A Cultural History of Women in the Middle Ages Kim M. Phillips, 2015-04-02 The medieval era has been described as the Age of Chivalry and the Age of Faith but also as the Dark Ages Medieval women have often been viewed as subject to a punishing misogyny which limited their legal rights and economic activities but some scholars have claimed they enjoyed a rough and ready equality with men The contrasting figures of Eve and the Virgin Mary loom over historians' interpretations of the period 1000-1500 Yet a wealth of recent historiography goes behind these conventional motifs showing how medieval women's lives were shaped by status age life stage geography and religion as well as by gender A Cultural History of Women in the Middle Ages presents essays on medieval women's life cycle bodies and sexuality religion and popular beliefs medicine and disease public and private realms education and work power and artistic representation to illustrate the diversity of medieval women's lives and constructions of femininity

Urban Space in the Middle Ages and the Early Modern Age Albrecht Classen,2009-12-15 Although the city as a central entity did not simply disappear with the Fall of the Roman Empire the development of urban space at least since the twelfth century played a major role in the history of medieval and early modern mentality within a social economic and religious framework Whereas some poets projected urban space as a new utopia others simply reflected the new significance of the urban environment as a stage where their characters operate very successfully As today the premodern city was the locus where different social groups and classes got together sometimes peacefully sometimes in hostile terms The historical development of the relationship between Christians and Jews for instance was deeply determined by the living conditions within a city By the late Middle Ages nobility and bourgeoisie began to intermingle within the urban space which set the stage for dramatic and far reaching changes in the social and economic make up of society Legal historical aspects also find as much consideration as practical questions concerning water supply and sewer systems Moreover the early modern city within the Ottoman and Middle Eastern world likewise finds consideration Finally as some contributors observe the urban space provided considerable opportunities for women to carve out a niche for themselves in economic terms Authority

Inquisition and Knowledge, 1200-1700 Peter Biller, L. J. Sackville, 2022 Essays considering how information could be used and abused in the service of heresy and inquisition The collection curation and manipulation of knowledge were fundamental to the operation of inquisition Its coercive power rested on its ability to control information and to produce authoritative discourses from it a fact not lost on contemporaries or on later commentators Understanding that relationship between inquisition and knowledge has been one of the principal drivers of its long historiography Inquisitors and their historians have always been preoccupied with the process by which information was gathered and recirculated as knowledge The tenor of that question has changed over time but we are still asking how knowledge was made and handed down to them and to us and how their sense of what was interesting or useful affected their selection This volume approaches the theme by looking at heresy and inquisition in the Middle Ages and also at how they were seen in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries The contributors consider a wide range of medieval texts including papal bulls sermons polemical treatises and records of interrogations both increasing our knowledge of medieval heresy and inquisition and at the same time delineating the twisting of knowledge This polarity continues in the early modern period when scholars appeared to advance learning by hunting for medieval manuscripts and publishing them or ensuring their preservation through copying them but at the same time as some of the chapters here show these were proof texts in the service of Catholic or Protestant polemic As a whole the collection provides a clear view of and invites readers reflection on the shading of truth and untruth in medieval and early modern knowledge of heresy and inquisition Contributors Jessalynn Lea Bird Harald Bolluck Irene Bueno J rg Feuchter Richard Kieckhefer Pawel Kras Adam Poznanski Luc Racaut Alessandro Sala Shelagh Sneddon Michaela Valente Reima V lim ki
