The Hidden Economy The Context And Control Of Borderline Crime:

The hidden economy Stuart Henry, 1980 The Hidden Economy : the Context and Control of Borderline Crime S. Henry, 1978 History and Crime Barry S Godfrey, Paul Lawrence, Chris A Williams, 2007-12-18 This lively and accessible text provides an introduction to the history of crime and crime control It explains the historical background that is essential for an understanding of contemporary criminal justice and examines the historical context for contemporary criminological debates Topics covered include Crime statistics Constructions of criminality Policing Prisons Surveillance Governance White collar crime Immigration and crime For each topic the book provides an overview of current research comment on current arguments and links to wider debates The Key Approaches to Criminology series celebrates the removal of traditional barriers between disciplines and specifically reflects criminology's interdisciplinary nature and focus It brings together some of the leading scholars working at the intersections of criminology and related subjects Each book in the series helps readers to make intellectual connections between criminology and other discourses and to understand the importance of studying crime and criminal justice within the context of broader debates The series is intended to have appeal across the entire range of undergraduate and postgraduate studies and beyond comprising books which offer introductions to the fields as well as advancing ideas and knowledge in their subject areas Corruption, Informality and Entrepreneurship in Romania Roxana Bratu, 2017-12-27 This book examines the meaning structure practices and symbolism of corruption in relationship to European Union structural funding in Romania It offers a unique account of the complex transformations faced by post communist societies Despite the new legislation that effectively re branded typical economic practices in Romanian society as corruption entrepreneurs continue to use them in everyday interactions The entrepreneurial culture described in the chapters is an ordinary trait of the local work routines Rather than pursuing the singular logic of corruption the author explores the concept of informality by focusing on the socio historical context and the meanings embedded in the society that provides solutions to the problems The book will appeal to students scholars and practitioners in the areas of corruption public policy and EU policy and politics Cocaine Trafficking in Latin America Sayaka Fukumi, 2016-05-23 The post Cold War world has seen the emergence of new kinds of security threats Whilst traditionally security threats were perceived of in terms of military threats against a state non traditional security threats are those that pose a threat to various internal competencies of the state and its identity both home and abroad The European Union and the United States have identified Latin American cocaine trafficking as a security threat but their policy responses to it have differed This book examines the ways in which the EU and the US have conceptualized this threat Furthermore it explores the impact of cocaine trafficking on four state functions economic political public order and diplomatic in order to explain why it has become securitized Appealing to a variety of university courses this book is especially relevant to security studies and European and US policy analysis as well as criminology and sociology Deviant Behaviour Clifton D. Bryant, 2014-09-03 A comprehensive set of readings examining the full range of concerns in the field of deviant behaviour All the selections are relatively recent and have not appeared in other anthologies The Termination of Criminal Careers Stephen Farrall,2017-07-05 Recent years have witnessed an increase in the attention given to the later stages of criminal careers Research upon this topic has charted the main factors associated with the termination of criminal careers outlined some of the possible reasons behind these relationships and started to develop theoretical explanations for such relationships Collected together for the first time are some of the most important contributions to this field of research The collection focuses upon the initial explorations into this topic the most commonly observed findings the cessation of offending by specific offender types and theoretical matters An introductory essay by the editor provides a thorough overview of the work in this area and highlights the reasons why the termination of criminal careers will become increasingly important to criminologists and criminal justice policy makers alike

Asian Models Of Entrepreneurship - From The Indian Union And Nepal To The Japanese Archipelago: Context, Policy And Practice (2nd Edition) Leo-paul Dana,2014-06-13 In this book Leo Paul Dana makes it clear that much can be learnt about the nature of entrepreneurial activity when we delve into the unique characteristics of different nations of South Asia South east Asia and East Asia Through in depth analyses and comprehensive reviews of many Asian countries the profound differences both among and within countries of the region become vividly apparent Dana juxtaposes the explosion in entrepreneurial growth within China against the struggles to build an entrepreneurial community in Japan or the enlightened public policy leadership in Singapore against the crisis driven developments in Korea The range of factors identified within each of the 15 countries examined by Dana is not an example of random influences on the entrepreneurial process because they can be construed in more systematic and logical ways Thus the book uncovers the Chinese model of gradual transition the Royal Cambodian model and the Doi Moi model among many others The reader is challenged to grasp these different models and identify their commonalities and differences Handbook of Probation Loraine Gelsthorpe,Rod Morgan,2013-05-13 This

Handbook provides a comprehensive authoritative and up to date source of information and analysis about all aspects of the work of the Probation Service It takes full account of the many changes that the Probation Service has undergone over the last few years and is currently undergoing as probation becomes part of the broader National Offender Management Service Contributors to the book are drawn from leading academics and practitioners in the field drawing upon the best expertise available Running through the book is a concern with a range of key current issues such as addressing the diversity of offenders and creating effective links with other criminal justice agencies and it includes perspectives from both probation service staff and from offenders and victims This book is an essential text for practitioners trainees and students of probation and those studying it as part of a wider criminology or criminal justice course New Directions in Criminological Theory Freda Adler,William S. Laufer,2023-04-28 New Directions in Criminological Theory focuses on new approaches to theory construction with particular emphasis on reformulations and new applications of existing paradigms It includes an assessment of labeling theory demonstrating how the approach could become part of a more comprehensive explanation of crime. A case is made for studying crime in terms of the social context in which crimes are conceived, interpreted, and negotiated. The debate between crime general and crime specific approaches is further amplified. A rethinking of Hirschi's control theory is presented. The volume includes theoretical discussions of spouse abuse, of punishment, and of power control models. Additional chapters examine theoretical advances in corporate illegality, employee theft, and the alcohol crime syndrome. These original contributions include: Charles F. Wellford and Ruth A. Triplett, The Future of Labeling Theory; Austin T. Turk, A Proposed Resolution of Key Issues in the Political Sociology of Law; David Weisburd and Lisa Maher, Contrasting Crime General and Crime Specific Theory; Sally Simpson, Strategy, Structure, and Corporate Crime; Edward W. Sieh, Employee Theft; Robert Nash Parker, Alcohol and Theories of Homicide; Kimberly L. Kempf, The Empirical Status of Hirschi's Control Theory; Jeffrey Fagan, The Social Control of Spouse Assault; Marc Le Blanc and Aaron Caplan, Theoretical Formalization: A Necessity; Michael J. Lynch, Control Theory and Punishment; Gary F. Jensen, Power Control vs. Social Control Theories of Common Delinquency; John Hagan, A. R. Gillis, and John Simpson, The Power of Control in Sociological Theories of Delinquency.
