Sixteen Hundred Men Robert Campbell Sleight, 1998

Sea Change at Annapolis H. Michael Gelfand, 2009-09-15

Since 1845 the United States Naval Academy has prepared professional military leaders at its Annapolis Maryland campus. Although it remains steeped in a culture of tradition and discipline the Academy is not impervious to change. Dispelling the myth that the Academy is a bastion of tradition unmarked by progress H Michael Gelfand examines challenges to the Naval Academy's culture from both inside and outside the Academy's walls between 1949 and 2000 an era of dramatic social change in American history. Drawing on more than two hundred oral histories extensive archival research and his own participatory observation at the Academy Gelfand demonstrates that events at Annapolis reflect the transformation of American culture and society at large in the Cold War and post Cold War periods. In eight chapters he discusses recruiting and minority midshipmen the end of mandatory attendance at religious services women's experiences as they sought and achieved admission and later served as midshipmen and the responses of multiple generations of midshipmen to societal changes particularly during the Vietnam War era. This cultural history not only sheds light on events at the Naval Academy but also offers a novel perspective on democratic ideals in the United States. Scattered Far and Wide Justin

Laborde, 2025-09-02 Scattered Far and Wide follows the U S Naval Academy Class of 1938 as they rise from junior officers to combat leaders in World War II's most pivotal battles. Through firsthand accounts and deep research Justin Laborde brings their stories of courage sacrifice and survival vividly to life. Scattered Far and Wide tells the war stories of U S Naval Academy midshipmen from the Class of 1938. Commissioned on the eve of World War II they faced the trials of combat as new officers from the early days of American involvement and as ships captains pilots in leadership positions and submariners in charge by VJ Day. Tested as young leaders they bore the new burden of command while at the fore of the Pacific War's largest and most pivotal campaigns. They felt the wind and spray in their faces and the percussion of ships guns and depth charges at the pivotal moment in their lives and careers making their experiences unusually compelling heartbreaking and most assuredly instructive. From Pearl Harbor through the end of the war these men fought and struggled for survival as part of the U S Navy's Asiatic Fleet. In the early months of the conflict they tried to stem the onslaught of the Imperial Japanese Navy. Some were captured and sent to brutal prisoner of war camps. Others took to the air from aircraft carriers as members of torpedo bomber and fighter squadrons during the Battles of the Coral Sea and Midway. Later in the war a number served aboard submarines experiencing some of the most legendary patrols in the history of the Silent Service. Author Justin Laborde's grandfather Alden Laborde was a member of the Class of 1938. Upon his death Justin obtained a 1938 edition of The Lucky Bag the Naval Academy's yearbook. Reading the memoirs of Alden's classmates Justin realized he was well placed to tell the fascinating and unreported story of this class's experiences in World War II. He spent five years gathering primary materials and researching the histories and wartime tales. The young men who graduated from the Naval Academy in 1938 left Annapolis on the eve of war and faced its perils around the world In the process these junior officers earned medals and fame left legacies of heroism and loss and sparked tales of renown and bravery that reverberate today
