A Summer of Adventure Jacqueline White Unruh,2015-04-25 Teenage Toby lived with his grandmother When she died suddenly arrangements were made for him to spend the summer in Dallas Texas with his only living relative his uncle Mike While waiting at the bus terminal he noticed two kids trying to hide from a dirty unkempt man who smelled of booze When the man was out of sight Toby asked the teenage girl and her younger brother why the man was looking for them The girl Cindy hesitantly explained that he was their step father he beat their mother who was now in the hospital and he said he would kill them for calling 911 and turning him in They were clearly scared and Toby wanted to help if he could Toby convinced Cindy and her brother Tommy to come with him to Dallas where he was sure Uncle Mike would know what to do There was a long wait before their bus departure time so the three kids ran back to Cindy and Tommy's house where they quickly packed some clothes and found what money they could Back at the bus terminal they purchased one way tickets to Dallas and their Summer of Adventure began How Kirsty Jenkins Stole the Elephant Elen Caldecott,2010-07-05 Kirsty Jenkins adores the allotment her grandfather lovingly tends and just before he dies he asks Kirsty to look after it for him But when horrible Mr Thomas from the council insists it must go to the next person on the waiting list Kirsty is determined to find a way to keep her promise After pleading with Mr Thomas and demonstrating at the council offices Kirsty and her half siblings undertake their most daring plan of all to borrow the stuffed elephant from the museum that Mr Thomas loves so much in a last ditch attempt to gain his attention and understanding Perhaps this risky ruse might also shake Kirsty's dad from the quiet sadness he has fallen into ever since her grandfather died A warm funny and moving novel about family relationships dealing with bereavement green beans and marrows Rezballers and Skate Elders David Kamper,2025-06 Ethnographer and American Indian studies scholar David Kamper examines how Indigenous youth and adults are making basketball and skateboarding meaningful to their communities by sustaining the transmission of intergenerational knowledge and combatting intergenerational trauma Kamper looks at how the events and tournaments built around rezball are similar to powwows in how they bring people together across localized communities and generations and he coins the phrase skate elders for those who use the social nature of skateboarding to build community and mentorships Through a broad picture of North America Kamper demonstrates how Native peoples have long indigenized cultural practices and material culture to assert Native sovereignty creating joy and hope in the process In Rezballers and Skate Elders Kamper considers how Native expressions of basketball and skateboarding show continuities with the historical transformation of practices that originated outside Indian Country to make them meaningful in Native life Best Books for Children, Preschool Through the Middle Grades ,1978 Stalefish Sean Mortimer,2008-04-30 How is being a professional skateboarder different from being say a professional golfer More scabs for one Veteran skate journalist Sean Mortimer has interviewed the top skaters of all time to answer that question in meaningful and often humorous ways Tony Hawk Stacy Peralta Lance Mountain and Rodney Mullen are a handful of the skaters who opine on sacking yourself skate induced ulcers and the various ways in which skating ruins your love life Including compelling photographs Stalefish documents the gritty oral history of professional skating like no other book Science and Technology in 20th-Century American Life Christopher Cumo,2007-08-30 The twentieth century witnessed the greatest changes in technology and science that humans have ever witnessed These occurred rapidly and affected such a broad range of people Scientists inventors and engineers built upon the great inventions of the 19th century to expand the reach of modern technology for a citizen in 1900 communication transportation and agricultural was still primarily local activities by 2000 an American citizen was part of an interconnected global community These developments in science and
