The Albatross Other Stories:

The Amber Gods, and Other Stories Harriet Elizabeth Prescott Spofford, 1889 A widely held vision of nineteenth century American women is of lives lived in naive domestic peace the girls of Little Women making do until father comes home from the war Nothing could be less true of Harriet Prescott Spofford's stories In fact her editor at the Atlantic Monthly at first refused to believe that an unworldly woman from New England had written them Her style though ornate by our 20th century standards adds to its atmosphere like heavy Baroque furniture in a large and creepy house The title story presents a self centered and captivating woman who ruthlessly steals her orphan cousin's lover In Circumstance a pioneer woman returning home through the woods at night is caught by a panther her husband who has come to save her can only watch from the ground as she sings for her life pinned in a tree A train engineer hallucinates again and again that he is running over his wife And Mrs Craven who's a bit weak in the head mindlessly repeats Three men went down cellar and only two came up These stories combine elements of the best ghost stories timing detail and character with just enough chill to make you think twice about turning out your lights at night

The Interrogation of Ephraim Sparkman and other Stories Barry Spencer, 2015-08-31 This small volume of 4 short stories the whole of which can be read in one sitting takes the reader on what the author hopes will prove a fascinating journey In the first story from which the book takes its name The Interrogation of Ephraim Sparkman we travel by the magic of words through time and space to Mars in the distant future In The Buddha's Smile we find ourselves in a small Kalmyk village seized by the German SS deep inside the Soviet Union during World War 11 Next comes The Blame Game It's 1975 and we are standing with the accused in the dock at the Old Bailey criminal court in London charged with assault with a deadly weapon The last story The Rabbi follows the destiny of a young man from Berlin in 1938 to the battle of Stalingrad in 1943

A Lapse of Memory, and Other Stories Agnes Littlejohn, 1909

The Albatross, and Other Stories Susan Hill, 1973

The Tampines Tiger and Other Stories Norman Williams & Rex Kearns, 2016-02-08 Here lie the memoirs of Ponsenby who has a great propensity for being in the wrong place at the wrong time thereby seeing hearing and experiencing so much and all with a difference He travels through history and time across vastly differing landscapes and delves into the most mysterious places of all human endeavour beliefs culture and society Ponsenby is a British Indian medic or sawbones as he describes himself a livelihood that perceives both the serious and sombre perspectives on life and always with a wry twist of humour Oh and another place to go contemplation and reflection And a beautiful sadness filled our hearts And because we could not leave it the sadness slowly and inexorably turned into compassion We felt the sorrow of the whole world of little frightened children of the blind the halt and the lame and of those separated from their loved ones

Monsoon and Other Stories Arinn Dembo, 2012-04 This collection of short stories essays and poetry spans twenty years of the multi genre Canadian author's early career in science fiction fantasy and queer activism
