The Address Of The Eye A Phenomenology Of Film Experience:

The Address of the Eye Vivian Sobchack, 2020-05-05 Cinema is a sensuous object but in our presence it becomes also a sensing sensual sense making subject Thus argues Vivian Sobchack as she challenges basic assumptions of current film theory that reduce film to an object of vision and the spectator to a victim of a deterministic cinematic apparatus Maintaining that these premises ignore the material and cultural historical situations of both the spectator and the film the author makes the radical proposal that the cinematic experience depends on two viewers viewing the spectator and the film each existing as both subject and object of vision Drawing on existential and semiotic phenomenology and particularly on the work of Merleau Ponty Sobchack shows how the film experience provides empirical insight into the reversible dialectical and signifying nature of that embodied vision we each live daily as both mine and another s In this attempt to account for cinematic intelligibility and signification the author explores the possibility of human choice and expressive freedom within the bounds of history and culture

The Address of the Eye Vivian Carol Sobchack, 1992 Cinema is a sensuous object but in our presence it becomes also a sensing sensual sense making subject This title challenges basic assumptions of current film theory that reduce film to an object of vision and the spectator to a victim of a deterministic cinematic apparatus

Filmosophy Daniel Frampton, 2006 Filmosophy is a manifesto for a radically philosophical way of understanding cinema The book coalesces 20th century ideas of film as thought into a practical theory of film thinking arguing that film style conveys poetic ideas through a constant dramatic intent about the characters spaces and events of film

The McGurk Universe K.J. Donnelly, 2023-01-01 This book reconsiders audiovisual culture through a focus on human perception with recourse to ideas derived from recent neuroscience It proceeds from the assumption that rather than simply working on a straightforward cognitive level audiovisual culture also functions more fundamentally on a physiological level directly exploiting precise aspects of human perception Vision and hearing are unified in a merged signal in the brain through being processed in the same areas This is illustrated by the startling McGurk Effect whereby the perception of spoken sound is changed by its accompanying image and counterpart effects which demonstrate that what we see is affected by different sounds accompanying sounds This blending of sound and images into a whole has become a universal aspect of culture not only evident in films and television but also in video games and short Internet clips Indeed this aesthetic formation has become the dominant of this period The McGurk Universe attends to how audiovisual culture engages with and mediates between physiological and psychological levels Dialectics without Synthesis Naoki Yamamoto,2020-08-25 Dialectics without Synthesis explores Japan's active but previously unrecognized participation in the global circulation of film theory during the first half of the twentieth century Examining a variety of Japanese theorists working in the fields of film literature avant garde art Marxism and philosophy Naoki Yamamoto offers a new approach to cinematic realism as culturally conditioned articulations of the shifting relationship of film to the experience of modernity In this study long held oppositions between realism and modernism universalism and particularism and most notably the West and the non West are challenged through a radical reconfiguration of the geopolitics of knowledge production and consumption

Figure and Force in Animation Aesthetics Ryan Pierson,2020 How can we describe movements in animated films In Figure and Force in Animation Aesthetics Ryan Pierson introduces a powerful new method for the study of animation By looking for figures arrangements that seem to intuitively hold together and forces underlying units of attraction repulsion and direction Pierson reveals startling new possibilities for animation criticism history and theory Drawing on concepts from Gestalt psychology Pierson offers a wide ranging comparative study of four animation techniques soft edged forms walk cycles camera movement and rotoscoping as they appear in commercial artisanal and avant garde works In the process through close readings of little analyzed films Pierson demonstrates that figures and forces make fertile resources for theoretical speculation unearthing affinities between animation practice and such topics as the philosophy of mathematics scientific and political revolution and love Beginning and ending with the imperative to look closely Figure and Force in Animation Aesthetics is a performance in seeing the world of motion anew

Godard and Sound Albertine Fox,2017-12-18 What happens when we listen to a film How can we describe the relationship of sound to vision in cinema and in turn our relationship as spectators with the audio visual Jean Luc Godard understood the importance of the soundtrack in cinema and relied heavily on the impact of carefully constructed sound to produce innovative effects For the first time this book brings together his post 1979 multimedia works and an analysis of their rich soundscapes The book provides detailed critical discussions of feature length films shorts and videos delving into Godard's inventive experiments with the cinematic soundtrack and offering new insights into his latest 3D films By detailing the production contexts and philosophy behind Godard's idiosyncratic sound design it provides an accessible route to understanding his complex use of music speech and environmental sound alongside the distorting effects of speed alteration and auditory excess The book is framed by the concept of acoustic spectatorship a way of cultivating active listening in the viewer It also draws on ideas by leading sound theorists philosophers musicians and poets giving particular emphasis to the pioneering thought of French sound engineer and theorist Pierre Schaeffer Softening the boundaries between film studies sound studies and musicology Godard and Sound re evaluates Godard s work from a sonic perspective and will prove essential reading for those wishing to rebalance the importance of sound for the study of cinema Latour and the Humanities Rita Felski, Stephen Muecke, 2020-09-01 How does the work of influential theorist Bruno Latour offer a fresh angle on the practices and purposes of the humanities In recent years defenses of the humanities have tended to argue along predictable lines the humanities foster empathy the humanities encourage critical thinking the humanities offer a counterweight to the cold calculations of the natural and social sciences The essays in Latour and the Humanities take a different approach Exploring the relevance of theorist Bruno Latour s work they argue for attachments and entanglements between the humanities and the sciences while looking closely at the interests institutions and intellectual projects that shape the humanities within and beyond the university The collection which is written by a group of highly distinguished scholars from around the world is divided into two sections In the first part authors engage in depth with Latour s work while also rethinking the ties between the humanities and the sciences Essays argue for greater attention to the nonhuman world the urgency of climate change and more nuanced views of universities as institutions The second half of the volume contains essays that reflect on Latour s influence on the practices of specific disciplines including art the digital humanities film studies and political theory Inspiring conversation about the relevance of actor network theory for research and teaching in the humanities Latour and the Humanities offers a substantial introduction to Latour s work while discussing the humanities without falling back on the genres of either the sermon or the jeremiad This volume will be of interest to all those searching for fresh perspectives on the value and importance of humanistic disciplines and thought Contributors David J Alworth Anders Blok Claudia Breger Dipesh Chakrabarty Yves Citton Steven Connor Gerard de Vries Simon During Rita Felski Francis Halsall Graham Harman Antoine Hennion Casper Bruun Jensen Bruno Latour Heather Love Patrice Maniglier Stephen Muecke Barbara Herrnstein Smith Nigel Thrift Michael Witmore
