The Eye That Never Sleeps A History Of The Pinkerton National Detective Agency:

The Eye That Never Sleeps Frank Morn,1998-12-01 The Eye that Never Sleeps Frank Morn,1975 Inventing the Pinkertons; Or, Spies, Sleuths, Mercenaries, and Thugs S. Paul O'Hara,2016-10-18 D E F G H I J K L M N O P Q R S T U V W Illustrations Kate Warne, Pinkerton Detective Marissa Moss,2017-05-16 When Kate Warne applied for a job with the Pinkerton Agency Pinkerton assumed she wanted to cook or clean but he agreed to try her out as an agent Assigned to a tough case with high stakes Warne went undercover and not only found the stolen money she got almost all of it returned The Adams Express Case made the reputation of the fledgling Pinkerton Agency turning it into the biggest most prestigious detective company in the world Warne went on to direct an entire women s division of detectives and Pinkerton relied on her for his hardest cases A history well worth knowing Faces Like Devils Matthew J. Hernando,2015-04-07 In the twenty first century the word vigilante usually conjures up images of cinematic heroes like Batman Zorro the Lone Ranger or Clint Eastwood in just about any film he s ever been in But in the nineteenth century vigilantes roamed the country long before they ever made their way onto the silver screen In Faces Like Devils Matthew J Hernando closely examines one of the most famous of these vigilante groups the Bald Knobbers Hernando sifts through the folklore and myth surrounding the Bald Knobbers to produce an authentic history of the rise and fall of Missouri s most famous vigilantes He details the differences between the modernizing Bald Knobbers of Taney County and the anti progressive Bald Knobbers of Christian County while also stressing the importance of Civil War era violence with respect to the foundation of these vigilante groups Despite being one of America s largest and most famous vigilante groups during the nineteenth century the Bald Knobbers have not previously been examined in depth Hernando s exhaustive research which includes a plethora of state and federal court records newspaper articles and firsthand accounts remedies that lack This account of the Bald Knobbers is vital to anyone not wanting to miss out on a major part of Missouri s history A History of Crime and the American Criminal Justice System Mitchel P. Roth,2018-10-10 This book offers a history of crime and the criminal justice system in America written particularly for students of criminal justice and those interested in the history of crime and punishment It follows the evolution of the criminal justice system chronologically and when necessary offers parallels between related criminal justice issues in different historical eras From its antecedents in England to revolutionary times to the American Civil War right through the twentieth century to the age of terrorism this book combines a wealth of resources with keen historical judgement to offer a fascinating account of the development of criminal justice in America A new chapter brings the story up to date looking at criminal justice through the Obama era and the early days of the Trump administration Each chapter is broken down into four crucial components related to the American criminal justice system from the historical perspective lawmakers and the judiciary law enforcement corrections and crime and punishment A range of pedagogical features including timelines of key events learning objectives critical thinking questions and sources as well as a full glossary of key

terms and a Who's Who in Criminal Justice History ensures that readers are well equipped to navigate the immense body of knowledge related to criminal justice history Essential reading for Criminal Justice majors and historians alike this book will be a fascinating text for anyone interested in the development of the American criminal justice system from ancient times to the present day

Personal Identity in the Modern World Lawrence M. Friedman, 2022-08-01 In a society of strangers there develops what can be called crimes of mobility forms of criminality rare in traditional societies bigamy the confidence game and blackmail for example What they have in common is a kind of fraudulent role playing which the new society makes possible This book explores the social and legal consequences of social and geographical mobility in the United States and Great Britain from the beginning of the 19th century on Personal identity became more fluid Lines between classes blurred Impostors abound

An Organ of Murder Courtney E. Thompson, 2021-02-12 Finalist for the 2022 Cheiron Book Prize An Organ of Murder explores the origins of both popular and elite theories of criminality in the nineteenth century United States focusing in particular on the influence of phrenology In the United States phrenology shaped the production of medico legal knowledge around crime the treatment of the criminal within prisons and in public discourse and sociocultural expectations about the causes of crime The criminal was phrenology's ideal research and demonstration subject and the courtroom and the prison were essential spaces for the staging of scientific expertise In particular phrenology constructed ways of looking as well as a language for identifying understanding and analyzing criminals and their actions This work traces the long lasting influence of phrenological visual culture and language in American culture law and medicine as well as the practical uses of phrenology in courts prisons and daily life

The Eternal Criminal Record James B. Jacobs, 2015-02-09 For 60 million Americans a criminal record overshadows everything else about their identity Citizens have a right to know when someone around them represents a threat But convicted persons have rights too James Jacobs examines the problem of erroneous records and proposes ways to eliminate discrimination for those who have been rehabilitated
