existed during those centuries between legal political thinking and theology Second nearly all of them transgress the sharp dividing line traditionally drawn between the medieval and the modern which did so much in the past to distort our understanding of intellectual developments in the sixteenth and seventeenth centuries Third all of them raise historiographic questions or probe the metahistorical methodological questions which have troubled the field for the past quarter century and more

The Author's Intention Jeffrey Anthony Mitscherling, Tanya DiTommaso, Aref Nayad, 2004-01-01 At the end of the twentieth century literary theorists find themselves reflecting on their discipline Since at least 1969 the humanities and social sciences have seen the rise of Marxist critical theory Foucault or discourse and the new historicism various schools of American and European cultural studies deconstruction and poststructuralism One of the major coups of the last 30 years from which all of the previously mentioned theoretical camps benefited was the attack on and subsequent death of authorial intentionality In The Author's Intention co authors DiTommaso Mitscherling and Nayad divert the current philosophical misrepresentation of authorial intention Implicitly challenging a second generation theoretical approach to literature that dismisses the possibility of truth coherent narratives and of course intentionality the authors breathe new life back into the author and also literary theory This book is essential reading for anyone in the humanities who has an interest in critical thought hermeneutics and all forms of interpretive technique

Truth, Beauty, and Goodness in Biblical Narratives Krzysztof Sonek, 2009 The book proposes a hermeneutical theory which uses modern approaches to literary texts for the exegesis of biblical narratives This theory is then applied to the exegesis of Genesis 21 1 21 and involves the evaluation of the New Criticism rhetorical criticism structuralism and narrative analysis reader response criticism the historical critical method as well as deconstruction To satisfy the postulate of pluralism in interpretation the theory draws upon a variety of ancient and modern sources such as Aristotle T S Eliot Hans Urs von Balthasar and Paul Ricoeur
