How Artists See: The Weather Colleen Carroll, 1996-08-01

Abbeville Kids expands its award winning series of interactive inquiry based books designed to teach children about the world by looking at art and about art by looking at the world In How Artists See The Weather children can see how Vincent van Gogh used bright patches of paint to show the hot sun rising over a field how Vasily Kandinsky blended many colors to evoke a rain drenched landscape how Edouard Manets vigorous lines create wind filled sails and how Paul Signac used tiny dots of paint to capture the aura of a city street blanketed with snow Each volume in the How Artists See series presents sixteen diverse works of art all devoted to a subject that every child already knows from personal experience Author Colleen Carroll s engaging conversational text is filled with thought provoking questions and imaginative activities that spark children s natural curiosity both about the subject of the artwork they are looking at and about the way it was created This direct interactive approach to art and to the world promotes self exploration self discovery and self expression As it introduces basic artistic concepts styles and techniques it also provides loads of fun For children who want to know more about the artists whose works appear in the book biographies are provided at the end along with suggestions for further reading and an international list of museums where each artists works can be seen As they begin to understand the multitude of ways that artists see children will deepen their appreciation of art the world around them and most importantly their own unique visions
