

THE ADULTERY GAME

...was played to perfection by Candida. Outwardly, she was the most respectable of wives. Married to a man of wealth and distinction, her cool, aristocratic beauty seemed too forbidding for the sordid sensuality of secret affairs.

But under the icy facade, Candida's body was aflame with lustful cravings—cravings that demanded to be satisfied.

Candida never had to look far for lovers—her husband brought them home each time!

How can any man stoop low enough to procure lovers for his wife? What peculiar satisfaction does he get from his role?
