The Age Of Capital 1848 1875 History Of Civilization:

The Age of Capital, 1848-1875 Eric J. Hobsbawm, 1979 The Age of Capital Eric John Hobsbawm, 1997 The Age of Capital Eric Hobsbawm, 1996-11-26 In this book Eric Hobsbawm chronicles the events and trends that led to the triumph of private enterprise and its exponents in the years between 1848 and 1875 Along with Hobsbawm's other volumes this book constitutes an intellectual key to the origins of the world in which we now live Although it pulses with great events failed revolutions catastrophic wars and a global depression The Age of Capital is most outstanding for its analysis of the trends that created the new order With the sweep and sophistication that have made him one of our greatest historians Hobsbawm identifies this epoch's winners and losers its institutions ideologies science and religion The Age of Empire, 1875-1914 Eric J. Hobsbawm, 2000 This text is concerned with the strange death of the 19th century the world made by and for the liberal middle classes in the name of universal progress and civilization It is about hopes realised which turned into fear as an era of unparalleled peace engendered an era of unparalleled war The Politics and Policies of European Economic Integration, 1850-1914 Yaman Kouli, Léonard Laborie, 2023-01-01 This book asks anew whether there really was European integration before 1914 By focussing on quantitative economic indicators and qualitative data the international regulation of patents communication networks social policy and plant protection the authors re evaluate European integration of the time and address the politics of seemingly apolitical cooperation The authors show that European integration was multifaceted and cooperation less the result of intent than of incentives National politics and international regimes co shaped each other The result is a book that achieves two things offer stand alone chapters that shed light on specific developments and these read altogether develop a bigger picture It will be of interest to researchers and students of economic history as well as those interested in the history of internationalism and globalisation The Modern Pilgrim Paul Post, Paulus Gijsbertus Johannes Post, Jos Pieper, Marinus van Uden, 1998 This book is the product of a relatively long history of pilgrimage research in a Dutch theological setting It is intended as a report for an international audience on this long running programme Two lines are followed in the book The first is the track of liturgical studies in which an historical European ethnological and anthropological approach has predominated The second is a social science track with specific content coming from psychology of religion The combination of these two lines has been extremely fruitful In addition to results of various surveys of contemporary pilgrimage practice and the expansion of research into ritual and cultural context in which modern pilgrims find themselves special attention is also bestowed on historiographic issues involved in orienting pilgrimage research and its theoretical and methodological aspects The places of pilgrimage examined here are Wittem Dokkum and Amsterdam in The Netherlands Banneux in Belgium Lourdes and La Salette in France and Santiago de Compostela in Spain The central question which informs the whole study is to what extent one can perhaps speak of a new type of pilgrim today the modern pilgrim A History of Civilization: 1648 to the present Crane

Brinton, 1984 History of Civilization Robin W. Winks, Crane Brinton, Robert L. Wolff, 1992 Age of Revolution, 1789-1848 Eric J. Hobsbawm, 2000 Between 1789 and 1848 the world was transformed by both the French and Industrial Revolutions creating the modern world as we know it This book traces the transformation brought about in every sphere of European life by these two revolutions The SAGE Handbook of Globalization Manfred Steger, Paul Battersby, Joseph Siracusa, 2014-05-22 Global studies is a fresh and dynamic discipline area that promises to reinvigorate undergraduate and postgraduate education in the social sciences and humanities In the Australian context the interdisciplinary pedagogy that defines global studies is gaining wider acceptance as a coherent and necessary approach to the study of global change Through the Global Studies Consortium GSC this new discipline is forming around an impressive body of international scholars who define their expertise in global terms The GSC paves the way for the expansion of global studies programs internationally and for the development of teaching and research collaboration on a global scale Mark Juergensmeyer and Helmut Anheier's forthcoming Encyclopaedia of Global Studies with SAGE is evidence of this growing international collaboration while the work of Professor Manfred Steger exemplifies the flourishing academic literature on globalization RMIT University's Global Cities Institute represents a substantial institutional investment in interdisciplinary research into the social and environmental implications of globalization in which it leads the way internationally Given these developments the time is right for a book series that draws together diverse scholarship in global studies This Handbook allows for extended treatment of critical issues that are of major interest to researchers and students in this emerging field The topics covered speak to an interdisciplinary approach to the study of global issues that reaches well beyond the confines of international relations and political science to encompass sociology anthropology history media and cultural studies economics and governance environmental sustainability international law and criminal justice Specially commissioned chapters explore diverse subjects from a global vantage point and all deliberately cohere around core global concerns of narrative praxis space and place This integrated approach sets the Handbook apart from its competitors and distinguishes Global Studies as the most equipped academic discipline with which to address the scope and pace of global change in the 21st century
