The Adventures Of Mr Nicholas Wisdom:

The Adventures of Mr. Nicholas Wisdom Ignacy Krasicki, 1992 ENGLISH TRANSLATION OF THE FIRST POLISH NOVEL EVER WRITTEN IN 1776 The Routledge World Companion to Polish Literature Tomasz Bilczewski, Stanley Bill, Magdalena Popiel, 2021-09-30 The Routledge World Companion to Polish Literature offers an introduction to Polish literature through thirty three case studies covering works from the Middle Ages up to the present day Each chapter draws on a text or body of work examining its historical context as well as its international reception and position within world literature The book presents a dual perspective on Polish literature combining original readings of key texts with discussions of their two way connections with other literatures across the globe With a detailed introduction offering a narrative overview the book is divided into six sections offering a chronological pathway through the material Contributors from around the world examine the various cultural exchanges at play with each chapter including Definitions of key terms and brief overviews of historical and political events literary eras trends movements groups and institutions for those new to the area Analysis and notes on translations including their hidden dimensions and potential Textual focus on poetics such as strategies of composition style and genre A range of historical sociological political and economic contexts From medieval song through to the contemporary novel this book offers an interpretive history of Polish literature while also positioning its significance within world literature The detailed introductions make it accessible to beginners in the area while the original analysis and focused case studies will also be of interest to researchers Another canon : the Polish

nineteenth-century novel in world context Grażyna Borkowska, Lidia Wiśniewska, 2020-01-01 Polish contemporary literature is not a closed book to European and world readers Those not involved professionally in the production or study of literature may well have heard of Stanisław Lem Witold Gombrowicz Czesław Miłosz Wisława Szymborska or the recipient of the Nobel Prize in Literature for 2018 Olga Tokarczuk The situation is different with Polish literature of earlier periods including the eighteenth and nineteenth century novel The works of Ignacy Krasicki Michał Czajkowski Józef Ignacy Kraszewski Eliza Orzeszkowa Maria Komornicka Stefan Erasmowski and Bolesław Prus the exception perhaps is Henryk Sienkiewicz whose novels were translated into many languages did not enter European circulation on any large scale and have rarely been included in comparative studies Our book attempts to change this perspective and poses the question as to whether another expanded and more inclusive literary canon is possible Grażyna Borkowska is a professor at the Institute of Literary Research at the Polish Academy of Sciences a corresponding member of the Polish Academy of Sciences and the president of the Adam Mickiewicz Literary Association Lidia Wiśniewska is a professor and the Director of the Chair for General and Comparative Literature at the Kazimierz Wielki University in Bydgoszcz and vice president of the Adam Mickiewicz Literary Society Association Re-Reading the Eighteenth-Century Novel Jakub Lipski, 2021-08-12 Re-Reading the Eighteenth Century Novel adds to the dynamically developing subfield of reception studies within eighteenth century studies Lipski shows how secondary visual and literary texts live their own lives in new contexts while being also attentive to the possible ways in which these new lives may tell us more about the source texts To this end the book offers five case studies of how canonical novels of the eighteenth century by Daniel Defoe Henry Fielding and Laurence Sterne came to be interpreted by readers from different historical moments Lipski prioritises responses that may seem non standard or even disconnected from the original appreciating difference as a gateway to unobvious territories as well as expressing doubts regarding readings that verge on misinterpretative appropriation The material encompasses textual and visual testimonies of reading including book illustration prints and drawings personal documents reviews literary texts and literary criticism The case studies are arranged into three sections visual transvaluations reception in Poland and critical afterlives and are concluded by a discussion of the most recent socio political uses and revisions of eighteenth century fiction in the Age of Trump 2016 2020

Another Life Илья Трифонов, 1999 Beyond their acute depiction of life in the Soviet Union Yuri Trifonov's novellas offer an extraordinarily rich literary encounter in the tradition of great nineteenth century Russian writing Another Life is the story of Olga a woman suddenly widowed and attempting to grasp the memory of her brilliant erratic husband and to understand their life together Possessed with a passion for truth able to appreciate how the past affects the present he could not hope to flourish in a society where intrigue and moral compromise were the norm A sharp satirical portrait of an academic opportunist The House on the Embankment is paradoxically laced with compassion and humor Vadim Alexandrovich Glebov rises from shabby origins to become an apparatchik yet in so doing suffers his share of oppression from society from former friends and most significantly from his total inability to make decisions Book Jacket

Snapshots Alain Robbe-Grillet, 1995 Alain Robbe Grillet has long been regarded as the chief spokesman for the controversial nouveau roman This collection of brilliant short pieces introduces the reader to those techniques employed by Robbe Grillet in his longer works These intriguing gemlike stories represent Robbe Grillet's most accessible fiction

Novel with Cocaine M. Ageyev, 1998 A Dostoevskian psychological novel of ideas Novel with Cocaine explores the interaction between psychology philosophy and ideology in its frank portrayal of an adolescent's cocaine addiction The story relates the formative experiences of Vadim at school and with women before he turns to drug abuse and the philosophical reflections to which it gives rise Although Ageyev makes little explicit reference to the Revolution the novel's obsession with addictive forms of thinking finds resonance in the historical background in which our inborn feelings of humanity and justice provoke the cruelties and satanic transgressions committed in its name

The Town of N Leonid Dobychin, 1998 This text represents an extraordinary example of late Russian literary development It is populated with characters who are petty grasping perfidious and cruel quite unlike the positive heroes of contemporary socialist and realist novels

Teresa Martha Neera, 2020-09-15 Teresa first published in 1886 is set in Italy's Po Valley near Cremona The story relates the life of Teresa Caccia an eldest daughter whose primary responsibilities at age fifteen include taking care of her younger siblings When she falls in love the union is deemed financially unsuitable and she is forced to spend the remainder of her youth caring for her family. Only when her brothers and sisters have left home can she emerge from her bleak existence and create her own life. Through Teresa and other women characters Neera addressed the injustice of such societal restrictions in nineteenth century Italy. Neera's narratives are noted for their subtle psychoanalytical presentation of feminine states of mind as well as for an unflinching examination of society.

Preparing Liberty in Central Europe Josette Baer, 2012-02-03

The often turbulent history of the Czechs and Slovaks in the 20th Century leading from the Czechoslovak Republic to four decades of communist rule ended with the Velvet Revolution in 1989. The independent Czech and Slovak democracies achieved EU membership in 2004. While their political histories under Austrian and Hungarian rule in 19th Century has been widely researched their intellectual history is still largely unknown mainly due to a lack of English translations. Preparing Liberty in Central Europe provides a collection of newly translated texts by Czech and Slovak intellectuals and political thinkers covering the period of time from the Spring of Nations in 1848 to the Spring of Prague in 1968. The collection includes J. n. Kollár's On literary reciprocity, T. G. Masaryk's The difficulties of Democracy and the debate about the Czech Fate between V. clav Havel and Milan Kundera in 1968. 9. The volume addresses students of history, philosophy, political science and Slavic Studies interested in issues such as Slavonic national revival, Panslavism, Austroslavism, liberalism and Human Rights. Additional comments on text and author guide the reader through one hundred and thirty years of Czech and Slovak political thought. A large selected bibliography and index complement the volume.
