have always been In this work of creative nonfiction Murguía draws on memories his own and his family's reaching back to the eighteenth century to re construct the forgotten Chicano indigenous history of California He tells the story through significant moments in California history including the birth of the mestizo in Mexico destruction of Indian lifeways under the mission system violence toward Mexicanos during the Gold Rush Chicano farm life in the early twentieth century the Chicano Movement of the 1960s Chicano Latino activism in San Francisco in the 1970s and the current rebirth of Chicano Indio culture Rejecting the notion that history is always written by the victors and refusing to be one of the vanquished he records and draws us into his own California history

Mountains of Memories and Myths Naomi Bryson, 2014-09-15 Where did you come from How did you get here These questions came from people who had not seen black skiers before Black people cant endure cold temperatures is a myth that has been held by Caucasians and some black people Black skiers enjoy gliding sliding and riding on the cold and snowy mountains The myths that black people dont ski and that black people are too lazy to learn will be dispelled There are countless stories of their experiences on the snowy mountains their volunteer services networking finding love and the friendships over the years

Growing Up in Burbank: Boomer Memories from The Akron to Zody's Wesley H. Clark and Michael B. McDaniel, 2017-11-27 Life in Burbank during the 60s and 70s was an unparalleled experience From biking Lucky Busters trail to enjoying movies at the Cornell Theater and shopping at The Akron Burbankers choices of entertainment seemed endless Relive fond memories of dining out at Genio's the Dip or Santoro's Recall visits to the Golden Mall before heading home to watch Dark Shadows on television While some of the local icons may have changed the spirit has remained the same and it's waiting to be rediscovered Authors Wes Clark and Mike McDaniel guide you through their hometown and remember the fads the hijinks and the places that made Burbank the place it is today

The History of Big Safari Colonel Bill Grimes, USAF Retired, 2014 For more than half a century Big Safari modified aircraft have performed dangerous and essential missions to collect intelligence conduct surveillance and reconnaissance and engage in special operations missions around the globe in the interest of national security These state of the art aircraft have been flown operated and maintained by men and women whose dedication and commitment have made the world a safer place In The History of Big Safari author Colonel Bill Grimes a retired US Air Force officer presents a history of this program which has been in existence for more than sixty years Born as a special acquisition program in 1952 Big Safari has been in a unique position to save lives by rapidly fielding essential systems with a quick reaction capability to ensure decision makers on the battlefield and at the Pentagon have timely intelligence to plan and execute operations Grimes shows how without a special acquisition program such as Big Safari the nation's ability to react to evolving dangers and threats would be mired in bureaucracy when timely responses are critical With detailed cutaway illustrations revealing aircraft modifications and mission equipment The History of Big Safari also includes photographs sidebars and anecdotes It goes behind the scenes with the men and women who participated in the challenging projects and daring missions It shares the development of cutting edge technology and special mission aircraft as well as the global events that necessitated these once classified programs Finally it provides insight into long veiled projects operations and missions that comprise the world under the purview of Big Safari How Majestic Is Your Word: Scripture Memory Songs for Children Charles Matthews, Stacey Matthews, 2013-08-18 The verses of Psalm 119 1 Thessalonians 5 15 and Ephesians 6 1 4 set to music Memory Wall Anthony Doerr, 2010-07-13 In the wise and beautiful second collection from the acclaimed Pulitzer Prize winning 1 New York Times bestselling author of All the Light We Cannot See and Cloud Cuckoo Land Doerr writes about the big questions the imponderables the major metaphysical dreads and he does it fearlessly The New York Times Book Review Set on four continents Anthony Doerr's new stories are about memory the source of meaning and coherence in our lives the fragile thread that connects us to ourselves and to others Every hour says Doerr all over the globe an infinite number of memories disappear Yet at the same time children surveying territory that is entirely new to them push back the darkness form fresh memories and remake the world In the luminous and beautiful title story a young boy in South Africa comes to possess an old woman's secret a piece of the past with the power to redeem a life In The River Nemunas a teenage orphan moves from Kansas to Lithuania to live with her grandfather and discovers a world in which myth becomes real Village 113 winner of an O Henry Prize is about the building of the Three Gorges Dam and the seed keeper who guards the history of a village soon to be submerged And in Afterworld the radiant cathartic final story a woman who escaped the Holocaust is haunted by visions of her childhood friends in Germany yet finds solace in the tender ministrations of her grandson Every story in Memory Wall is a reminder of the grandeur of life of the mysterious beauty of seeds of fossils of sturgeon of clouds of radios of leaves of the breathtaking fortune of living in this universe Doerr's language his witness his imagination and his humanity are unparalleled in fiction today Mississippi Westley F. Fox, 1999 Road trips to Las Vegas are the occasion for this entertaining meditation on the quintessentially American experience of driving across the desert William Fox successively exiled from California Nevada and New Mexico has spent more time than most of us driving to Las Vegas and he has taken notes on three recent trips his own way of bringing cohesion to the vast and mind numbing aspects of the freeway Approaching the most postmodern city on the planet from three directions he examines the landscape and what we do to it while also trying to figure out who he is what that means and the nature of the transformations of land into landscape through art and architecture landscape design and advertising Fox's history of the region both natural and cultural highlights the creep of the urban supergrid across the most extensively traveled desert in the world This is a profoundly personal even idiosyncratic book about the most public of subjects living in the postmodern West at the end of the millennium and what the cities the freeways the open spaces and the billboards tell us about ourselves The Politics of Public Memory Martha K.

Norkunas,1993-01-01 This book examines American public culture and the means by which communities in the U S reconstruct the past and reinterpret the present in the development of tourism Norkunas shows how public culture is not confined to just museums or monuments but can be constructed on many different levels and in different settings such as community ethnicity natural setting environment literary landscape and history In her case study of Monterey the author explores the particular ideologies that prompt the community to represent itself in tourism and that also act to legitimate the current social structure Mountains Of Memory Don Scheese,2001-11 In Mountains of Memory seasoned wilderness dweller Don Scheese charts a long season of watching for and fighting fires in Idaho's River of No Return Wilderness 151the largest federal wilderness area in the mainland United States An inspiring tale of self discovery Mountains of Memory paints a complex portrait of the natural institutional and historical forces that have shaped the great forested landscapes of the American West A student of nature writing as well as a fire lookout with over a decade of experience Scheese recounts his life at the top of the world along with daring adventures such as backpacking and mountaineering in the Bighorn Crags and kayaking down the Middle Fork of the Salmon River All the while he touches upon the mysterious and powerful realities of the wilderness around him and stunning dawns visible within the glass cage perched on a 9 000 foot mountain stirring flashes of lightning visible all around the dark landscape as the radio crackles with reports of strikes observed and fires spotted long awaited trips down the mountain to civilization for cold beer and hot pizza In the tradition of Edward Abbey and Gary Snyder Don Scheese offers readers a meditation on the meaning and value of wilderness at the beginning of the twenty first century A Disposition to Be Rich Geoffrey C. Ward,2013-04-23 A New York Times Notable Book The compelling behind the scenes story of the greatest swindler of the Gilded Age whose villainy bankrupted Ulysses S Grant and stunned the world of finance told by his great grandson award winning historian Geoffrey C Ward Ferdinand Ward the son of a Protestant missionary and small town pastor moved to New York at twenty one and in less than a decade made himself the business partner of a former president and established himself as the Young Napoleon of Finance In truth he was running a massive pyramid scheme Drawing from thousands of family documents never before examined Geoffrey C Ward traces his great grandfather's rapid rise to riches and fame and his even more dizzying fall from grace in a narrative populated with mistresses crooked bankers corrupt New York officials and a desperate kidnapping scheme Here is a great story about a classic American con artist Journal of the Senate, Legislature of the State of California California. Legislature.

Senate,1942 Mystic Chords of Memory Michael Kammen,2011-08-17 Mystic Chords of Memory Illustrated with hundreds of well chosen anecdotes and minute observations Kammen is a demon researcher who seems to have mined his nuggets from the entire corpus of American cultural history insightful and sardonic Washington Post Book World In this ground breaking panoramic work of American cultural history the Pulitzer Prize winning author of A Machine That Would Go of Itself examines a central paradox of our national identity How did the land of the future acquire a past And to what extent has our collective memory of that past as embodied in our traditions have been distorted or even manufactured Ranging from John Adams to Ronald Reagan from the origins of Independence Day celebrations to the controversies surrounding the Vietnam War Memorial from the Daughters of the American Revolution to immigrant associations and filled with incisive analyses of such phenonema as Americana and its collectors historic villages and Disneyland Mystic Chords of Memory is a brilliant immensely readable and enormously important book Fascinating a subtle and teeming narrative masterly Time This is a big ambitious book and Kammen pulls it off admirably He brings a prodigious mind and much scholarly rigor to his task an importnat book and a revealing look at how Americans look at themselves Milwaukee Journal Memory Battles of the Spanish Civil War Sebastiaan Faber, 2021-04-30 The ability to forget the violent twentieth century past was long seen as a virtue in Spain even a duty But the common wisdom has shifted as increasing numbers of Spaniards want to know what happened who suffered and who is to blame Memory Battles of the Spanish Civil War shows how historiography fiction and photography have shaped our views of the 1936 39 war and its long painful aftermath Faber traces the curious trajectories of iconic Spanish Civil War photographs by Robert Capa Gerda Taro and David Seymour critically reads a dozen recent Spanish novels and essays interrogates basic scholarly assumptions about history memory and literature and interviews nine scholars activists and documentarians who in the past decade and a half have helped redefine Spain s relationship to its past In this book Faber argues that recent political developments in Spain from the grassroots call for the recovery of historical memory to the indignados movement and the foundation of Podemos provide an opportunity for scholars in the humanities to engage in a more activist public and democratic practice
