The African Colonial State In Comparative Perspective:

The African Colonial State in Comparative Perspective Crawford Young, 1994-01-01 In this comprehensive and original study a distinguished specialist and scholar of African affairs argues that the current crisis in African development can be traced directly to European colonial rule which left the continent with a singularly difficult legacy that is unique in modern history Crawford Young proposes a new conception of the state weighing the different characteristics of earlier European empires including those of Holland Portugal England and Venice and distilling their common qualities He then presents a concise and wide ranging history of colonization in Africa from the era of construction through consolidation and decolonization Young argues that several qualities combined to make the European colonial experience in Africa distinctive The high number of nations competing for power around the continent and the necessity to achieve effective occupation swiftly yet make the colonies self financing drove colonial powers toward policies of ruthless extractive action The persistent virulent racism that established a distance between rulers and subjects was especially central to African colonial history Young concludes by turning his sights to other regions of the once colonized world comparing the fates of former African colonies to their counterparts elsewhere In tracing both the overarching traits and variations in African colonial states he makes a strong case that colonialism has played a critical role in shaping the fate of this troubled continent China into Africa Robert I. Rotberg, 2009-10-01 Africa has long attracted China We can date their first certain involvement from the fourteenth century but East African city states may have been trading with southern China even earlier In the mid twentieth century Maoist China funded and educated sub Saharan African anticolonial liberation movements and leaders and the PRC then assisted new sub Saharan nations Africa and China are now immersed in their third and most transformative era of heavy engagement one that promises to do more for economic growth and poverty alleviation than anything attempted by Western colonialism or international aid programs Robert Rotberg and his Chinese African and other colleagues discuss this important trend and specify its likely implications Among the specific topics tackled here are China s interest in African oil military and security relations the influx and goals of Chinese aid to sub Saharan Africa human rights issues and China s overall strategy in the region China s insatiable demand for energy and raw materials responds to sub Saharan Africa s relatively abundant supplies of unprocessed metals diamonds and gold while offering a growing market for Africa s agriculture and light manufactures As this book illustrates this evolving symbiosis could be the making of Africa the poorest and most troubled continent while it further powers China s expansive economic machine Contributors include Deborah Brautigam American University Harry Broadman World Bank Stephen Brown University of Ottawa Martyn J Davies Stellenbosch University Joshua Eisenman UCLA Chin Hao Huang Stockholm International Peace Research Institute Paul Hubbard Australian Department of the Treasury Wenran Jiang University of Alberta Darren Kew University of Massachusetts Boston Henry Lee Harvard University Li Anshan Peking University Ndubisi Obiorah Centre for Law and Social Action Nigeria

The Palgrave Handbook of African Colonial and Postcolonial History Martin S. Shanguhya, Toyin

Falola, 2018-01-28 This wide ranging volume presents the most complete appraisal of modern African history to date It assembles dozens of new and established scholars to tackle the questions and subjects that define the field ranging from the economy the two world wars nationalism decolonization and postcolonial politics to religion development sexuality and the African youth experience Contributors are drawn from numerous fields in African studies including art music literature education and anthropology The themes they cover illustrate the depth of modern African history and the diversity and originality of lenses available for examining it Older themes in the field have been treated to an engaging re assessment while new and emerging themes are situated as the book's core strength The result is a comprehensive vital picture of where the field of modern African history stands today The American Colonial State in the Philippines Julian Go, Anne L.

Foster, 2003-07-08 Interdisciplinary collection placing the U S imperial project in the Philippines within a global comparative framework Pre-Colonial Africa in Colonial African Narratives Donald R. Wehrs, 2016-04-08 In his study of the origins of political reflection in twentieth century African fiction Donald Wehrs examines a neglected but important body of African texts written in colonial English and French and indigenous Hausa and Yoruba languages He explores pioneering narrative representations of pre colonial African history and society in seven texts Casely Hayford's Ethiopia Unbound 1911 Alhaji Sir Abubaker Tafawa Balewa's Shaihu Umar 1934 Paul Hazoum's Doguicimi 1938 D O Fagunwa's Forest of a Thousand Daemons 1938 Amos Tutuola's The Palm Wine Drinkard 1952 and My Life in the Bush of Ghosts 1954 and Chinua Achebe's Things Fall Apart 1958 Wehrs highlights the role of pre colonial political economies and articulations of state power on colonial era considerations of ethical and political issues and is attentive to the gendered implications of texts and authorial choices By positioning Things Fall Apart as the culmination of a tradition rather than as its inaugural work he also reconfigures how we think of African fiction His book supplements recent work on the importance of indigenous contexts and discourses in situating colonial era narratives and will inspire fresh methodological strategies for studying the continent from a multiplicity of perspectives Self-Protective Leadership and Organizational Effectiveness David Kelvin Amoo-Osae, Jr, 2024-12-13 This book investigates and explores the impact of a self protective leadership SPL style on the organizational effectiveness of start up businesses within Africa focusing on Ghana and Kenya Self protective leadership is defined as a leadership style that focuses on ensuring the safety and security of individuals and groups through status enhancing and face saving tactics A typical self protective leader can make decisions and is free from political influences but tends to be selfish ritualistic and self centered The author's study presented in this book demonstrates a surprisingly high preference for SPL among Confucian Asian Latin American Middle Eastern and Sub Saharan African nations all of which have a history of colonialism If this is true then SPL could be better suited to the business environment in Africa but particularly amongst start up enterprises Examining this phenomenon and using an explorative analysis of business and culture the book investigates the extent to which the various dimensions or demonstrations of SPL impact organizational effectiveness in African start up businesses A valuable contribution to literature and research on African leadership styles this is an ideal resource for students and researchers interested in leadership and organizational effectiveness within the African context Mobility Makes States Darshan Vigneswaran,Joel Quirk,2015-04-22 Human mobility has long played a foundational role in producing state territories resources and hierarchies When people move within and across national boundaries they create both challenges and opportunities In Mobility Makes States chapters written by historians political scientists sociologists and anthropologists explore different patterns of mobility in sub Saharan Africa and how African states have sought to harness these movements toward their own ends While border control and intercontinental migration policies remain important topics of study Mobility Makes States demonstrates that immigration control is best understood alongside parallel efforts by states in Africa to promote both long distance and everyday movements The contributors challenge the image of a fixed and static state that is concerned only with stopping foreign migrants at its border and show that the politics of mobility takes place across a wide range of locations including colonial hinterlands workplaces camps foreign countries and city streets They examine short term and circular migrations everyday commuting and urban expansion forced migrations emigrations diasporic communities and the mobility of gatekeepers and officers of the state who push and pull migrant populations in different directions Through the experiences and trajectories of migration in sub Saharan Africa this empirically rich volume sheds new light on larger global patterns and state making processes Contributors Eric Allina Oliver Bakewell Pamila Gupta Nauja Kleist Loren B Landau Joel Quirk Benedetta Rossi Filipa Ribeiro da Silva Simon Turner Darshan Vigneswaran Routledge Handbook of African Political Philosophy Uchenna Okeja,2023-08-25 The Routledge Handbook of African Political Philosophy showcases and develops the arguments propounded by African philosophers on political problems bringing together experts from around the world to chart current and future research trends Africa s recent history has been shaped by the experiences of colonization anti colonial struggle and postcolonial self rule so it is perhaps not surprising that political questions are also central to African philosophy This exciting new handbook provides insights into the foundations virtues vices controversies and key topics to be found within African political philosophy concluding by considering how it connects with other traditions of political philosophy In doing so this book provides important fresh perspectives that help us to gain a richer understanding of the challenges of coexistence in society and governance not just in Africa but around the world This book will be an important resource for researchers and students across the fields of Political Philosophy Political Science International Relations and African Studies Information and Communication Technologies for Development Jyoti Choudrie,M. Sirajul Islam,Fathul Wahid,Julian M. Bass,Johanes Eka Priyatma,2017-05-15 This book constitutes the refereed proceedings of the 14th IFIP WG 9.4 International Conference on Social Implications of Computers in Developing Countries ICT4D 2017 held in Yogyakarta Indonesia in May 2017. The 60 revised full papers and 8 short papers presented together with 3 keynotes were carefully reviewed and selected from 118 submissions. The papers are organized in the following topical sections: large scale and complex information systems for development; women empowerment and gender justice; social mechanisms of ICT enabled development; the data revolution and sustainable development goals; critical perspectives on ICT and open innovation for development; the contribution of practice theories to ICT for development; agile development; indigenous local community grounded ICT developments; global sourcing and development sustainability in ICT4D; and information systems development and implementation in Southeast Asia. Also included are a graduate student track, current issues and notes. The chapter 'An Analysis of Accountability Concepts for Open Development' is open access under a CC BY 4.0 license via link.springer.com.

The African Affairs Reader by Nic Cheeseman, Lindsay Whitfield, and Carl Death, 2017-05-19. African Affairs is the top journal in African Studies and has been for some time. This book draws together some of the most influential, important, and thought provoking articles published in its pages over the last decade. In doing so, it collates essential cutting edge research on Africa and makes it easily available for students, teachers, and researchers alike. The African Affairs Reader is broken down into four sections that cover some of the biggest themes and questions facing the continent today, including the African State, the Political Economy of Development, Africa's Relationship with the World, and Elections, Representation, and Democracy. Within each section, articles deal with some of the most significant recent trends and events, such as the prospects for democratization in Ghana and Nigeria, the factors underpinning Rwanda's economic success, the rise of political corruption in South Africa, the spread of the drugs trade, the struggle against gender based violence, and the growing influence of China. Each section is introduced by a new purpose written essay by the journal's editors that explains the evolution of the wider debate, highlights key contributions, and suggests new ways in which the discussion can be taken forward. Taken together, the essays and articles included in the volume provide both a coherent introduction to the study of Africa and a compelling commentary on the current state of play on the continent.
