An Essay on the Art of Ingeniously Tormenting Jane Collier,2003-08-12 Perhaps the first extended non fiction prose satire written by an English woman Jane Collier s An Essay on the Art of Ingeniously Tormenting 1753 is a wickedly satirical send up of eighteenth century advice manuals and educational tracts It takes the form of a mock advice manual in which the speaker instructs her readers in the arts of tormenting offering advice on how to torment servants humble companions and spouses and on how to bring one s children up to be a torment to others The work s satirical style which focuses on the different kinds of power that individuals exercise over one another follows in the footsteps of Jonathan Swift and paves the way for Jane Austen This Broadview edition uses the first edition the only edition published during the author s lifetime The appendices include excerpts from texts that influenced the essay by Sarah Fielding Jonathan Swift Francis Coventry excerpts from later texts that were influenced by it by Maria Edgeworth Frances Burney Jane Austen and relevant writings on education and conduct by John Locke George Savile Dr John Gregory Uncomfortable Situations Daniel M. Gross,2017-08-28 What is a hostile environment How exactly can feelings be mixed What on earth might it mean when someone writes that he was happily situated as a slave The answers of course depend upon whom you ask Science and the humanities typically offer two different paradigms for thinking about emotion the first rooted in brain and biology the second in a social world With rhetoric as a field guide Uncomfortable Situations establishes common ground between these two paradigms focusing on a theory of situated emotion Daniel M Gross anchors the argument in Charles Darwin whose work on emotion has been misunderstood across the disciplines as it has been shoehorned into the perceived science humanities divide Then Gross turns to sentimental literature as the single best domain for studying emotional situations There s lost composure Sterne bearing up Equiano environmental hostility Radcliffe and feeling mixed Austen Rounding out the book an epilogue written with ecological neuroscientist Stephanie Preston provides a different kind of cross disciplinary collaboration Uncomfortable Situations is a conciliatory work across science and the humanities a groundbreaking model for future studies
