Suzy Tutchell

Teaching Art To Young Children 4 9:

Teaching Art to Young Children 4-9 Rob Barnes, 2002-11 This second edition of a classic and popular book includes new chapters figures and colour plates The book blends practical ideas with sound principles of art education For the teacher or trainee teacher looking for ideas there are plenty of tested classroom examples For those looking for firm principles of art teaching and best practice this book presents many important issues in art education with clarity and insight Based on first hand experience of teaching children the book uses many examples from the school situation Essential topics such as developing skills through using media how children draw producing original artwork developing ideas and Art and the digital image are tackled with realism and imagination An important feature is that these subjects are not seen in isolation but are purposefully linked with other areas of the curriculum The author s approach should encourage teachers to develop and think about art in the National Curriculum His writing shows a deep sympathy with children and sensitivity to the real task of teaching art to the young

Understanding Art in Primary Schools Les Tickle, 2014-01-14 Even the youngest children in primary schools are now required not only to make art but also to study it developing an understanding of the huge variety of art and craft from different times and places But how do teachers actually tackle this when most have not studied art themselves This collection brings together case studies to show how a variety of teachers have used one particular art collection as a focus for practical art Throughout the voices of the children involved show us how they react to their encounters with art objects This wealth of first hand evidence and practical experience will benefit all teachers

Primary Arts Education David Holt, 2013-10-28 Primary arts art music dance and drama is gaining recognition as a subject and support in the value it offers primary children This text examines the problems and opportunities faced by educators resulting from recent educational reforms and the implementation of the National Curriculum

Teaching Primary Art Jean Edwards, 2014-06-03 Teaching Primary Art is an introductory textbook for those training to teach and support learning in art in the primary school The book first explores the underpinning philosophy and pedagogy of teaching and learning art including why we teach it planning and assessment and teaching and support strategies Then it covers the practical aspects of teaching art including a list of useful vocabulary to encourage talk around art and links to cross curricular learning

Young Children as Artists Suzy Tutchell, 2014-04-29 From the moment a child is born they interact with the sensory world looking at colours feeling textures constructing mental and physical images of what they see and experience Within all early years settings and into primary school the aim for the practitioner is to provide as many opportunities as possible to stimulate excite and ignite the visual and tactile imagination of the young children they teach Young Children as Artists considers how art can be managed understood and relished as an essential ingredient towards the creative potential of each unique young child The book focuses on how to enjoy celebrate and extend what a young child can do in art and show how engaged adults and the wider school community can become confident participants in the process of early years art making

Full of practical advice on to how to design develop resource and extend art and design environments within the early years setting the book covers Developing skills for positive and participative adult interaction and engagement Understanding and analysing child involvement in art Planning for opportunities and responding to observation and schema in art and design Practical suggestions for activities and resources inside and out Ideas to explore sensory development and awareness Ways to manage and savour the art transition into KS1 Ways to encourage parental participation and understanding of the art process with their children Opportunities to engage with practising artists This book will help to invigorate the art experiences offered in your early years setting by considering what is accessible individual inspiring and meaningful for young children and how you can best support their formative paths of enquiry Substitute Teaching Basics Evelyn Mercer Ward, Art in the Early Years Kristen Ali Eglinton,2003-12-16 This book is a complete art education resource for all involved in early years art education Teachers trainee teachers or nursery teachers who wish to implement a more holistic art curriculum in the classroom whilst meeting all the required Art for All - II Melanie Peter,2018-10-16 Originally published in 1996 Art for All is aimed at the non specialist teacher of art and offers a practical approach for working with pupils with wide ranging learning needs It presents a developmental framework for art in the light of National Curriculum requirements with strategies for structuring and supporting appropriate art activity It is presented in two volumes with colour illustrations The Framework which describes the principles of art education in relation to pupils learning difficulties and The Practice which deals with the specifics of delivering these principles in the classroom Whilst they stand as independent texts they are intended to be used together Art for All will be of interest to all those working in this and related fields in mainstream as well as special education Art for All - I Melanie Peter,2018-10-16 Originally published in 1996 Art for All is aimed at the non specialist teacher of art and offers a practical approach for working with pupils with wide ranging learning needs It presents a developmental framework for art in the light of National Curriculum requirements with strategies for structuring and supporting appropriate art activity It is presented in two volumes with colour illustrations The Framework which describes the principles of art education in relation to pupils learning difficulties and The Practice which deals with the specifics of delivering these principles in the classroom Whilst they stand as independent texts they are intended to be used together Art for All will be of interest to all those working in this and related fields in mainstream as well as special education Scottish Education T.
