Robins, 2002 Textual Silence Jessica Lang, 2017-08-24 There are thousands of books that represent the Holocaust but can and should the act of reading these works convey the events of genocide to those who did not experience it In Textual Silence literary scholar Jessica Lang asserts that language itself is a barrier between the author and the reader in Holocaust texts and that this barrier is not a lack of substance but a defining characteristic of the genre Holocaust texts which encompass works as diverse as memoirs novels poems and diaries are traditionally characterized by silences the authors place throughout the text both deliberately and unconsciously While a reader may have the desire and will to comprehend the Holocaust the presence of textual silence is a force that removes the experience of genocide from the reader's analysis and imaginative recourse Lang defines silences as omissions that take many forms including the use of italics and quotation marks ellipses and blank pages in poetry and the presence of unreliable narrators in fiction While this limits the reader's ability to read in any conventional sense these silences are not flaws They are instead a critical presence that forces readers to acknowledge how words and meaning can diverge in the face of events as unimaginable as those of the Holocaust The Prehistoric Burial Sites of Northern Ireland Harry Welsh, June Welsh, 2014-07-28 Much has been written about the history of Northern Ireland but less well known is its wealth of prehistoric sites particularly burial sites from which most of our knowledge of the early inhabitants of this country has been obtained Memoirs of an Old Warrior Dónal Ó hEalaíthe, 2014-03-14 Jamie Moynihan had the unique distinction of being officer commanding the group of Volunteers who carried out the FIRST armed attack on crown forces in Ireland during the War of Independence at the Mouth of the Glen in Muskerry on 7 July 1918 and also of the volunteers who carried out the LAST armed attack of that war at C im Carraige Carriganima at 3pm on the day of the Truce 11 July 1921 This is a gripping and detailed account of the War of Independence in Muskerry and in the Mid Cork area that will capture the imagination of the reader It covers many events not detailed elsewhere including the hijacking of Sliabh na mBan the armoured car in which Michael Collins was later shot and the Battle of Ballyvourney the Rath attack and the burning of the courthouse It also includes a detailed account of Cumann na mBan in the region several statements by some of the key participants in events of the time and details of the intelligence and communication systems and chain of command used by the rebels It has been compiled from Moynihan s extensive records of the time and will be of huge interest to anyone wanting to find out more about this turbulent time in Ireland s history *A Gazetteer of the Countries Adjacent to India on the North-West; Including Sinde, Afghanistan, Beloochistan, the Punjab and the Neighbouring States in Two Volumes Compiled by the Authority of the Hon.
