Reality George Tkachyk,2013-04-03 Michael Tkaczyk was one of thousands of immigrants who came to Canada from a region that is today known as Ukraine Ukraine s size and borders have changed many times over the centuries due to social and political changes in Eastern Europe Historically the people who emigrated to Canada from Western Ukraine were of Ukrainian origin but their country of origin was recorded differently at different times due to political borders changing or occupation by foreign military powers The ships logs personal passports and immigration documentation often listed

Ukrainians country of origin as Galicia Ruthenia Bukovina Romania Austria Poland or Russia Michael s reason for coming to Canada was basically the same as everyone else s from that region He wanted to make a better life for himself and his family The reasons for leaving however were as varied as the people themselves They left their homeland for any or all of the following for personal reasons to escape oppression by military powers to gain the basic freedoms as we know them in North America for economic reasons to escape a static entrenched and unforgiving socio political system such as feudalism to escape brutal and corrupt political systems such as communism or simply for the sense of adventure

We Gambled Everything Arne Nielsen,2012-11-07 We gambled everything our careers our fortunes the future of our nation and every day brought new discoveries It was like living on a frontier Arne Nielsen The memoir of Canadian petroleum industry leader Arne Nielsen is not a conventional business biography During his six decades in the business he witnessed critical events in the oil industry that influenced Canada s economic history From rain soaked tents on the Arctic barren land to the luxurious New York offices of a multinational oil company Arne Nielsen s expansive knowledge of geology and the oil industry made him one of the most influential and well known figures of his time His memoir provides crucial details and unique perspectives on events that will be of interest to the next generation of oil industry executives as well as to consumers economists and ecologists Foreword by Peter C Newman

Jeffery Trees,2017-08-04 The central theme of this book is how to identify and deal with the realities of incest Most of the time incest victims have a great deal of emotional physical and sexual pain Too many times it literally takes years and years for a child to work through all the tormenting and too many times all they can do is subdue it which makes them deal with it in their thirties and forties It has a way of compounding all relationships especially in marriages and parenthood For the victim it is frightening and extremely painful as memories keep rushing in For them there are self help books but for the families of victims they are victimized by the abusers of the victims It just becomes a horrifying adventure of not knowing what is going to happen next Confusion and instability keep everything within a family structure to go into chaos especially between spouses There are so very few books for the families of victims and especially any that deal with Christianity or other religions that have special moral expectations By no means is anyone ever beyond God s understanding and love but each person has to deal with these issues for themselves We are not to judge or demand how anyone else deals with their relationships with God The problem is everyone in the family feels too much responsibility guilt and anger The anger is the hardest thing to deal with because it reaches out to others and inward toward oneself Each chapter deals with different issues and how everyone is affected by everything that goes on and that includes both good and bad decisions My hope is each person learns how to love themselves and everyone else in the healthiest and best ways The main problem has to be dealt with by the victim or everyone in the family automatically becomes a victim as well I wish everyone to gain some form of understanding and appropriate ways to love the victims of incest Not all times do things always work out the way we would like and so each of us has to take responsibility for ourselves Each person has to know themselves and learn to love no matter what happens

Looking for Country Ellenor Ranghild Merriken,1999 Looking for Country refers to the thought process of animals bent on escape This memoir documents the experiences of a young woman growing up as a pioneer in Alberta Although for many people immigration brought great sadness Ellenor loved Alberta and took tremendous pride in the years spent there
