Passion, Humiliation, Revenge Lapidus,1955-01-01 This book reveals the phenomenon in Russian prose in which a male protagonist finds himself perpetuating a cycle of passion humiliation and revenge within his relationships with women By examining the mental and emotional state of the male protagonist who finds himself in a sexual situation Rina Lapidus explores how his passion for a woman leads the man into an encounter that causes him humiliation and ends up eliciting a powerful desire on his part to punish the woman who initially arouses his erotic feeling The male protagonist directs his fury at the woman seeking vengeance because of the shame he has suffered Lapidus shows how the man sees himself as a highly spiritual being and finds it difficult to comes to terms with his sexual nature The author argues that this denial of desire leads the man to take out his frustration with himself on the woman projecting all of his faults and guilt onto her When the woman brings the male protagonist low his thirst for revenge becomes a powerful driving force in his life that eventually brings about his downfall
