Through the Eyes of the Heart Lisa Leon, 2012-06-27 Through The Eyes Of The Heart was inspired by a dream and a message from my guardian angel Maria It was the year 2009 when images of the Sacred Heart began to appear to me in many different places and at this time I began to have direct communication with our beloved Maria During visits to a local church Maria would make her presence known to me and allow me to photograph her Maria has asked me to share my images with the world to use these images to teach others that they need to see through the eyes of the heart We usually want proof that something exists as our minds have been conditioned to not see what lies before us and I hope the messages and images I have to share will do just that From my heart to yours I hope to take you on a journey of what lies beyond so that you may get out of your head and into your heart and see that there is much more to our existence than what lies before us

Seeing with the Eyes of the Heart Elizabeth T. Groppe, 2020-07-03 In an era in which the internet has made pornography readily accessible Seeing with the Eyes of the Heart offers a theological critique of pornography and retrieves from the Christian tradition an alternative visual culture This visual culture is constituted by both the character of the images we behold and the manner in which we see Contributors include psychologists William M Struthers and Jill Manning who address the neurological effects of pornography and its influences on personal familial and social life Their professional analysis is complemented by the testimony of a young man in recovery from pornography addiction In an exposition of Christian visual culture Orthodox iconographer Randi Sider Rose describes the spiritual discipline of icon writing Danielle M Peters S T D surveys the iconography and art of Marian traditions and art historian Dianne Phillips elucidates the meaning of divine desire as evident in Catholic visual culture of the late medieval and early modern periods Catholic theologians Ann W Astell Nathaniel Peters Boyd Taylor Coolman and Nicolas Ogle discuss specific practices and dimensions of the Catholic tradition that can contribute to the cultivation of sacramental vision and David W Fagerberg Kimberly Hope Belcher Jennifer Newsome Martin and John C Cavadini offer reflections on sacramental imagination and the healing of vision Seeing with the Eyes of the Heart is a work of scholarship composed with pastoral care and concern and it will be serviceable to both classroom teachers and pastoral ministers A special feature of the book is an inset of seventy two full color plates featuring both classic and contemporary works of Christian iconography and art The essays and images invite readers to behold in beauty the truth that we are created by the triune God not for sexual objectification but with a sacramental vocation to deification through Christ and the Holy Spirit of love

Through the Eyes of the Heart Dan Festa, 2016-02-25 This book is written as a memoir of 40 plus years of working with human experiences of death grief and bereavement The stories are all similar but uniquely different similar in the sense that they all relate to varying issues embedded in loss They are different in how each of these losses occur The author invites the reader into a world of overwhelming grief brimming with raw emotions The stories are true and tackle the capricious and unpredictable nature of death in a society that seeks to avoid and overcome the reality of death Most of the stories are told from the perspective of a hospital chaplain working with real people While these stories are profoundly sad the author invites the reader to search for and find snippets of hope through a recommitment to life and living constantly holding before the reader the dialectic tension that exists between life and death

Through The Eyes Of A Heart J. M., 2023-01-30 Through The Eyes Of A Heart is a collection of poems about loss and luck finding and longing heartbreaks and healing
