

MOTHER POEMS

● A Smile To Remember

we had goldfish and they circled around and around in the bowl on the table near the heavy drapes

● Cross

My old man's a white old man
And my old mother's black.

● Hot And Cold

A woman who my mother knows Came in and took off all her clothes.

● As Soon As Fred Gets Out Of Bed

As soon as Fred gets out of bed,
his underwear goes on his head.

● Clouds And Waves

Mother, the folk who live up in the clouds call out to me-
'We play from the time we wake till the day ends.

● Dora Diller

'My stomach's full of butterflies! '
lamented Dora Diller.

● My Mother

Who sat and watched my infant head
When sleeping on my cradle bed,

● Looking For A Mother

If it is difficult to feel your mother
Hard to bear and uneasy to share

touchstones for the collection's central themes Just Breathe: A Collection of Poems by a Grieving Mother Maureen Gordon, 2023-07-28 Just Breathe is a collection of poems written over the past 8 years following the loss of our only daughter. These poems and short stories depict a Mother's grief and act as an outlet towards healing just a little bit. Hopefully others will appreciate these works and can find solace if the reader is also a bereaved parent. KELSEY lives on in our hearts and souls and my hope is to help others express their pain and grief through prose and poetry. Just Breathe is my mantra and I thought it a fitting title for this book Lyric and Dramatic Poetry, 1946-82 Aimé Césaire, 1990 over emergent literature and will show him to be a major figure in the conflict between tradition and contemporary cultural identity The Poetry and Poets of Great Britain from Chaucer to Tennyson ... Daniel Scrymgeour (H.M. Inspector of Schools.), 1864 The Heart of American Poetry Edward Hirsch, 2022-04-19 An acclaimed poet and our greatest champion for poetry offers an inspiring and insightful new reading of the American tradition. We live in unsettled times. What is America and who are we as a people? How do we understand the dreams and betrayals that have shaped the American experience? For poet and critic Edward Hirsch, poetry opens up new ways of answering these questions of reconnecting with one another and with what's best in us. In this landmark new book from Library of America, Hirsch offers deeply personal readings of forty essential American poems we thought we knew from Anne Bradstreet's The Author to Her Book and Phillis Wheatley's To S M a Young African Painter on seeing his Works to Garrett Hongo's Ancestral Graves, Kahuku and Joy Harjo's Rabbit Is Up to Tricks, exploring how these poems have sustained his own life and how they might uplift our diverse but divided nation. This is a personal book about American poetry, writes Hirsch, but I hope it is more than a personal selection. I have chosen forty poems from our extensive archive and songbook that have been meaningful to me, part of my affective life, my critical consideration, but I have also tried to be cognizant of the changing playbook in American poetry, which is not fixed but fluctuating, ever in flow, to pay attention to the wider consideration, the appreciable reach of our literature. This is a book of encounters and realizations Hart Crane's Poetry John T. Irwin, 2011-12-15 Honorable Mention Literature 2012 PROSE Awards Professional and Scholarly Publishing Division of the Association of American Publishers 2012 Outstanding Academic Title Choice Magazine In one of his letters Hart Crane wrote, "Appollinaire lived in Paris. I live in Cleveland, Ohio, comparing misspelling and all the great French poet's cosmopolitan roots to his own more modest ones in the midwestern United States." Rebelling against the notion that his work should relate to some European school of thought, Crane defiantly asserted his freedom to be himself, a true American writer. John T. Irwin, long a passionate and brilliant critic of Crane, gives readers the first major interpretation of the poet's work in decades. Irwin aims to show that Hart Crane's epic The Bridge is the best twentieth-century long poem in English. Irwin convincingly argues that compared to other long poems of the century, The Bridge is the richest and most wide-ranging in its mythic and historical resonances, the most inventive in its combination of literary and visual structures, the most subtle and compelling in its psychological underpinnings. Irwin brings a wealth of new and varied scholarship to bear on his critical reading of the work from art history to biography to classical literature to philosophy revealing The Bridge to be the near perfect synthesis of American myth and history that Crane intended Irwin contends that the most successful entryway to Crane's notoriously difficult shorter poems is through a close reading of The Bridge Having admirably accomplished this Irwin analyzes Crane's poems in White Buildings and his last poem The Broken Tower through the larger context of his epic showing how Crane in the best of these worked out the structures and images that were fully developed in The Bridge Thoughtful deliberate and extraordinarily learned this is the most complete and careful reading of Crane's poetry available Hart Crane may have lived in Cleveland Ohio but as Irwin masterfully shows his poems stand among the greatest written in the English language

Indivisible Poems for Social Justice Gail Bush, Randy Meyer, 2013-01-01 An anthology including over 50 works of poetry by 20th century writers on issues related to social justice America is not easy Its a land of high ideals and stirring icons but it is also a land of harsh realities We celebrate the incredible achievements of individuals as we turn our gaze from hunger and homelessness in the streets We have a difficult time matching our words with our deeds This is where poetry comes in A poem has the ability to personalize the ideal to make it tangible in a way that a speech or news report cannot It can widen the angle through which we view society It can move us to action The poems in this anthology do just that confront challenge and inspire They take us on a journey toward social justice starting in the shadows and slowly working our way home The Foreword is written by COMMON who is a hip hop artist actor and social activist He is also the founder of the Common Ground Foundation Gail Bush is a prominent professor emeritus of education and library science Randy Meyer is a middle school librarian and has worked as an editor and writer in the library and educational journal and book publishing fields
