The First Men in the Moon Herbert George Wells, 1995 The most dazzling of Wells scientific romances and the last of the series that began with The Time Machine this edition offers the only annotated version of The First Men in the Moon Wells combines subtle comedy and thrilling adventure in this engaging satire of imperialism and human frailty in which the heroes invade the moon only to be captured by the ant like Selenites Wells established a new level of the science fiction genre with his fantastical but subtle writing The explanatory notes in this edition clarify Wells rich allusions and elucidate the scientific aspects of the moon voyage

The First Men in the Moon H.G. Wells, 2021-08-04 The First Men in the Moon H G Wells As I sit down to write here amidst the shadows of vine leaves under the blue sky of southern Italy it comes to me with a certain quality of astonishment that my participation in these amazing adventures of Mr Cavor was after all the outcome of the purest accident It might have been any one I fell into these things at a time when I thought myself removed from the slightest possibility of disturbing experiences I had gone to Lympe because I had imagined it the most uneventful place in the world Here at any rate said I I shall find peace and a chance to work And this book is the sequel So utterly at variance is destiny with all the little plans of men I may perhaps mention here that very recently I had come an ugly cropper in certain business enterprises Sitting now surrounded by all the circumstances of wealth there is a luxury in admitting my extremity

The First Men in the Moon H Wells, 2018-07-20 Of the enormous body of work produced by H G Wells more than a book a year over the course of half a century the early science fiction novels that first made him famous have proved to be the most enduring and have earned him the sobriquet the father of modern science fiction In the 1901 classic The First Men in the Moon Wells reveals not only a fertile imagination at ease with biological and astronomical phenomena but also a passionate concern for man and society His first men in the moon prove to be the eccentric Mr Cavor and his traveling companion Mr Bedford who navigate a gravity defying sphere through space before executing a rough landing on the moon As castaways from earth they practice lunar locomotion get lost in the wilds of a moon jungle and confront intelligent life forms living in lunar caverns Through the adventures of these two earthlings the author is able to look at mankind from a distance and in his words burlesque the effects of specialization The result is a delightful tale filled with adventure romance and fantasy that is still capable of stirring the imagination of readers in the 21st century Wells s science fiction novels achieve a near poetry which makes them part of the popular mythology of their age the best of his work has a vitality a verve an imaginative compulsion unsurpassed by any of his contemporaries N C Nicholson author of H G Wells H. Wells (illustrated) H. G. Wells,2017-01-22 The First Men in the Moon is a scientific romance published in 1901 by the English author H G Wells who called it one of his fantastic stories The novel tells the story of a journey to the moon undertaken by the two protagonists a businessman narrator Mr Bedford and an eccentric scientist Mr Cavor Bedford and Cavor discover that the moon is inhabited by a sophisticated extraterrestrial civilization of insect like creatures they call Selenites The narrator is a London businessman who withdraws to the countryside to write a play by which he hopes to alleviate his financial problems Bedford rents a small countryside house in Lympe in Kent where he wants to work in peace He is bothered every afternoon however at precisely the same time by a passer by making odd noises After two weeks Bedford accosts the man who proves to be a reclusive physicist named Mr Cavor Bedford befriends Cavor when he learns he is developing a new material cavorite which can negate the force of gravity When a sheet of cavorite is prematurely processed it makes the air above it weightless and shoots off into space Bedford sees in the commercial production of cavorite a possible source of wealth enough to work any sort of social revolution we fancied we might own and order the whole world Cavour hits upon the idea of a spherical spaceship made of steel lined with glass and with sliding windows or blinds made of cavorite by which it can be steered and persuades a reluctant Bedford to undertake a voyage to the moon. Cavor is certain there is no life there. On the way to the moon they experience weightlessness which Bedford finds exceedingly restful. On the surface of the moon the two men discover a desolate landscape but as the sun rises the thin frozen atmosphere vaporizes and strange plants begin to grow with extraordinary rapidity. Bedford and Cavor leave the capsule but in romping about get lost in the rapidly growing jungle. They hear for the first time a mysterious booming coming from beneath their feet. They encounter great beasts, monsters of mere fatness that they dub mooncalves and five foot high Selenites tending them. At first they hide and crawl about but growing hungry partake of some monstrous coralline growths of fungus that inebriate them. They wander drunkenly until they encounter a party of six extraterrestrials who capture them. The insectoid lunar natives referred to as Selenites after Selene the moon goddess are part of a complex and technologically sophisticated society that lives underground but this is revealed only in radio communications received from Cavor after Bedford's return to earth. Bedford and Cavor break out of captivity beneath the surface of the moon and flee, killing several Selenites. In their flight they discover that gold is common on the moon. In their attempt to find their way back to the surface and to their sphere they come upon some Selenites carving up mooncalves but fight their way past. Back on the surface they split up to search for their spaceship. Bedford finds it but returns to Earth without Cavor who injured himself in a fall and was recaptured by the Selenites. As Bedford learns from a hastily scribbled note he left behind, Herbert George Wells 21.
